BERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY. About two months ago our baby giri had measles which settled on her lungs and at last resulted in a severe attack of branchitis. We had two doctors but no relief was obtained. Everybody thought she would die. I went to eight different stores to find a certain remedy which had been recommended to me and failed to get it, when one of the store-keepers insisted that I try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I did so and our haby is alive and well today.-Geo. W. Spence, Holly Springs, N. C. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy always cures and is pleasant and safe to take. The rooms were prettily decorated, the music was good and the entire program pronounced the "best ever." The entertainment was a great success, despite the dis-agreeable weather. It is estimated agreeable weather. It is estimated that fully 200 persons were unable to attend on account of the heavy rain and snow.

Judge E. D. Hoge and Rev. D. A. Brown Pay Tribute to Deceased-Sidney W. Darke was burled yes-

riday from the First Baptist church, he services commencing at 2:30 o'clock. Many friends gathered to pay a tribute of respect to a man whom they had learned to honor and respect in life. The members of four fraternal or-ganizations, the Odd Fellows, A. O. U. W., Redmen and Daughters of Rebekah, W., Number and Daughters of Receivan attended in a body. The choir and Mrs. Fred B. Jones, soloist, rendered the selections "Near-er. My God, to Thee," "Lead Kindly Light," and "Face to Face," The speak, ers were Judge E. D. Hoge and Rev. D. A. Brown. SANTA WITH THE ELKS. Local Lodge in High Feather a

Christmas Celebration

Santa Claus held forth at the Eiks lub last night and delighted the antlered herd and friends to the number of over 400 by his wise and generous distribution of gifts to the members.

In the center of the big lodge room was a handsome Christmas tre Boor was a handsome Christmas tree loaded down with gifts. M. M. Mur-faugh acted the part of Santa Claus-and did it in a manner to excite the envy of the real article. The presents were given by the lodge and none cost more than 25 cents, while most of them cost much less. For instance, there were many large and beautiful dia-mond rings, costing 10 cents each, given to the ladles. The real fun began when some of the
