

WILL PRESIDENT SIGN TARIFF BILL

Senate and House Leaders Conclude is No Basis for Reports That He Will Veto Measure.

SECY. MACVEAGH'S SPEECH.

Taft Was Not Aware of Its Character—Cannot be Regarded as Expressing His Opinion.

Washington, June 8.—Senate and house leaders who are directing the course of the tariff bill through Congress, and who will be members of the conference committee after the bill has passed the senate, took measures today to ascertain whether there was any foundation for reports that President Taft would veto the bill. They have concluded that there is no basis whatever for such reports.

Speaker Cannon, Senator Aldrich and Representative Payne individually have been to the White House several times in the last few days. They say that if President Taft dissatisfied with the course the bill is taking through Congress, he has concealed his attitude.

As late as this evening the president told one of the Republican leaders that no one had authority to suggest that he had in mind the veto of the bill.

Mr. Aldrich today talked with the president for some time. When he returned to the Capitol he told his colleagues that the president did not appear to be at all perturbed about the tariff situation, and that he had expressed confidence in members of the finance committee.

Capital has heard made of the fact that President Taft has been consulted frequently about amendments being made to the bill.

President Taft will be expected by Mr. Aldrich and Mr. Payne to give his personal attention to the bill in every stage of its progress. As a matter of fact, the president is always regarded as a member of the conference.

It was learned upon the highest authority that President Taft had not read the Chicago speech of Secy. MacVeagh before the secretary left Washington for Chicago, and that the president was not aware of the character of the speech.

This answers the report that the speech was an official view of the tariff situation, and that it expressed Mr. Taft's opinion.

The Republican leaders were inclined to assign to political inexperience Secy. MacVeagh's failure to consider that any speech delivered by him would be taken as the view of the administration. Many leaders point to the fact that the speech was delivered to an audience which sympathized entirely with demands for revision downward, but at the same time they assert that a careful reading of the speech would indicate that it had been misconstrued in many quarters.

SUCCESSOR TO SENATOR HOPKINS OF ILLINOIS.

William Lorimer, who will succeed Senator Hopkins of Illinois in serving his sixth term in the lower house of Congress. He is a native of Manchester, England, and came to America in 1870. He is 45 years old. When he was 15 years old his father died, and he had become a sign painter's apprentice. Later he was employed in Chicago packing houses and then became a contractor, contracting for building from that sphere into the real estate and general contracting business. Twenty years ago he was a power in ward politics. Personal magnanimity, loyalty to his political friends and a keen knowledge of the game have kept him in the public eye ever since.

GRAFTING OF LIMBS DESCRIBED BY PROF. POZZI

Paris, June 8.—Prof. Pozzi, the eminent French gynecologist, yesterday described to the academy of medicine the results of experiments at the Rockefeller Institute in transplanting organs and grafting limbs. He told of his success in grafting to a fox terrier the hind leg amputated from another fox terrier and also of the grafting of dogs' tails.

He quoted Dr. Cartell as being unsatisfactorily of the opinion that a monkey had been grafted with a limb amputated from another man or from a corpse, or a person just killed by violence.

Dr. Cartell, however, was unwilling to draw hasty conclusions regarding the transfer of organs of dumb animals to man. He had refused the request of two patients to replace an arm and a kidney.

TRAIN WRECKING MYSTERY SOLVED

Chicago, June 8.—A train wrecking mystery of two months ago was solved yesterday by the confession of Willie Osborne, a 15-year-old lad living near Griffith, Ind. He admitted he had attempted to derail the train out of revenge for the killing of a stock of pigs belonging to his father, William Osborne.

Three hundred passengers on a Chicago-bound vestibule flyer were saved from death or injury when the engine of the New York limited on the Grand Trunk, saw a tie on the westbound track just out of Griffith, Ind. Two months ago and notified the railroad officials at Griffith in time to save the westbound train. The tie was found fastened to the track and the train was arrested on suspicion of intended robbery.

Mr. Osborne, a farmer living near Griffith, Ind., had lost the right of way, having lost his land by fire from a Grand Trunk engine and the company had refused to settle for it. The boy had heard this discussed at home and decided to avenge his father's loss.

It took Russell Sage 50 years to get $65,000,000. This great sum amounted to $3,500 a day for the life time of the financier. Mrs. Sage is now giving away the fortune at the rate of $25,000 a day. If the widow continues her charities at the pace she has set all will be gone in five years. Comparison of the financier's power to make money with Mrs. Sage's faculty of giving it away, shows that the widow is giving away $2 in the same time that it took Mr. Sage to accumulate the proverbial "30 cents."

New York, June 9.—In less than three years, Mrs. Russell Sage has spent more than $25,000,000 for public purposes and the benefit of mankind. Her recent donation of $250,000 to the establishment of a gigantic employment bureau call attention anew to her prolific bounty.

Many governors and other distinguished men attended the opening of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle. The machinery was set in motion by an electric current flashed from the White House by President Taft and accompanied by his greetings. J. E. Chulberg, president of the exposition, to whom great credit is due for the successful completion of the vast undertaking, presided at the opening ceremonies. Mr. Chulberg is a pioneer of Alaska and the founder of many large financial institutions.

Chicago, June 9.—Alderman John Burns declared that the members of the house of delegates of St. Louis are cheaters of charity and unfair sportsmen and therefore the Chicago council should not play baseball with them. He said last night at the meeting of the council and wanted action taken from the St. Louis body to play two games of ball this summer to go unnoticed.

"We played with those fellows last year and it was the agreement that the proceeds should be devoted to charity," said the alderman. "I am informed that the St. Louis aldermen sold tickets and placed some of the money derived therefrom in their own pockets and that charity for which the game was played, got little or none of the cash. I am opposed to engaging in sports with men who do such things and therefore move that the invitation be placed on file."

Rapid City, S. D., June 9.—William A. Lynch, a pioneer rancher on the South Grand, died yesterday leaving a large estate, including thousands of dollars cash in bank at Bellefourche, but no one to inherit his wealth, so far as known. The estate, according to the law, if not claimed by heirs within a certain period, will revert to the state.
