

IDAHO NOMINEE GETS OFF TICKET.

Declines to Run for Congress in An Anti-Mormon Campaign—His Reasons.

DOESN'T APPROVE THE METHOD

Writes Letter to the State Committee On the Subject—Nominee for Attorney General Withdraws.

An interesting political condition has arisen in the Democratic party in Idaho. Interesting political conditions are always arising there, however. This time F. H. Holzheim, who was nominated for Congress by the Democrats at the Lewiston convention, is the central figure of the incident. He has written to the state central committee saying that he cannot consistently make the race along the lines that appeared to have been laid down by the party managers after his acceptance and after the adjournment of the convention. He thinks it is quite clear that it is the intention to wage an anti-Mormon warfare; and although not a "Mormon" himself, he says he cannot run with such a plank as the paramount issue. His letter follows in full:

"Hon. C. H. Jackson, Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, Boise City, Idaho—My Dear Sir: When I accepted the congressional nomination at the hands of the Democratic party of the state of Idaho, in convention assembled, I fully believed that even though the resolution of the Mormon question was to be incorporated into our platform, the matter could be settled and handled in a manner which would be satisfactory to all honorable contestants. Now, however, conditions have arisen since my nomination, and which conditions have arisen because of the fact that at the meeting of the Democratic state committee held on a Monday night at the Hotel Haystack, after the convention adjourned, the campaign to be waged in our state was outlined, and it appears that the campaign, as it is said, is to be waged on a racial plane against the Mormon people, and the said resolution is to be made the paramount issue.

"This being true, and as I am not in sympathy or in full accord with the same, I cannot, in honor to myself, after the position I took in the Democratic convention, both in convention and on the floor of the convention, remain upon the ticket and make the necessary campaign outlined by our state committee, and therefore must, at this time and therefore do now, tender to the state committee, through you as chairman, my resignation as the congressional nominee of the state of Idaho upon the Democratic ticket. Having been sent to me in gratitude for the high honor conferred upon me, I arrived at this conclusion only after careful deliberation. The confidence shown by my party is one for which any man may justly be proud, but the only way I can ever hope to retain that confidence in the future is by taking this step, which I believe to be the only honorable one that I can pursue.

"This action of mine is a purely personal one and will affect me only, but will make it possible for our state ticket some one who can consistently make the campaign as outlined, and be in full accord with the state committee. to town, city and county health officers. This action on the part of the state board of health is rendered compulsory in justice to the health interests of the state and the proper upholding of the law. It is sincerely hoped, however, that the board may be spared the unpleasant duty by the prompt compliance with the law in the future on the part of all concerned. We realize that the duties of health officers are frequently onerous, appreciated and ill paid, but this should not prevent any person who accepts the office from faithfully performing the said duties. A very large majority of the health officers of the state are prompt and regular with their reports, and we trust from this time on there will be no delinquents. Yours truly, T. B. BEATTY, Secretary.

TICKET NAMED ON THE SABBATH DAY.

Socialists Meet and Place a Complete Set of Officers in the Political Field.

J. A. HAUFFMAN FOR GOVERNOR

Grant Sphers of Ogden Was Chairman—List of Nominees and the Platform That Was Adopted.

The Socialists of the state met in convention yesterday morning at 10 o'clock in the Federation of Labor hall and nominated a state ticket and adopted a platform for the coming campaign. The convention was decidedly harmonious and the nominations were made without much of a contest. The nominee of the party for governor is Joseph A. Kauffman, a miner and mine owner of Bligham. The other nominees are: Presidential Electors—J. H. Zenger of Salt Lake; A. C. Jacobson of Cache; J. W. McGinn of Sanpete. Secretary of State—A. L. Porter of Juab. Attorney-General—Charles E. Randall of Salt Lake. State Treasurer—Ole Arlison of Sanpete. State Auditor—Joseph McLaughlin of Weber. Superintendent of Public Instruction—Claude Lewis of Iron. Justice of the Supreme Court—C. C. Goodwin of Cache. Representative in Congress—W. H. Schock of Sevier.

The convention was presided over by Grant Sphers of Ogden, and was moderated by Logan, was chosen as secretary. A state committee of seven, as provided in the platform, was chosen to conduct the campaign. They are: H. P. Burt of Salt Lake; William Bogart, Salt Lake; C. Peterson, Sanpete; W. H. Schock, Sevier; O. E. Parsons, Salt Lake; George Spahr, Salt Lake, and Gus Vierbel, Juab.

Members from Salt Lake county constitute the executive committee. Joseph Gilbert of Salt Lake, C. W. Miller of Logan and Brigham Birch of Mill Creek were nominated for the office of national committeeman, and the final selection will be left to a referendum vote of the party.

The following platform was presented to the convention by the committee, and was adopted without debate: The Socialist party of Utah, in convention assembled, pledges its fidelity to the principles of international socialism as set forth in our national platform.

We declare our aim and purpose to be the organization of society into an industrial democracy to the end that individual liberty may become a fact. The laws and institutions that were in harmony with a previous industrial condition are no longer adequate, owing to economic development.

When man owned his own land and tools and produced for his own needs, his free will was independent. That day has passed and given way in co-operation in production.

This co-operation in production, however, is not for the direct benefit of the worker, but for the private profit of those who own the means of production. This gives rise to the division of society into two economic classes, a producing and a non-producing class. By reason of this division one set of men are enabled to dictate the terms upon which others shall live. One class enjoys opportunities without work, the other, work without opportunity for enjoyment. Such a state of society engenders strife and hatred and is subversive of that unity which is so essential to the stability, peace and prosperity of a nation.

We hold that society should be so organized that all those things upon which the people in common depend shall be by the people in common owned and administered. This would have the effect of abolishing all class antagonisms, since all would then be workers, making goods for direct use, and with interests in common.

With the abolition of production for profit there would be no idle nor parasitic classes, no speculative, consisting of the private ownership of the means whereby others live, would cease to exist and equal opportunities for all would prevail.

There can be no possible basis of equal rights for all and special privileges to none except in the complete triumph of the working class as the only class that has a right to be, since if a man will not work neither should he eat.

If elected to office, our first duty shall be the procuring of legislation that will promote the workers' most immediate interest, thereby strengthening and Hammond Appears to Have the Greatest Support Form There.

At the Republican county convention held in Brigham City on Saturday the delegates were instructed to secure, if possible, the nomination of J. A. Edwards as state auditor. The majority of the state convention delegates are for Hammond for governor.

The following delegates were elected to the state convention, with instructions to act with those delegates in the senatorial convention: F. W. Fishburn, B. H. Jones, Moshah Evans, H. C. Boden, Peter Lowe, J. F. Merrill, J. A. Edwards, S. C. Wilson, S. C. Secretary, W. R. McBricker, treasurer, Alva Nelson. These with the following constitute the board of trustees: Samuel A. Klog, Wm. M. Roylance, Hugh McGee, C. O. Newell, M. M. Kellogg and J. C. Swenson.

Many prominent Democrats addressed the meeting in a most enthusiastic and hopeful spirit. The matter of securing a suitable hall for holding regular weekly meetings was referred to the board of trustees.

EVANS STILL A CANDIDATE.

The report of Mr. Evans' withdrawal from the race for district attorney on the Republican ticket, made in connection with the report of the Fifth ward primary in Saturday's "News," was evidently based on a misunderstanding of Mr. Evans' position. He states that he is still a candidate and will let his name go before the convention for the support of his friends.

Democratic Club Organized.

Special Correspondence. Prove—The Democratic club of Provo was organized Saturday evening at a large and enthusiastic meeting held in the court room. The articles of incorporation adopted are based on the articles of incorporation of the Young Men's Democratic Club of Salt Lake, and many more are expected to join from reports made by the committee on membership.

The following are the incorporators and the officers: President, L. O. Taff; first vice president, E. E. Coffman; second vice president, Thomas N. Taylor; secretary, W. R. McBricker; treasurer, Alva Nelson. These with the following constitute the board of trustees: Samuel A. Klog, Wm. M. Roylance, Hugh McGee, C. O. Newell, M. M. Kellogg and J. C. Swenson.

PART OF UTAH FOR A GREAT PARK

Earnest Plea Made by a Resident Of Heber City for Such Condition.

SAYS NATURE HAS DONE MUCH.

Only a Part of the Immense Reserve Is Suitable for Farming—A Splendid Summer Resort.

To the Editor: Heber City, Utah, Aug. 20.—It is very probable that next March the Utah reservation will be thrown open for settlement. It is therefore an opportune time to raise the question should not a part of this great reserve be set apart for a state park?

The great Father of Nature has divided this reservation into a fertile farming district and a natural park. In the south and eastern part of the reserve, near the mouth of the large streams, the altitude and climate are such as to permit the growth of grain and some hardy fruits. Here, too, water is not so scarce and the soil is rich and unbroken. Within a radius of 20 miles, covering the head of the Duchesne, Rock Creek, Current Creek, and Strawberry streams, how different the conditions! When the August nights are hot at the mouth of these streams, a heavy frost is falling up in the mountain valleys where the streams rise, making it too cold to raise even grain. But the cold nights are followed by warm and delightful days.

What a grand place for tourists, and how they flock to this nature's paradise! Should one visit the Strawberry Current Creek and other valleys during the summer months, he would find these places dotted with tents, occupied by people from "near and far," who have fled from the scorching days and sleepless nights of the cities to breathe the cool and balmy air of this life giving mountain resort. A peep along the streams would reveal hundreds of fishermen, "bagging" the speckled beauties that jump for the tempting bait while the crack of the shot gun and rifle may be heard all day near the foothills, the home of the rabbit and sage hen.

The mineral springs, and natural curiosities of this proposed park are many, while the scenery everywhere is a feast to the eye. At the base of snow-capped peaks countless springs of crystal water trickle from their hiding places, and creeping through grass and flowers, unite with larger streams, and go leaping down the wild and rugged canyons. Timid birds and wild beasts are found in great numbers among the green valleys, around the mirror lakes, and in the great dense forests that flourish upon the shady hillides.

To throw open this great resort would be a crime against nature and the people of Utah. It would mean that the hillsides would be quickly robbed of their timber, and left parched and barren; the streams defiled, the fish killed; the elk, moose, deer and other game slaughtered and many thousands of people deprived of a grand summer resort.

And who would be benefited by such a move? None but a few ranchmen, who could farm the land on account of the cold nights, and no one but ranchmen would it be profitable to.

As a park this section of the reservation is priceless as a farming district it is worthless. If reserved, countless thousands of our own people would enjoy it for years to come and the railroad now being built would fetch numerous tourists to the park. Then again, what a source of revenue it would be! The enormous sum spent every year by pleasure seekers in the National game preserves would be shared by us, besides the money that would be kept at home by our own pleasure seekers.

As the population increases such a place would be all the more sought for and all the more profitable. Throughout the state the hills are now almost entirely private property. As a result game is scarce and the game laws are unenforced. The game is being fenced, the hills made barren, the game becoming extinct and the price one has to pay to enter private property.

For climate, game, fishing, scenery, water, and everything that goes to make an outing desirable, Utah has a park equal to almost any in our land. Let us not throw it away, but let us have it reserved and improved; the streams always well stocked with fish, the game preserved, the sheep and cattle kept off and the public thus benefited in preference to the expressions of many leading citizens, a plank in one of the political platforms this fall favoring the reservation of a state park on the Utah reserve would meet with the hearty approval of nine-tenths of the people of Utah. WARD CHANGES.

New Bishop Appointed Last Night to Preside Over Tenth Ward.

Joseph Christensen was last night sustained as Bishop of the Tenth ward, to succeed Adam Sphers who has presided there for 27 years and who has been called into the High Council of Liberty state. Charles S. Martin and Jesse B. Higgs were named as his counselors.

The meeting was held in the ward meetinghouse and was presided over by the state presidency.

Words of praise for the retiring Bishopric and appropriate to the occasion were spoken by Elder Anthony H. U. of the First Presidency and Elder Arnold H. Schultze of the state presidency, who emphasized the fact that these brethren were not released because of any neglect of duty but because they have been called to higher positions.

Bishop Christensen is very popular in his ward and has been a most successful in the Bishopric for about a year and a half. Elder Martin is at present filling a mission in the Eastern states and Elder Higgs has just returned from a mission to England.

Joseph Keddington, who was first counselor in the old Bishopric, has been called to preside over the High Priests' quorum of the stake.

A feature of the meeting was the special music prepared and rendered by the ward choir.

A NUMBER OF FINE PIANOS LEFT

They Will Be Closed Out At Alteration Sale Prices by Wednesday of This Week

AT THE CLAYTON MUSIC CO. STORE.

The Extensive Store Alterations Begin Thursday, and Until That Time the Opportunity is Open to Purchasers

TO SECURE A FINE PIANO AT COST AND LESS

We Extend to All That Desire it, Our Easy Payment Plan of Purchase at These Cost-And-Less Prices—All Can Buy—No One Should Hesitate.

OPEN EVENINGS, 109 SOUTH MAIN STREET.

WING to the fact that our extensive store alterations do not begin until Thursday and the further fact that many requests from country towns to continue the sale prices have come to us, as they had "just noticed the advertisement" or that "we can not be there until Monday" and many other like expressions, we have decided to continue the sale prices on a limited number of fine pianos, organs and piano-players until Wednesday.

This sale has been a great boon to a very large number of piano and organ buyers. Were we to tell you the exact number of people who have supplied their homes and families with instruments since this sale was inaugurated, and give you the gross saving made by all these buyers, we fear it would appear as a fit subject for unbelief.

Suffice to say that figures tell no untrue story; the price tags taken from delivered instruments plainly indicates the number sold, also the great discounts given each purchaser which approximates fully 33 1/3 per cent off the regular low selling value.

So much for the past ten days' sale, selling, buying, and saving, now for three days or until 8:30 Wednesday evening, we will offer the same discounts on good pianos and organs that we have been offering during the sale. In fact we have re-marked a limited number of fine instruments at a much lower figure than the previously cut prices, and we offer them on extremely easy terms if desired.

Your favorite instrument must be here for the stock comprises the highest class and most reliable pianos and organs, such as Steinway, Kimball, Steck, Knabe, Chickering, Estey, Mason & Hamlin, Heller, Whitney, Fischer and other pianos, Estey, Kimball and Mason & Hamlin organs, all marked in plain figures showing actual discounts of one fourth to one half off, the lowest obtainable prices.

To realize the money-saving importance of this sale in connection with the best musical quality, a call of inspection is quite necessary, but as an example to show how many of the instruments are plainly marked, we quote the following:

USED $300 TO $800 UPRIGHT AND GRAND PIANOS, $85 TO $250. Terms cash or payments $6 to $10 monthly up.

A FEW NEW $275 TO $325 UPRIGHT PIANOS $140 TO $198 Terms cash or $6 to $10 monthly up.

SOME HANDSOME $400, $450 AND $550 PIANOS, $265 TO $387. Terms cash or payments $10 monthly up.

A FEW $250 PIANO PLAYERS, $125, $150 AND $175. Cash or payments to suit.

SOME NEW $100, $125 AND $135 ORGANS, $60 TO $87. Terms cash or payments $5 monthly.

An early call Monday is advisable to secure choice of these great bargains that are left.

LITTLE House Furnishings are serving to popularize the Basement Section. They are sold lower than such articles usually are, because we want to attract people to that portion of the store, where Carpets, Rugs, Metal Beds, Draperies, etc., are handled. Being no easy matter to induce trade to visit the Basement, the idea of Little House Furnishings was hit upon.
