Remains Due Today—The remains of Miss Mabel Clift, who died at Phoenix, Ariz, yesterday, will arrive in the city this afternoon at 5 o'clock over the Sait Lake Route. Miss Clift was 24 years of age and had gone to Phoe-nix for the benefit of her health. She was a member of Silver Maple circle No. 198, Women of Woodcraft. No arrangements have yet been announced for the funeral services,

Sunday School Convention-The State Sunday School association open-ed its twenty-fifth annual convention in the First Congregational church at Provo today. Rev. W. C. Merritt, in-ternational field worker, will be pres-ent and address the convention. Among those from this city who are on the program are Rev. W. M. Pader, Rev. P. A. Simpkin, Thomas Weir, F. J. Lucas, L. M. Gillilan, Mrs. William Igleheart, Mrs. J. R. Foulks and Mrs. E. E. Shepard.

Mother Seeks Son—A young man namel George M. Cushing, who is sup-posed to have been in Salt Lake for some time, is being sought for by his mother, who arrived here yesterday. The man came here from Denyer, and wrote to his mother upon letterheads of the local Y. M. C. A., thus giving the impression that he was in some way in touch with that organization. The officials of the Y. M. C. A., however, know nothing of Cushins, and his mother has asked the police to try and locate her son.

JOHN KENDRICK BANGS.

Editor of "Puck" Will Lecture Here Next Friday Evening.

Two more offerings will be presented before the end of December in the Mutual Improvement winter series. One of them is by a famous editor of an of them is by a famous editor of an American humorous weekly, and the other by an exponent of the intest developments in electricity. Next Friday evening John Kendrick Bangs, editor of Puck, will give an evening on the gospel of humor, and he will be followed Saturday, Dec. 22, by Reno B. Wilbourn on "Electricity."

John Kendrick Bangs is out preach-

John Kendrick Bangs is out preach-ing for a bigger place for humor in the American daily life. His talk is entitled. "From Adam to Ade," and the line of descent is followed through the choice spirits who have laughed over their coffee, and jested while the world ran along in its daily course.

Mr. Bangs is editor of Puck. He is also author of two classics of Ameri-can literature, "The House Boat on the Styx," and "Coffee and Repartee." In addition to these there are about 26 other books from his pen now on the market, and some of them have had fair rank among the greater produc-ions on this side of the pond, Authors are so seldom good personal entertainers, that Salt Lake audiences in the past have sometimes had to take their recompense for attending in the satisfaction of knowing that they had met the man behind some favorite book. Mr. Bangs, his press agent de-clares, is a tall man, and a seriously modest man. He doesn't talk to make his audience laugh, but to explain to them the need for a more healthful appreciation of humor as a daily exercise for the health. His idea is that the home often loses some of its brightest hours because there is nothing in it to supply genuine laughter. Cares take the place of smiles, he says, petty wor-ries drive sentiment a-begging, and troubles are allowed to stand in bold array, where pleasure longs to be king, all because there are human belings who fail to comprehend the value Four numbers of the course will remain to be given after Jan. 1.

DINNER AT STATE PRISON

Warden Pratt "Entertained" 220 Inmates of the Institution.

gloomy environment, and all intent on the ministration in the wants of the in-ner man. At the county jall, 25 pris-oners sat down to a big feed at the hands of the sheriff, and at the city jall there were 34 prisoners to enjoy a fine repast at the hands of the city. At the county infirmary there was a sumptuous turkey spread, with a phon-ograph concert in the evening. Then the Orphanage children were by no means forgotten, nor were they at the the Orphanage children were by no means forgotten, nor were they at the Day Nurseries. St. Mark's hospital patients, and those at the L. D. S. hospital were also remembered.

Holiday hours were observed at the offices of the telephone companies. At the Y. M. C. A. there was a dinner at noon, and another one at night. Then the hotels all had extra fine menus, with the culinary departments of the various clubs by no means behind. There were numerous family and social There were numerous family and social reunious over the evening dinner table, and the local places of amusement, including the roller skating rinks, fur-nished entertainment. So altogether it was a pleasant day, and occasion.

MET HIS DEATH

Years, Instantly Killed on Thanksgiving Day.

WAS CARELESS WITH A GUN.

While Climbing Out of Wagon Weapon Discharged and the Young Man Fell Dead.

The annual Thanksgiving rabbit hunt, which is wont to be participated in with an abundance of pleasure and good cheer, resulted in the death of one young man yesterday and cast a pall of gloom over the entire party. The victim was Albert Zachreson, 17 years of age, who resided at 108 Lincoln avenue. He made his home with his brother-in-law, Arthur Caffall, at the address mentioned, but his mother, step-father and other members of the family live at 1396 Ninth East street.

The accident happened near the close The accident happened near the close of the day's slaughter of rabbits and while some of the hunters were returning to the train. In the wagon with young Zachreson were a number of other men, and all were on the look-out for game along the roadside. Finally a stop was made and some of the hunters alighted among them being hunters alighted, among them being Zachreson. As he attempted to climb over the side of the wagon box, his gun. which is supposed to have been cocked, was in some manner discharged and the load of shot struck the youth midway between the hear; and the throat, and death was almost instantaneous. The terrible accident caused con-sternation among the little group with the young man, and when the body arthe young man, and when the body arrived at the train the whole party partook of the spirit of horror and the trip to Sait Lake was made with an entire absence of the mirth that characterized the outward journey.

No one in the party knew who the dead man was, and it was not until often the body had been to the body.

The members of his family were grief-stricken when they were apprised of their relative's tragic death. A collection was taken up among the members of the hunting party, and a sum exceeding $50 was secured to assist in defraying the funeral expenses.

The deceased was born in Salt Lake May 9, 1890, and his father was Na-poleon Zochreson. His mother, as stat-ed, is Mrs. William R. Barrett.

SIX INDICTMENTS IN RABBIT HUNT TO BE RETURNED

Albert Zachreson. Age Seventeen | That Many Sealed Documents in Possession of Marshal Spry.

CREATING SPECULATION.

Would be Interesting to Know the Identity of Men Who Will Have To "Face the Music."

The fact that six sealed document envelopes containing indictments to be returned when the grand jury meets again have been handed to Chief Deputy Lucian Smyth of Marshal Spry's office is creating considerable speculation among those interested in the coal land fraud investigation, Those who are following developments ahe hazarding guesses as to the iden-tity of the men who will have "to face the music." The papers were locked up in the safe at the marshal's office over Thanksgiving.

TISTIMONY CHANGED.

It is believed that the government is now after F. W. Spaulding, a Uniou Pacific attorney at Evanston. Spaulding jestified at both sessions of the interestate commerce commission held here. The first time under oath he testified that he had bought certain coal lands in Wyoming as a speculation. Money for this speculation had been borrowed from George L. Black of the Union Pacific Coal company. He said that the loan was made in good faith and had been repaid when the deed for transfer had been handed over to the coal company official. On Wednesday he stated that Mr. Black Wednesday he stated that Mr. Black had selected and designated the land to be bought and there was an under-standing that the land would be turned over to the Union Pacific Coal comover to the Union Pacific Coal com-pany as soon as patents had been se-cured. At the former session in Sep-tember Spaulding refused to admit that he had received $200 compensation from the coal company. On Wednesday last he changed his testimony.

With a view to inquiring into an apparent case of perjury a full copy of the testimony of Spaulding given at both sessions of the interstate commerce commission investigation has been transcribed and handed over to United States Dist. Atty. H, E. Booth for investigation.

IMPROVEMENTS PLANNED.

Extension to be Made to the Auditorium Skating Rink.

Phil S. O'Meara of the Auditorium as sociation on Richards street says that important improvements are to be made to the big structure just as soon as possible. It is planned to erect a building to the north of the skatting rink. When the addition is completed the north wall will be removed and the floor space will then be enlarged to the extent of 160 feet. If this space had been available last evening it could easily have been used. The intrior was crowded to its capacity last night with enthusiastic roller skaters. Ever pair of skates obtainable was in use and the gliding, swaying, twisting skaters presuted a bewildering sight. One visitor remarked: "What's got hold of the people sociation on Richards street says that of Salt Lake? They seem to have gone 'dany' over the roller skating craze.

The San Francisco team of fancy skaters performed again last evening to the delight of everyone present. Their difficult balancing act was interesting and thrilling.
