THOMAS SMALL DEAD. Faithful Church Member Passes Away In Lansingburg, N. Y.

A Lansingburg, N. Y., paper of June 23, contains the following: "The death f Thomas Small, a well known resident, occurred at an early hour yesterday morning at his home, 882 Third avenue. The greater part of his life was spent in England, where he was born 74 years ago. He came to this ountry in 1880, and settled in this section, where he had since resided. For several years past deceased had been an invalid. Four daughters survive."

Mr. Small was a faithful member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, he and his family having ccepted the Gospel in Shrewsbury England, many years ago. Last himself and two daughters came to this city in the hope that the climate might benefit the old gentleman's health. However, on reaching here it was found that the altitude was too high, and on the advice of a physician they returned east very soon after.

A HUMANE WORKER. Miss Mathewson Will Organize the Society in This City.

The humane society of this city will be reorganized by Miss Helen Mathewson of Denver who is now here for that purpose. Miss Mathewson has been connected with such work in Denver and Cheyenne and it is her purpose to create new interest in the society here and enlarge it so that the various branches of the work may be represent-ed. She has interested a number of prominent citizens here in the work nd she will attempt to establish society which can afford to keep an agent in the field all the time in pre-enting cruelty to animals.

Miss Mathewson will endeavor to organize a woman's branch of the society which will look after and care for mis treated children. An arrangement will probably be made whereby the school children can be instructed in the prin iplese of humane treatment of city will be formed into bands o the protection of animals. It is the the city as has never been done before.

LEG TO BE AMPUTATED. Mrs. Sophia Nielson to Undergo an Operation at the Hospital.

Mrs. Sophia Nielson of the Twentyseventh ward was today taken to the Holy Cross hospital, where her right leg will be amputated. About last New Year's gangrene set in in one of the toes and has since spread over half the foot, causing the most excruclating pain, for the relief of which it was thought best to have part of the limb removed. Her two sons are away from home, Axel F. O. being in the Illinois Medical college at Chicago, studying medicine and Alex J. being in Washington, D. C., where he has a position in the treasury department. Mrs. Nielson's daughters in this city, Mrs. H. D. E. Peterson of the Twentyfirst ward and Mrs. Joseph Kjar the Twenty-fourth ward, have faith-fully waited upon their mother during her long affliction. Her husband, Mr. Hacon Nielson, died some five years ago, in the Eleventh ward, this city The family have numerous friends in this city and Provo who will wish for Mrs. Nielson's speedy recovery to health. The lady is 73 years of age.

HOLDUP LAST NIGHT.

Street Car Conductor Relieved of Sum Of Money. The tall man and the short man are abroad again doing business at the old stand. Last night they introduced Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Lynch of Boise and Mrs. Albert Frost of Missoula, have come to Salt Lake to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Catherthemselves to the crew on the last car to their nerves.

Streetcar No. 42 of the South Tempte line was the car visited and Conductor J. E. Woodward and Motorman H. Beck were the men held up. After the holdup, which occurred about midnight, the men reported the affair to the pose with the result that a patrol load of officers went to the scene and search ed for signs of the robbers without any result. The story as told by the motorman was that the car had just reached the end of the line and the conductor was about to change the trolley when a man with a handkerchief over his fafront end and covered him. "I though at first that it was someone trying t run a 'sandy' on me," said the m man in relating the incident. "I him to quit joshing, but he stuck the gun in my back and then I thought that there was something doing, especially as I caught sight of another man with a gun in his hand."

The highwayman then marched the motorman to the rear of the car and made him hold down the trolley rope o as to shut off the light and power while he searched the conductor for coin. After the man had secured all the silver he told the conductor to dig up the paper money he had in his hip pocket. Woodward accommodated to the extent of a $10 bill. The robbers then told the men to get back to town and not tarry on the way. A few seconds after car No. 42 was making a record trip west, while the robbers were running southward in the direc-tion of the reservoir. The streetear men could not furnish a very good de-scription of the fellows. They say that the fellow who dld the work was tall, ellin and well dressed. The other man, they believe, was shorter, but as he stood in the shadow and kept out of ight most of the time no definite deor the money secured $4.55 was the personal property of the conductor. The men's watches were not touched.
