

as a residence for the President of the Confederacy.

RUTLAND.—The accident on the Rutland railroad is worse than was at first reported; only one man out of twenty-five escaped injury, three were killed outright, as previously reported, and two of the wounded—Douglas Flint, of New York city, President of the Boston, Saratoga and Western railroad, and A. R. Field, of Greenfield, Mass., Civil Engineer of the Greenfield and Hoosac Tunnel railroad—have since died. W. H. Emerson, of the Cambridge, Mass. canal line, and several others are horribly scalded, the flesh on their hands being literally cooked to the bone and falling off.

SAN FRANCISCO.—The officers of the California Pacific railroad deny the reported sale of the road to the Central Pacific Co. The State purpose building a branch through Santa Rosa and the Russian river valleys.

The corner stone of the State Capitol of Nevada was laid at Carson City, yesterday, under the auspices of the Grand Lodge of Masons, assisted by the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

BOSTON.—A resolution of sympathy for the people of British provinces who desire annexation to the United States, has been passed in the Massachusetts House.

A number of horticulturists, headed by Col. Marshall and P. Wilder, with ladies, left for a two months' tour to San Francisco. They will be joined by a New York party.

WASHINGTON.—The Senate amendments to the legislative appropriation bill number 256.

An amendment was offered excluding from the court of claims all persons who participated in the Rebellion, and a substitute was adopted, providing that no amnesty be admissible in said court, except when issued during the active operations of the Rebellion and under the proclamation of President Lincoln.

An amendment was offered providing for equality of compensation to females and males in the Department, and a substitute was discussed, simply opening all the classes of clerkship to women.

The committee of conference on the army bill have completed their report. The army is reduced to 30,000. All important points in both the Senate and House bills are agreed to.

Red Cloud and party have had a final interview with Secretary Cox and Commissioner Parker. The Secretary told them that some of their requests concerning rations, &c., will be acceded to and the government will do all in its power to make them comfortable; Fort Fetterman must, however, remain. They start on their homeward journey on Monday via New York, where they will receive the balance of their presents. Red Cloud evinces dissatisfaction at the continuance of Fort Fetterman and to roads running through their country and intimated that trouble may arise, which will be the fault of the great fathers.

CINCINNATI.—The International Typographical Union have adopted resolutions asking the subordinate Unions to exercise more care in admitting members. An amendment to the constitution was introduced, providing for delegates to the International Union from each subordinate Union, providing for the number of votes to be cast for such Union and charging a tax of one dollar. It went over until next year.

The case of Professor Weston of Antioch College, on the charge of taking students' letters from the Post Office and appropriating their contents, has been dismissed.

WILMINGTON.—The Republican Congressional convention in the 3rd District, after a stormy session and a split, re-nominated Dockery, who refused to endorse Holden's administration. There is another candidate nominated by the bolters and conservatives.

NEW YORK.—The executive committee of the Pacific Railroad has awarded the contract for the construction of the Minnesota division of 220 miles, extending from Dalles, on the St. Louis river, west to Red river on the north, to a combination of the old Canadian firm of Ross, Rassen & Co., with the Minnesota firm of Brackett, Garrison & Co. The work is to be completed by the 1st of July, 1871. The commissioner also contracted for twenty thousand tons of rails, with iron appendages, necessary engines and cars requisite for working.

A negro census taker has been appointed in the 8th Ward.

CHICAGO.—The body of Charles H. Hunt, of the firm of Hunt & Goodwin, a resident of Chicago for twenty years, was found floating in the slip near the Illinois elevator, early this morning.

As he has had an affection of the eyes, it is supposed that he was attacked with sudden blindness and fell into the slip. He leaves a wife and two children.

NEW YORK.—Brigadier General William Zeebach, commissary general of subsistence, on Governor Hoffman's staff, died yesterday, at his residence in this city, of heart disease.

The King's county supervisors, yesterday, adopted the report of the subcommittee, finding District Attorney Morris guilty of misappropriating public funds, and voted to send the papers to the Governor for further action.

A contrivance for filling locomotive tenders with water, while at full speed, was applied successfully yesterday on the Hudson River railroad. A tank, sunk between the tracks, was filled with water, from which, by the aid of a pipe, dropped at the proper time, the water is forced into the tender upward. 1,600 gallons were in this wise forced into the tender yesterday, while the engine was going at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour.

The resolution granting the right of way to the Memphis and El Paso Pacific railroad was indefinitely postponed. Bills were passed, making uniform the salaries of the Chief Justices and associates in the Territories, extending, for six months, the passage of the act for the presentation of claims for additional bounties.

Red Cloud denies all knowledge of the treaty of 1867 and says it's all a lie. Copies of it have been given to the Indians for interpretation, and another council will be held to-morrow.

PHILADELPHIA.—The State medical society has finally decided not to touch the question of the admission of women to medical colleges.

NEW ORLEANS.—Judge Bradley, while refusing an injunction against the slaughter house Co., stated that the slaughter house bill had created one of the most odious monopolies ever attempted, and that the injustice perpetrated by the legislation of irresponsible legislatures has become the curse of our country.

CHICAGO.—A singular suicide occurred last night: John Schewitzer, who mysteriously disappeared in January, last night presented himself to his wife, and after a few words of farewell, put a pistol to his head and blew his brains out.

Seventy-five persons from California, en route to the Massachusetts shoe factories passed through here this morning.

SAN FRANCISCO, 11.—The North Transportation Company's steamer Active, from Victoria to San Francisco, was wrecked in a dense fog twenty-two miles south of Cape Mendocino, June 6th; the passengers, their baggage and a portion of the cargo were saved. The vessel was a total loss.

ST. LOUIS.—The car shops of the Kansas Pacific Railroad, at Wyandotte, Kas., totally, were destroyed by fire on Thursday night, with several cars and about fifty thousand feet of lumber; loss fifty thousand dollars, insurance small. The mechanics lost their tools.

A hurricane in St. Charles Co., Mo., on Monday, destroyed the crops, gardens and vineyards to the amount of $25,000.

WASHINGTON.—Red Cloud had a final council with the authorities to-day, and leaves for home on Monday. He says he is not angry, but the Indians are evidently not well pleased with the result of their visit.

The internal revenue receipts for the week amounted to $5,620,085; for the fiscal year $170,102,027. The coin balance in the Treasury $108,284,421; currency $20,713,994; coin certificates $34,671,000.

The wife and child of Senator Cragin were rescued from suffocation at St. James' Hotel to-day; the fire was caused by a fire in the basement.

Twenty thousand dollars in the new ten dollar tender series of 1869, from numbers H. 3,531,000 to H. 3,532,000 inclusive, were stolen to-day from the Treasury.

Red Cloud again interviewed Secretary Cox to-day. The latter advised him and other Indians to adopt the ways of civilization, and assured him that the Government would protect and care for the Indians who kept the peace.

It is stated that the President has organized and is about to inaugurate a commercial policy, which will bring to the United States the vast trade of the Spanish American States, now principally going to Europe. It looks to treaties and intimate relations, which were suggested in the President's annual message.

Senator Morrill and Delegate Hooper, of Utah, interviewed Red Cloud last evening. The latter said there would be no war if the whites waited for the Sioux to commence it. Hooper told the chief that the Mormons never lost a life, an animal or a bale of goods, in crossing the Sioux country until the railroad was built, since which they had lost some property on the train. Red Cloud expressed the opinion that the Mormons always talked straight and dealt fairly with his people. He leaves to-morrow for New York, where he remains a day or two before proceeding home.

Letters from Denmark state that there is much unfriendly feeling among the people at the failure of the Senate to act in some way on the St. Thomas treaty.

The President has ordered the release of the Cuban privateer Hornet, to Macias, the original purchaser, upon giving a bond of $50,000 that she shall not be used in hostility against Spain. Gen. Butler and Hon. E. Chandler gave the securities required.

BUFFALO.—The Young Men's Christian Association building is daped in mourning for Dickens.

NEW YORK, 12.—The surviving sailors of the Oneida were paid off yesterday, and discharged; they were generally dissatisfied with the amount they received.

A quarantine war has broken out between New York and Brooklyn. The quarantine authorities permitted some vessels to proceed to the Atlantic docks and the Brooklyn health officers allowed them to proceed to docks further up East River. An attempt to row them off by the quarantine authorities, last evening, was defeated by Brooklyn men, who cut the hawsers, and took the vessel back into dock.

The regatta of the West Point cadets, three miles, was won by a second class boat, in nineteen minutes and fifteen seconds.

BOSTON.—Mellen, who was convicted a year ago of heavy embezzlement, has been sentenced for each to two years imprisonment, and $100,000 fine.

CINCINNATI.—The National Anti-Secret Society convention, to-day adopted the report of the committee, setting forth that secret societies are essentially immoral and anti-Christian, and therefore are injurious to the whole social fabric. They are of heathen origin, especially the Masons, charging that they ignore the Christian religion, pray to unknown gods, naturally desecrate the holy Sabbath in parading the streets at funerals, and send their dead to Heaven, however they may have lived or died. They are insubordinate to and rivals of the church. They are a snare, and fallacious and deceptive, and that membership among them is destroying the discipline of the church in the case of members who persist in clinging to their fellowship. Speeches were made by Dr. Brown, of New York, and others of small influence.

LEWISTON.—The Central Block has been nearly destroyed by fire; loss $60,000 to $75,000. The principal sufferers are the First National Bank, Cobb &

FOREIGN.

MADRID.—An amnesty will be immediately decreed for all the Republicans compromised in the last insurrection.

CONSTANTINOPLE.—The great fire in the Pera district has subsided; over seven thousand buildings of all sorts were destroyed, many of them the best in the city. The loss of life greatly exceeded the estimate. Some days ago the remains of a hundred and fifty human beings had been found, and it is supposed that this number only represents half the actual loss. The total pecuniary loss is computed at twenty-five million pounds sterling. The English underwriters suffer heavy losses. The archives of the British embassy were saved. The American church of the immaculate conception was on fire several times and considerably damaged, but the Gobelin tapestry, the gift of the Empress Eugenie, with which the church was decorated, was saved.

MONTREAL.—A preliminary meeting of influential gentlemen has been held to take steps to afford the people an opportunity to express their opinions respecting the Fenian raids, and providing for a course to be taken by the government to prevent such occurrences hereafter. The chair was occupied by Thos. Work, M. P. Several speeches were made in regard to the comments of the English press on the raids, and the American President's proclamation, and especially the remarks of the London Daily News and Saturday Review, deprecating General Lindsay's speech, were condemned. The action taken by Thornton, in thanking President Grant for his promptness in stopping the raiders, was considered disgraceful. Mr. Morris said the Canadian government had already stated the case in a strong manner to the Imperial government, and intended to send a Cabinet minister to London to represent their views.

TORONTO.—The annual meetings of the following religious bodies are now being held in this city: The First General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church of Canada; the Western Methodist Conference; the Methodist New Connection and a conference of the Congregational Union of Ontario, etc.

PARIS.—Advices from Rome state that the Ecumenical Council is engaged in discussing infallibility schemes. The debate on the preamble has closed. There has been one or two exciting passages between the supporters and opponents of the proposed dogma, but the minority is now silent and passive. A great demonstration was made yesterday in favor of infallibility. Jesuits were its prime movers. A large procession passed through the streets bearing banners, and singing "viva Papal infallibility."

The World's Chess Congress assembled at Baden the third week in July; a brilliant programme is offered and valued prizes will be given.

FLORENCE.—The insurrection at Lucia was not formidable and is quelled; the fifty-four ruffians, who seized the arms belonging to the military school, were all captured.

PARIS.—The bullion in the Bank of France has increased 9,700,000 francs during the week.

The Empress has sent ten thousand francs to Constantinople to aid the sufferers; the Duke De Grammont has contributed five thousand.

The Corps Legislatif goes to the Pyrenees for health.

The counsel of the persons to be tried before the high court of justice were allowed to see their clients to-day for the first time.

Mellinet declines the Grand Mastership of the Masonic order.

The Pope, in a letter to the Bishop of Tarbes, sustains infallibility in positive terms.

LONDON.—Charles Dickens died at 20 minutes past six, last evening, of paralysis.

LONDON, 9.—The alarm among the farmers at the continued dry weather amounts almost to a panic.

Lord Chancellor Ohagan, of Ireland, has been created a Baron.

The female masqueraders recently arrested, have been indicted for felony.

It is said that Disraeli is about to retire.

The Sappho has declined to compete for the Prince of Wales' cup, on the 24th. The Gloriana beat the Egeria, Cambria and other yachts, from Gravesend to the coast of Holland and back, yesterday.

Official advices confirm the reported victories over the rebels in New Zealand.

BOMBAY.—The cholera is making dreadful ravages in India; the disease is particularly violent at Madras.

MADRID, 9.—In the Cortes yesterday the motion to elect a king by the direct vote of the people was recalled, and the proposition requiring the candidate to have a majority equal to half the whole number of deputies, was carried, 138 to 124. This is regarded as destroying the chances of Montpensier and all the other candidates yet named, as none of them can obtain 178 votes. There is much excitement among all classes of the people. Prim has made a statement that the dispatch, relating to his connection with the Cuban loan, was a malicious invention, there had been no negotiations between him and the American Government, nor between him and English capitalists.

A dispatch from Cadiz announces that the brigands who kidnapped the Englishmen, are all captured, and that a portion of the ransom money has been recovered.

CONSTANTINOPLE.—The loss of life by the conflagration was frightful. Some families were hemmed in by the flames and perished in full view of the spectators. The panic among the people was terrible; many lost all presence of mind and, unable to save themselves or others, in despair made no effort to flee. Some Turks shut themselves in their burning houses, and refusing assistance met their fate without a murmur. Two hundred and fifty persons were burned to death or killed by the falling walls. Many more are missing.

LIVERPOOL.—Flour, wheat, corn, pork and lard are rising in price.

LONDON, 10.—The trial of the Boulton masqueraders has been deferred until July; they were released on bail. Jno. Fisk, the American Consul at Leith, has been arrested in the same connection and bail refused.