

ALICE ROACH FACES A JURY

Sixteen-Year-Old Girl on Trial
For Shooting an Assyrian Peddler.

TONY HANON TELLS STORY.

Defense Will Attempt to Prove That Girl Shot in Order to Save Her Sister's Honor.

The trial of Alice Roach, a young girl 16 years of age, upon the charge of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder, was commenced before a jury in Judge Armstrong's court today. The girl is charged with shooting an Assyrian peddler by the name of Tony Hanon at Bingham on Oct. 25, 1906. Hanon was the only witness on the stand this morning and told, with the assistance of an interpreter, of the shooting which nearly resulted in his death. Dist. Atty. Looftbourg is prosecuting the case and the girl is being defended by Atty. A. J. Weber and Harry J. Robinson. A large number of Assyrians were interested spectators in the courtroom this morning.

When the case was called for trial Miss Roach was arraigned and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge. The work of selecting a jury was then commenced and resulted in the following jurymen being accepted: Frank Goodie, J. L. Perkins, A. L. Foulger, John Hall, J. S. Walker, Herman Campbell, Philip Nedor and R. C. Guiver. The attorneys for both sides waived the usual opening statement to the jury, after which Hanon was called to the stand.

VERSION OF PEDDLER.

He declared that he called at the home of Mrs. Jennie Gibson, a sister of Miss Roach, in Bingham on Oct. 24, and showed his merchandise to both the women. Mrs. Gibson took a center piece and tried it on her table and finally decided to purchase it. He then turned and looked around. He then saw both the women standing in the door with revolvers, but before he could throw up his hands, he declared that two shots were fired, and he fell to the ground. He then attempted to crawl away and finally asked a man to assist him. The man helped him to a saloon where he soon became unconscious. One of the shots took effect in his back near the shoulder blade, Hanon had not completed his story when the court took a recess for the noon hour.

Miss Roach was accompanied in court today by her sister, Mrs. Gibson, and her sister's husband. The defense will attempt to prove that the shooting was done by Miss Roach in order to prevent Hanon from assaulting her sister. It is very probable that the trial will last several days.

OGDEN MEN PATRIOTIC.

Business Men Rallying to the Support
Of the National Guard.

The business men of Ogden are apparently doing all within their power to create interest in the national guard in that city and to encourage their employees to join a company. To that end a petition is being circulated for signatures and a meeting will be held at the business men's club to support the guard. Among the inducements offered in the petition is a 5 per cent increase in the salaries of employees who join the guards and a promise of full pay during the time they are attending the camp. The petition also provides for a subscription of $1 per month by the signers for the creation of a fund to purchase medals to be presented in competition drills.

NOT YET DECIDED.

No action was taken by the juvenile court commission this morning in regard to the juvenile court judgeship in this city and district as Rev. P. A. whether or not he will accept the position. Mr. Simpkin was in consultation with the members of the commission for some time this morning and it is presumed that every possible effort was made to induce him to accept. It was finally decided by the commission to give him until Thursday noon to determine the matter and at that time his answer will probably be forthcoming. The commission made two appointments today in other districts. V. C. Gunnell of Ogden was appointed judge of the court for the Second district, and A. A. Noon of Provo, was appointed as judge for the Fourth district.

KENNEDY GOES FREE.

Supreme Court Holds His Detention in State Prison is Illegal.

James Kennedy was today released from the state prison under a writ of habeas corpus. The order for his release was made by the supreme court this morning after hearing the arguments in the matter presented by Atty. Blamark Snyder for the petitioner and Atty. Gen. Breiden for the state.

Kennedy was convicted of assault with a deadly weapon in Ogden and was sentenced on Sept. 21, 1906, to serve five years in the state prison and to pay a fine of $500. After giving him the benefit of his five years expired in January, his term of confinement for his behavior was held by his attorney that the time imposed was illegal for the reason that the maximum term for assault with a deadly weapon is five years in the state prison. The supreme court held that this connection was good and ordered the prisoner released.

INSURANCE MEN MEET.

Local Association of Life Underwriters
Entertains National President.

A banquet in honor of Frank E. McMullen, president of the National Association of Life Underwriters was held at the Commercial club rooms last night. The chief address of the evening was delivered by Mr. McMullen upon the general subject of insurance. One of the objects of his western trip was to stir up sentiment to prevent radical legislation against the companies or against policy holders. The speaker complimented the Utah branch of the association on the progress made during the two years of its organization. The growth attained was superior to that of any eastern branches. In speaking of the ethics of the business of insurance, Mr. McMullen urged a co-operation among the various agents to prevent robbing and other evils. State Senator Williams made a brief address, and read a letter of regret from Governor Cutler.

Rev. Elmer I. Goshen also made an interesting talk, telling of the benefits of insurance as noticed by him in his pastoral work.

Mr. McMullen leaves for Denver today and will address the Colorado association tomorrow night.

The Utah association will hold its annual meeting next Tuesday night at the Commercial club, at which the regular election of officers will be held.
