

knows that I have told the truth. The females are capable of doing immense good if they will, but if you sit down and say "husband, or father, do it for me," or "brother, do it for me, for I am not going to do it," when life is through you will weep and wail, for you will be judged according to your works, and having done nothing you will receive nothing. Then every man and woman that has been idle in this kingdom will feel "Oh, that I could have my life over again!"

God bless you, Amen.

CELEBRATION OF THE TWENTY-FOURTH IN THE SETTLEMENTS.

Owing to a press of matter and the length of the communications with which our correspondents have kindly favored us, giving accounts of the celebration of the entrance of the Pioneers into these valleys, we are under the necessity of abbreviating and producing them in a condensed form. We are gratified with the spirit of union, peace and joy that universally characterized their several demonstrations.

LEVAN.

The celebration commenced at day-break, with a salute of artillery. The flag was raised at sunrise, and was saluted by the firing of 22 guns. The teachers and Sunday School scholars assembled in the bowery at eight o'clock a.m., with banners bearing appropriate mottoes, and there formed a procession and marched through the principal streets, thence repaired to the residence of Bro. Elmer Taylor, where they were joined by President Pitchforth and party, when they returned to the bowery precisely at 11 o'clock a.m.; when the following programme was presented:

House called to order by the Marshal. Singing by the choir, prayer by the Chaplain, singing by the choir. Oration by Bro. Geo. Gardner, Orator of the day; singing; Reminiscence of the pioneers, and history of the church by President Samuel Pitchforth; singing; Benediction by the Chaplain.

At 2 o'clock p.m., the tables were set, and all partook of a sumptuous dinner provided by the sisters.

At 3 o'clock p.m., the juveniles enjoyed themselves dancing, the evening was devoted to the same amusement by the adults. All appeared to enjoy themselves; and everything went off agreeably.

Yours truly,
HEBER HARTLEY.

PARAGOONAH, IRON CO.

The usual salutes at sunrise announced to the citizens of Paragoonah that the 24th had come. At nine o'clock a procession was formed, which marched through the principal streets to the schoolhouse, where speeches were delivered by Bishop Silas S. Smith and other brethren. The after part of the day was spent in the joyous dance and other amusements, until the coming of the Sabbath morning bade them cease.

SMITHFIELD.

The usual salutes and music announced the opening day. At nine o'clock the various quorums of the Priesthood, the Female Relief Society, the Sunday School, a bevy of young ladies and the martial band formed in procession. At half-past ten meeting was opened in the Bowery, which had been tastefully decorated for the occasion. Orations were given by Elder J. S. Cantwell, the orator of the day, and the representatives of the various quorums, interspersed with songs by the Sunday School children and others, and music by the string and martial bands, while Sister Adeline Barber, in behalf of the Female Relief Society, read a very interesting address to the mothers in Israel. At 3 p.m. the youth of the settlement gathered in the dance, and in the evening the "big folks" followed the example of the juveniles, until midnight, when all retired highly satisfied with the day's enjoyments.

HYRUM.

Daybreak was greeted by repeated salutes of musketry and the music of the martial band. At half-past nine the procession was formed, and about an hour afterward meeting was convened in the Bowery, where, after the usual opening services, speeches, songs, toasts, music, etc., became the order of the day. The young folks called upon by the committee of arrangements, did rich credit to themselves and the occasion, frequently calling forth loud applause from the spectators and convulsing the entire assembly with laughter. The afternoon's recreations consisted of foot racing, wheelbarrow racing blindfolded, climbing a greased pole for a prize, etc., followed by a juvenile dance and another for the adults in the evening. Altogether it was a grand day for Hyrum.

CLARKSTON.

This settlement, considering its youth and size, made quite a demonstration. There was the customary procession, in which were represented the fathers and mothers in Israel, the Female Relief Society, the youth of both sexes, the Sabbath School scholars, and the native born of Clarkston. A very interesting meeting in the Bowery followed the procession, closing with a brief representation of the different nationalities in the settlement, which proved a source of fun to all present.

MENDON.

Mendon luxuriated in the usual salutes, music, procession and meeting, followed, at 2 p.m., by horse and foot racing, wrestling, jumping, racing in sacks and with wheelbarrows. At 4 o'clock all joined in the merry dance, which did not break up until the approach of midnight warned them that the Sabbath was near. The day was one of great enjoyment for all who participated in the festivities.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

SABBATH MEETINGS.—In the morning Elder Brigham Young, Jr., spoke upon the instances in the history of this church in which the providence of God had been manifested in its preservation, showing, therefrom, that the whole of its members ought in gratitude, to live that religion to whose truth they are always ready to testify.

President Brigham Young delivered a discourse, chiefly, upon the extent of female influence in communities, and the necessity of that influence being directed and controlled in accordance with true principle. His remarks were reported.

In the afternoon President George A. Smith delivered an historical discourse upon the City of Nauvoo, its settlement by the Latter-day Saints, their history while there, and the causes which led to its desertion by them. It was reported and will appear in the NEWS at an early day.

FIRE IN THE 14th WARD.—About nine o'clock this morning a fire broke out in a two storey tenement building immediately west of Bishop Hoagland's residence in the 14th Ward, owned by Mrs. Schwartz. The fire originated in a room in the upper story occupied by an old Scotch lady, during her temporary absence. She had a quantity of fuel stored away in the room, and it is supposed a spark from her fire ignited some of the chips and sticks she had accumulated to burn. The fire was first discovered by smoke being observed issuing through the roof; every effort was made to stay the progress of the flames, which unfortunately was not successful, until the entire upper storey was destroyed and much damage done to the lower one, the floors and walls of which were all that was saved. The furniture, fortunately, was all taken out of the building before the flames injured it.

EVERY MAN TO HIS TRADE.—Our establishment being rather short of gentlemen versed in the higher branches of astronomy we delegated our sporting correspondent to take observations of the eclipse and return us a scientific account of the same. The following is his report: "Match between Sol and Luna. True to appointment Luna led off by squaring up cautiously, making a decided impression on Sol's 'northern limb.' This was at 2.15 p.m. by our chronometer. By 2.30 our old friend Sol showed signs of suffering, as he began to look black in the face. Evidently in earnest, Luna 'went in' and gained ground considerably, getting a little in advance of Sol, at 2.45, 'local time.' By 3 p.m. any odds would have been laid that Luna would put an extinguisher over Sol, who kept smiling all the time. At 3.10 the old gentleman still 'blazed away,' but the shine was considerably taken out of him, scarcely any traces of his benign countenance being left; in a few moments he was completely 'doubled up' like a gilt letter C, or a three days' old moon dipped in a flash of lightning."

OBSERVER.

Immediately after reading the above dispatch we sent a delegation of four employees to secure observer's services for life at an immense salary, to report all future heavenly phenomena.

NOTICE is hereby given, that Herschel and John Bullen are excommunicated from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, for Profanity and Unchristian-like conduct.

MARRINER W. MERRILL, Bp.

FILLMORE.—Elder John L. Smith favored us with a brief call this morning. He reports everything in a prosperous condition in and around Fillmore; the last remnants of the locusts were taking their departure, last Tuesday, the day Bro. Smith left. They had done a good deal of damage to the late crops, but the farmers of that district would reap a splendid crop of early grain. The election passed off quietly; a large number of votes were polled.

THE SCANDINAVIAN IMMIGRATION.—The company of Saints from Scandinavia, in the charge of Elder Olson, who left Omaha on the 3rd inst arrived at Taylor's Mill, about eleven o'clock on Friday night. Yesterday morning about four hundred of them had dispersed among their friends, and the remainder were expected to move south to homes in Sanpete Co., and other parts of the Territory.

MANTI.—Our correspondent, J. C. Brown, Esq., sends us a flattering account of the prospects for a most bountiful harvest in Sanpete Co., which, notwithstanding the introduction of numerous labor-saving machines, is occupying the entire time and attention of all the available labor in the county. He states that in Manti the Co-operative Store is doing a good cash business, under the direction of Bishop Moffit, the President, and the Board of Directors. A dividend that gave general satisfaction was declared last month. The Female Relief Society, with Mrs. A. Washburne as Presidentess, was doing a vast amount of good in succoring and comforting the needy.

STILL ALIVE.—The young man Buys, said to be from Centerville, Davis Co., who was so nearly murdered a few days ago at Hamilton, White Pine, was alive on the 4th instant. The Daily Inland Empire of that date says:

"Young Buys, so brutally injured in this city last Friday night, and subsequently removed to the County Hospital, still lives, but there is little hope of his ultimate recovery. Since the trepanning operation, which was performed on Sunday morning, he has shown more symptoms of rationality; but on account of the paralyzed condition of the throat and tongue, he is unable to speak as yet. On the whole, Dr. Willard does not think his condition has materially altered in the last twenty-four hours."
