Reed in Cheek Has been playing to crowded houses at the Bush street Theatre, San Fran-cisco, for the past two weeks.

San Francisco Press Extracts: The Bush Street Theatre was filled to the doors last night with a friendly and even cordial audience. Reed's funny songs were loudly applauded—Chronicle.

Roland Beed received the compliments of a very large audience at his opening night, and a very kindly reception of his play of "Cheek."—Bulletin.

Roland Reed in "Cheek" was welcomed with a growded house, in which even standing room was scarcely obtainable. His songs were splendidly, rendered.—Cull.

Roland Reed is creating much mirth at the Bush Street Theatre. He is a hose in himself, and his support is admirable. His single g was a feature of the performance.—Examiner.
