BUCK &amp; WRIGHT AHEAD.

As may be seen by the following article, which we copy from the New Orleans Times of 15th inst., Buck & Wright have borne off the highest premium in the stove line at the New Orleans Fair. Six entries were made with Buck's "Brilliant," away ahead of the heap.The great stove trial was resumed yesterday at 12 o'clock, before a largely increased crowd over the day preceding. The utmost good humor seemed to prevail, both among the exhibitors and spectators, all of whom seemed thoroughly imbued with the good old P. R. principle of "may the best stove win." Promptly to the time the committee appeared on the judges' stand, Saunders, particularly, glowing with excitement and responsibility. The entries were the same as at the previous trial, and the engineers had not been charged.At ten minutes to one the drum tapped, and all lighted up. Norton's Furnace, run by Mr.
E. Wood Perry, led off in smoke, amid the cheers of the crowd and loud cries of "Go it, old one." Charter Oak followed, and the rest gave vapor immediately after. In four minutes, just as they were (as we might say rounding the quarter stretch), "Cotton Plant" popped in bread; all followed suit as quickly as though life dependent on the issue, but Buck's Brilliant had started fire with bread already in the stove.
Then came the tug; the cooks' countenances glowed like the stoves, a perpetual snapping of opening and shutting doors resounded over the arena. Stoves were patted, coaxed and petted as though they were human beings. All seemed confident of winning, and the crowd enlivened the scene with numerous and encouraging comments from time to time. Mr. Perry's efforts seemed to be the greatest favored.At twenty minutes past one "Cotton Plant" threw open its throttle valves and announced that it wanted no more fuel. All the others "shut up" and "keeping dark." As the time for the bread to be baked approached, excitement had increased to a baking heat, both within and without the arena. At last Peerless turned out its bread in 42 minutes; Norton's Furnace followed suit, in 42:15; Cotton Plant next, in 43; then Charter Oak, in 43:2; then Good Samaritan, 44:20; and lastly Buck's Brilliant, in 47. The grand result of the trial was as follows:Norton's Furnace, E. Wood Perry, bread weighed 7 lbs 3 oz; burned fuel 7 1/4 lbs.
Charter Oak, Rice, Bros. & Co., bread weighed 7 lbs 4 oz; burned fuel 6 3/4 lbs.
Peerless, Campman & Co., bread weighed 7 lbs 4 oz; burned fuel 6 3/4 lbs.
Good Samaritan, bread weighed 7 lbs 3 oz; burned fuel, 7 1/2 pounds.
Cotton Plant, Levi & Navra, bread weighed 7 lbs 1 oz; burned fuel, 7 1/4 lbs.
Buck's Brilliant, Buck & Wright, bread weighed 7 lbs 4 oz; burned fuel, 3 1/2 lbs.At the conclusion of the trial, the bread was taken charge of by the Awarding Committee and locked up for an hour, at the expiration of which it was all eaten by them, in accordance with their duty, and the gold medal awarded for best wood stoves to Buck & Wright, of St. Louis, honorable mention being made of the Peerless, Campman & Co.—New Orleans Times, Jan. 15.

Washington, 30.—House.—Churchill introduced a bill to amend the act of March, 1792, relative to vacancies in the offices of President and Vice President, requiring a new election in the case of an interval of eighteen months between the double vacancy and the ordinary termination of the Presidential term.
Referred to the judiciary committee.The Senate re-assembled at 11 o'clock.
Edmunds called up the bill to regulate appeals to the court of claims, which was amended and postponed till to-morrow.At 12:30 the President, pro tem., vacated the chair, which was immediately taken by the Chief Justice. The Sergeant-at-Arms made a proclamation commanding silence. The President's counsel took their seats. The House managers entered; and Butler commenced his speech at a quarter before one.House.—Haight presented a joint resolution from the New Jersey Legislature, withdrawing the consent of the State from the proposed amendment to the Constitution. Washburne, of Illinois, desired to return the document as a rebuke to the disloyal Legislature.
The Speaker said that was not in order, as all papers presented in the morning hour must be referred. Washburne gave notice that he would move to suspend the rules in order that the document might be taken up and returned to the New Jersey Legislature.The House then proceeded to the Senate chamber to attend the impeachment trial.The House reassembled at half-past four, and resumed business. Several suggestions were made as to the hour of meeting to-morrow.The House resumed consideration of the resolution of the New Jersey Legislature. Finally, Washburne obtained the suspension of the rules, and offered a resolution returning the resolution to the Legislature of New Jersey, for the reason that the same is disrespectful to the House, scandalous in character, and the title only shall be referred to in the Globe. Ross demanded the reading of the resolution. The Speaker said the gentleman had no right to demand the reading. Eldridge remarked, "We are required to return a resolution as being scandalous without knowing what it is." The Speaker overruled the point of order, and after considerable filibustering Washburne's motion was adopted.The rules were then suspended, and on motion of Schenck, a resolution was offered to print 5,000 copies of Butler's speech, with the accompanying brief, and 40,000 without the brief. Adjourned.Senate.—Butler spoke over three hours.After the conclusion of Butler's speech, Wilson, on the part of the managers, offered in evidence certified copies of the oath of office of President Johnson, of the appointment of Secretary Stanton by President Lincoln, and the ratification of said nomination by Johnson, with a communication to the Senate assigning his reasons for the suspension of Stanton; after which the court adjourned till 12 o'clock to-morrow.San Francisco, 30.—The Legislature adjourned sine die to-day, having passed acts creating a State University and providing funds for the same; granting terminal privileges to the Pacific railroad, and finally settling the outside land titles of San Francisco; abolishing the State Geological Survey, an appropriation of fifteen thousand dollars being made to meet the deficiency during the past two years, to wind up affairs. It refused to repeal the present Sunday law, or elect a State Harbor Commissioner.Slight shocks of an earthquake were experienced in the city on Saturday and Sunday nights.Washington, 31.—Gen. Hancock has issued an order assuming command of the new military division. It includes the departments of the lakes and of the east of Washington, which includes all the States north of Ohio and east of Mississippi, also Maryland and Delaware.House.—The report of the conference committee on manufactures states that the tax bill is agreed to and the bill goes to the President. The House then proceeded to the Senate chamber.The Senate adjourned when the impeachment court opened. Wilson continued offering the documentary evidence commenced yesterday, and included a resolution of the Senate in executive session in response to the
