BREVITIES.

A female medical college is about to be established in Cleveland, Ohio.

The Paris Exposition yielded a net profit of nearly $600,000 in gold.

The Chicago horse-railways earned the gross sum of $726,000 last year.

Nitroglycerine was discovered in 1847 by an Italian chemist named Sombroso.

The stock of flour now in New York is estimated at half a million of barrels.

The "hot" skate is the last invention.

The heat comes from a chemical arrangement.

It costs 75 cents to have a shirt washed in some parts of Ohio, just now, owing to the scarcity of water.

Suchomish, Skaynamish and Snognamie are some of the pretty and poetic names of streams in Washington

Territory.

Over twenty men, who have become authors of note, have been at different times connected with the editorial staff of the Tribune.

A Bangor judge refuses to hear divorce cases this term, because the cold weather is likely to bring the parties together again if they are let alone.

The Union Pacific Railroad is graded from the western slope of the Black Hills to the crossing of the Little Laramie —twenty miles west of Sanders.

The Hays City Advance says there is not a practicing lawyer or physician in the town, and consequently the morals and health of the place are remarkably good.

Luck lies in bed, and wished the postman would bring him news of a legacy.

Labor turns out at six o'clock, and with busy pen or ringing hammer lays the foundation of a competency.

Who is wise? He that is teachable.

Who is mighty? He that conquers himself. Who is rich? He that is contented.

Who is honored? He that honors others.

Charivari has a school scene. "Why don't you study your Roman history?"

says a schoolmaster to a lazy pupil. "I am waiting for it to be finished," is the reply.

It is declared that the whisky interest has a lobby fund of two hundred thousand dollars in Washington, which is to be used "in securing" favorable Congressional legislation.

McClellan County, Iowa, has six brothers whose united weights is 2,219 pounds. The largest of these giants weighs 405 pounds, and the smallest 385 pounds.

The New York World publishes a carefully prepared statement, showing that fifty thousand men and women in that city are now out of work, and calls the serious attention of Congress to the startling fact.

A strange disease, it is said, has taken possession of the horses in Wisconsin, as they are apparently pining away and dying, and the cause of the disease cannot be ascertained by the best veterinary surgeons in the country.

"I bequeath," said an Irishman in his will, "to my beloved wife all my property, without reserve, to my eldest son,

Patrick, one-half the remainder, and to Dennis, my youngest the rest. If anything is left it may go to Terence Mc

Carthy."

A project is on foot for building a railroad from Portland, Oregon, to Centerville, at the junction of the Humboldt and Little Humboldt Rivers, in Nevada. At this latter point the road will connect with the Central Pacific, and make it the eastern outlet for Or-gon, as well as California. The advantages of such a connection with the Central and Union Pacific Companies, if speedily consummated, will secure them for a long time the carrying trade of the best portions of Oregon, over about 1,700 miles of their roads to Chicago. The distance from Centerville, Nevada, to Portland, Oregon, is 465 miles.
