FROM CARTHAGE JAIL.

The following is a copy of a letter received by Mr. William Reast of Ogden from J. M. Browning of Carthage, Ill., dated March 15, 1902:

"Wm. Reast, Esq., Ogden Utah. esteemed cousin, James Browning, has requested me to advise you if the blood stains are still on the floor of the room where Joseph and Hyrum Smith were killed. In reply will say that the stains showed very plainly when I bought the property and moved in in the fall of 1870. There is still a light stain on the floor, but repeate rubbings from year to year has made a light color and has almost effaced The same old oak floor is in the which killed Hyrum, which was shot through the walnut door, is still there as the door has never been removed. In the year 1829-40, when the jail was first no pine lumber was shipped in this country and all floors made out of sawed lumber were oak. The inside baseboards, stairs, and door and win ow frames are oak. Different sight sell them the door, but I do not want use it for mercenary purposes, an would not sell it. The house is unplease ant for old people for a dwelling, account of the throng of visitors, Wi children were with us we did not both aged and feeble and cannot stand the annoyance very well now.
