It is understood that the Democratic National convention will be held at St. Louis on the 4th of July, though net-ther the time nor the place has been formally fixed. The naval investigation committee met to-night to arrange the testimony removal of Attorney General Williams, or at least there are some powerful in-fluences at work in that direction. The same special has the following— Attorney General Williams is con-siderably annoyed at the statements continually being made to the effect that he is going to Oregon for the pur-pose of looking after the senatorial relection there in his interest. While he will go to Oregon to aid the securing of a Republican successor to Corbett, whose term expires this sension, he pur-poses remaining in the cabinet and will a not be a candidate for the Senate until Kelly's term expires. The Tribune's Cinct The Tribune's Cincinnati special as-seris that the entire press of that city which support the Liberal movement have united in supporting Charles F. Adams as the nominee of the Liberal Republican convention, and a corres-pondent "Gath" asserts that from the entire tenor of prominent leaders of the movement now in Cincinnati Adams will undoubtedly be nominated. The Times of this city, commenting on Adams' letter to Wells, regards it as finally settling the question of candi-daev. tised

The Tribune editorially regards the letter in the same light. NSW YORK.—The World yesterday came out in a leader, warmly endorsing the proposition to nominate Adams and declaring the belief that he would se-cure the entire Democratic vote. The cure the entire Democratic vote. The gathering at Cincinnati has already commenced and all the hotels and many boarding houses are already en-gaged to their full capacity. The press of the country is already represented and by the end of this week many State delegations will be on the ground. One thousand Missouri politicians are an-neunced to leave St. Louis on Monday and the delegation from that State, which will be the most numerous of any, have secured the entire St. James Hotel for their accommodation. The friends of the Administration are con-fident that there is a growing diversity of opinion among the supporters of the Naw Yonk, 25.-A Washington spec-ial says Secretary Fish is willing to agree to the withdrawal of indirect claims if the principle of international law be accepted by both mations and made part of the treaty of Washington that no neutral shall be liable for con-sequential or indirect damage for injur-ies inflicted on the commerce of friend-ly powers at war with each other. It is doubtful however whether the Presi-dent would consent to this view. Bir Edward Thornton is expected to return to Washington to-day. The Secretary of State has especially re-quested him to return to confer upon an important matter, which is believed to be a proposition like the above.
