JAP MILLIONAIRE.

Belligerent Subject of the Mikado Attempts to Kill Countryman.

MONEY DEMANDS REFUSED.

Bullets Flew Thick and Fast and Several Persons Had Narrow Escapes From Being Killed.

(Special to the "News.") Cheyenne, Wyo., July 15 .- J. Wakimoto, the Japanese millionaire, and member of the railroad contracting firm of Wakimoto & Nishimura, had a narrow escape from death at 9 o'clock this morning, as did a large number of pedestrians near the Union depot.

Wakimoto was accosted by Thomas Yoshthara, a Japanese laborer, who demanded certain favors at the hands of the millionaire. The lafter refused to comply and Yoshihara pulled a sixshooter and fired five shots at Wakimoto.

The Japanese dld some tall dodging and escaped. One bullet passed through the Denver Exchange saloon, narrowly missing a number of men standing at the bar. Another bullet entered the depot restaurant and passed within a few inches of the woman cashier. A third bullet passed through a confectionary stand. Yoshihara was captured, He says he intended to shoot off Waki-PACKING TRUST AGENTS.

Death of Richard Collett Removes an Industrious, Honest Man.

The death of Richard Collett, mentioned briefly in last night's "News," emoves from earth a good citizens and aithful Latter-day Saint. Mr. Collett vas born in Watlington, Oxfordshire, England, April 10, 1842. When only 14 years of age he became a convert to the Gospel, which he heard proclaimed by Elders of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, and soon comof Latter-day saints, and soon com-plied with the law of batptism. No other members of his family joined the Church. He emigrated to Utah in 1863, arriving in Salt Lake City Oct. 4 of that arriving in Salt Lake City Oct. 4 of that year, making this his permanent home. He learned the trade of shoemaking in his youth, and followed that occupation after his arrival here, working consecutively for Wilham Jennings, William Sloan of the "big boot," Z. C. M. I., the Workingmen's Co-op., William H. Rowe, the Deseret Tanning & Manufacturing company, and again with Z. C. M. I., holding the position of foreman for some time in the latter. He was a first class workman, and extremely in. first class workman, and extremely inand soon after locating in Salt Lake City became a useful member of Hunt-ington's celebrated martial band, con-nected with the Nauvoo Legion. He al-so was received as a member of the Tabernace choir, and continued in ne-tive and fatthful association with that tive and faithful association with that renowned organization until his demise. He was a member of the Nineteenth ward choir also, having resided in that ward during the past 35 years. His leading characteristic was modesty, always retiring, never pretentious. He shunned publicity, but was withal an example of integrity to the Gospel, and proved, with many others, that bonds and imprisonment could not make him relinquish what he firmly believed was a divine principle.

He was the father of 18 children, nine of whom, and his wife Mary Hancock, are now living; another wife died a

His death may be regarded as untimely, because he was in excellent health until he met with an accident, about two months ago, falling off a chair on which he was standing, the back of his neck striking on some obback of his neck striking on some object, which produced cerebral hemorrhage. The ill effects were not immediately perceptible, and he made arrangements to go on a visit to his native land, leaving here on June 22, with his wife and daughter. When they reached Boston his condition became serious, and it was considered advisable to return home without delay. They to return home without delay. They arrived on the 5th inst, and he continued in a semi-conscious state until the morning of the 13th, when he died, in the presence of all the living mem-bers of his family.

The funeral services took place at 1 today in the Nineteenth ward meetinghouse.

BOYS SUSPECTED.

Recent Burglaries Thought to be Work Of Juveniles.

It is evident to the police that this city is infested with a gang of juvenile burglars, who ply their vocation under over of night.

Last Tuesday the store of J. E. Heay at 316 State street, was burglarized, the robbers gaining entrance by climbing over the front transom. Failing in their attempt to open the cash drawer, they helped themselves to chewing gum and candy and then left. Indica-tions point to boys as the real culprits. One week ago tonight a similar bur-glary occurred at 356 State street, the restaurant of H. M. Nelson being brokrestaurant of H. M. Neison being brok-en into in the same manner. From this place the thieves secured several jara of Jam and the contents of an ice cream freezer. Who the offenders are hase not yet been determined, but the police are investigating with fair ope of success.

YESTERDAY'S FIRE.

Total Loss Estimated at $2,000-Free Coinage Destroyed.

As a result of the fire yesterday afternoon in the Free Coinage restaurant on Second South street, property to the value of $2,000 was destroyed and 30 one place, although a tailoring shop next door and several other places of business suffered nominal loss.

As stated in last night's "News," the fire broke out in the kitchen of the Free Coinage restaurant and was caused through L. Eckstrand, a cook, spilling a kettle of hot grease on the stove. The man was badly burned about the arm, but was the only one injured as a result of the conflagration. All that was saved in the restaurant was the cash register, which Harry Peterson,a waiter, grabbed hold of and made for the door with. The blaze was under control in 25 minutes, but in that time the restaurant and its contents were completely destroyed. The men thrown out of work are those employed by Dallas & Whittaker, cigar makers, whose place of business was also damaged consider-ably. The losses are as follows: Sid Hatton, $1,600, insurance $1,200;

H. B. Scott of Burlington, Ia., owner of building, $200; Dallas & Whittaker, $100; Boehmer & Rothschild, tailors, $100; Citizens' Coal company, $100; C. R. Strouck, $100.

WEDDING WAS DOUBLE.

Reason Was That Bridesmaid Preferred To be a Bride Herself.

A double wedding occurred at the Independent hotel vesterday under circumstances unusually interesting. Warren L. Syphers, who, is station agent for the Union Pacific at Granite Canyon, Wyo., married Miss Etta Mann of Tucker. Their romance began when Miss Mann, a telegraph operator, was assigned to Mr. Syphers' station. They met, worked together, loved and mar-

The other couple, Edward M. Mooar of this city and Louise Gordon of Trin-idad, Col., have been exceedingly friendly for months past. He is a Rio Grande conductor and she was a visitor at Granite Canyon. The girls became great friends—such friends, in fact, that Miss Mann insisted upon her compan-Miss Mann insisted upon her companion accompanying her to Salt Lake as a bridesmaid. On the way down, they poured into the ears of the Colorado miss long stories of lonliness and the awful trip back home alone. It had its effect, for when Salt Lake was reached, Mooar was on the platform. His friend Syphers gave him the tip, he would now asked his sweetheart if she would marry instanter, she replied affirmatively and hence the double wedding. The second couple had not intended to marry until next fall.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Benjamin Brown and a sumptuous supper followed. The couples spent last night in Ogden.

SALOON KEEPER ROBBED.

Held Up in His Own Place of Business Early This Morning.

Guy Cappucia, an Italian saloon keeper doing business at 156 west South Temple street, was held up early this morning and robbed of $75.

According to the story told by Capudia himself, a masked man entered his saloon about 12:30 a. m., and flashing saloon about 12:30 a. m., and flashing a revolver in his face; ordered him to throw up his hands. Little realizing, that the fellow meant business, Cappucia started for his assallant when he was struck over the head and knocked to the floor. Then the robbery occurred, the thug getting $50 from the saloon-keeper's pockets and $25 out of the till. As the man started to flee Cappucia rushed into an adjoining store, also kept by himself, and secured a rifle, with which he gave chase to the fleeing highwayman, but without avail.

The thug is described as being about five feet, five inches tall, and heavy and thick set. He wore a dark suit.

UTAH TO HONOLULU.

Lieut. Farrar of Fort Douglas to be Transferred-Same as to Others.

Accoring to orders published in the last number of the Army Register, Lieut, Henry B. Farrer of the Twentysecond light battery at Fort Douglas, is transferred to the Ninety-second heavy batters at Honolulu. The lieutenant graduated from West Point in 1899, and from the artillery school at Fortress Monroe two years later. He will shortly be made a captain. Then Lieutenant Adna G. Clark of the Twenty-second battery is transferred to the Sixty-seventh heavy batters at the Presidio, Cal. Lieut. Clark was captain of H. com-pany, Twentieth Kansas, Funston's regiment, and is a graduate of the University of Kansas. Lieut P. Platt also of the Twenty-second batters, is transferred to the Twenty-third heavy battery at Fort McKinley, Me. He is a 1991 West Point graduate, and a promising young officer. Lieut John A. Ber ry of the Twelfth light battery at For Douglas, is transferred to the Eighty fifth heavy battery at Manila. He is a classmate of Lieut Platt.

LEARY'S FIGURES.

Estimates That it Will Take $125,000 To Establish Packing Plant.

Mr. Leary thinks $125,000 will be needed to erect a suitable packing plant in this city, including a lard factory, sausage shop, hide and fertilizer establishments. The plant should have a capacity for killing 300 head of cattle, 1,000 sheep, and 1,000 lings per day. But if for the first year 10,000 head of cat-tle, 50,000 head of sheep, and 20,000 hogs are slaughtered it will be enough. The trouble will not be in selling the stock, but in securing it. Up to date there has been little incentive for Utah farmers to raise stock, but with the easy means of disposing of it right at their doors, they will be encouraged to go ex-doors, they will be encouraged to go extensively into the business.

President Houston of the Real Estate exchange, in speaking of the project, calls attention to the fact that five years ago Fort Worth, Tex., was a small crossroads town, while today it is a thriving city of 40,000. This is due to the establishing there of a packing-plant. There will be little trouble in raising the needed money. The general sentiment in the local business comal sentiment in the local business con munity is that the project will prove of immense benefit to this city. Moreover, it will be of great help to the surround-ing country for a long distance.

SUCCESSFUL OUTING.

Sunday School Excursion to Saltair Brings Out Immense Throng.

Success crowned the efforts of the Sunday school workers at Saltair yesterday. The day was an ideal one for such an outing and Sunday school loyalty was strongly exhibited in the immense throng A conservative estimate of the number men thrown out of a job. The principal loser was Sid Hatton, proprietor of the restaurant, whose place of business is now a pile of charred ruins. For a time all the buildings adjoining seemed doomed, but through effective work on the part of the fire department, the flames were confined principally to the

THE JURY'S VERDICT.

Hughes Died from Hemorrhage by Excessive Coughing.

The jury empaneled to inquire into the death of William J. Hughes, the barber whose body was found in the rear of the G. & G. saloon at 60 east Second South street, last night rendered their verdict, finding that the deceased came to his death from hemorrhage, as the result of excessive coughing.

Hughes had been employed at Peters' barber shop for some time past and, according to the testimony of friends, had been on a protracted spree. He was afflicted with lung trouble and was subject the hemorrhage, which finally terminated in his death. So far as known he had no relatives in this city and was without means. He will probably be buried at the expense of the

Some people talk very flippantly about diminished vitality.
They don't stop to think that vitality is the principle of life—that it is that little understood something on which every function of their bodies depends. Diminished vitality is early indicated by loss of appetite, strength and en-durance, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest vitalizer.
