CLEVELAND, 20.-The Cleveland Bridge and Car Works Company as-signed to-day to H. F. Sweetzer, of Absent Hinded Hembers. When the vote was taken on the bank bill yesterday, 40 republicans were recorded as absent, or not vot-ing, showing a good many were ab-sent without cause. Some of them are men whose faces are very sel-dom seen in the House. One ex-cuse offered in behalf of some of the gentlemen who are habitually ab-sent is that they were ignored when the committees were formed; and that they have little to interest and keep them in Washington. Another excuse is they will not submit to the domineering airs of Robeson,
