NEW YORK, May 31.-Prospect House, New York. The President earlier this morning went trout fishing.
In six hours on the water he and Colonel Lamont caught about 200. The President became somewhat surprised. He had a large mail this morning but will attend to no business except matters requiring immediate attention.

Paris Will Attend.
LONDON, May 31.-It is officially announced that the Crown Prince of Germany will attend the coming jubilee in London.

Governor Davis.
NEWPORT, R. I., May 31.-John W.
Davis, of Pawtucket, was inaugurated governor this evening. The counting of the ballots by the committee for presentation to the joint legislative council having occupied the entire day, no election was declared as to Reu-nant governor.

Blaine.
He is elaborately interviewed by a Correspondent.

NEW YORK, May 31.-The World will print to-morrow an elaborate account of a visit made by a correspondent to Mr. Blaine at his home in Augustus, Maine, and afterwards at his cottage at Bar Harbor, in the course of which Blaine gave fully his plans for his forthcoming trip, discussed the reports of his failing health and referred at length to the work he has resolved on the books just finished. He says his visit abroad will extend over more than a year, and doubtless beyond the meeting of the next national convention.

MR. BLAINE said: "I am going abroad and expect to be away about a year. Mrs. Blaine and my two daughters, Margaret and Hattie, will make up the party. I have engaged steamships on board the German ship, Zulu, which will sail June 8th-Wednesday a week. We shall stop at Southampton and go at once to London. We intend to spend considerable time traveling through Great Britain. After England, we will probably go to Scotland and Ireland.
Then I think we shall spend some time in Germany, make a tour of the Rhine, and then go to France. By this time it will probably be getting so late in the year that we will be unable to go to Italy. We intend to visit the most interesting places in
the national convention."

MAKING A TOUR through those countries, and spend most of the winter along the Mediterranean. We will visit Rome, Naples, Vienna, and other places. We will

they would interrogate the government on questions touching its policy, and would demand urgency. M. Rouvier thereupon made a speech in which he requested the government to define the program.

M. ROUVIER replied that the ministry would duly apply the existing legislation on armu-lization in regard to retrenching fifty million francs. Referring to the political color of the cabinet the premier declared, "We do not consider especially the views of anybody."

A voice: "You are Ferry's double," followed by applause from the left.
M. Rouvier concluded by declaring amid loud protests from the left that the cabinet relied upon the support of a republican majority. Answering a question put subsequently, M. Rouvier said the government intended that all citizens, even semi-republicans, should be subjected to the ordinary military service. (Applause by the centre.)

ABOUT 300 YOUTHS gathered outside the chamber of deputies this afternoon and joined in the cry of "Vive la Boulanger!" The police dispersed the mob.

After a bitter discussion with Millerande of the extreme left, Rouvier said he would lay down the basis of government if he failed to obtain the assistance of the republican majority.
He then demanded that the cabinet be carried, 384 to 156, amid enthusiastic cheers by the centre.

General Ferry promised he would frankly state his opinion of the new military bill when that measure came up for discussion.

The chamber adjourned until Thursday. It is estimated that of the 320 received by the government this afternoon, 130 were cast by members of the right, and the rest by the centre. The correct, the government have purely a republican majority of only 11.

interests can be sustained only by reason of the suspension of the fourth section ought not to be sustained at all. It is better that the business of the country be left to the natural law of trade than that a few favored portions in certain places should be able to organize and carry on colossal enterprises because of the advantages in the use of the railways of the country.

THE INVESTIGATION.
BOSTON, May 31.-The Pacific Railroad investigating commission continued its public session to-day.
Governor Ames took the stand and told the story of his connection with the Union Pacific. He described the manner in which Jay Gould obtained control of the road. Governor Ames said that Gould looked particularly happy as soon as the deal was consummated, while he (Ames) never saw a more gloomy set of men than the Union Pacific directors. They felt that Gould had stolen them in his power.
The total amount paid by Mr. Gould was $1,385,735. In 1876 they desired in common with the other holders of the stock, agreeing that if the Credit Mo-blier stock was turned into Union Pacific stock, the Credit Moblier stock holders would be able to get their claims of the company for alleged receipts. This paper witness refused to sign, and he was, in consequence, refused, dropped from the board of directors.
