COMMITTEE.
 LAST Saturday, a cloud burst near the head of the Red Narrows in Spanish Fork Canyon and washed out a cut on a sharp curve of the D. & R. G. W. A woman living near and seeing the danger ran out in the storm and flagged the eastern bound passenger train which was a little behind time and running at full speed. The passengers, train and section men cleared the track in about an hour. The passengers felt thankful to the lady and expressed their gratitude by making up a purse of six and putting it into the hands of Sheriff Turner, of Provo, for delivery.

THE Utah Central was crowded to its utmost capacity yesterday, running forty passenger trains during the day. Notwithstanding this great rush, everything was done with mechanical precision, and all around the depot was as orderly and peaceable as it is possible to be. There were no fights, no rowdies, and nothing to disturb the peace of anyone. In this respect the Utah Central sets an example to the other roads. For the efficient service of yesterday the public are indebted to the praise of General Passenger Agent, Cope. Train Dispatchers, and all of the conductors and train men.

DR. BREDEMAYER.

Penalties imposed in the Remonstrance Cases Against Him.

Dr. Wm. Bredemeyer was before Judge Zane again today. The reason for this was that there were still two indictments against the doctor, one charging him with intent to murder his former wife, and the other charging assault on her. Lelia Smith, the doctor's former wife, testified in January last, Assistant District Attorney Clarke, stated that it was doubtful whether the prosecution could prove that the defendant had intended to murder his wife when he made the assault, and was willing to permit him to plead guilty of a simple assault, that being an offense that could be proven. He also stated that the defendant had conducted himself in a more becoming manner recently, and had given his divorced wife, who is now in California, no trouble since the separation had taken place.

Judge Zane then permitted the doctor to enter a plea of guilty to assault upon his wife and inquired whether he was ready for sentence. The doctor went on to say that he did not know what he was doing on the occasion named. The Court then told him he should not drink intoxicants, and when he got delirious tremors try to make that an excuse for his conduct. Dr. Bredemeyer said, "I was never drunk but once in my life, and that was when I was a boy." Judge Zane—Don't tell me any more lies. I have heard enough of that already. The doctor then said, "I am sorry you must tell the truth. The advice regarding the course of life should follow, and severely reprimanded him for having 'gone begging' around for leniency, 'instead of meeting the doctor's case with a consideration of the fact that he was now under sentence, the penalty was fixed at $100 and costs."

The charge of assault on Mrs. Smith was then taken up, and the doctor pleaded guilty. The Court then told him to run away to escape his anger, and to go to the police station, and to stay there until he was released. The doctor then said, "What explanation have you for drawing that revolver?" Judge Zane—Intended to kill myself with it. Judge Zane—Well, why didn't you do it then? The judge's question was put rather sharply, and the doctor considered it as a setback. Finally he said, "I wish I had." The judge then went on to say that the doctor had acted very badly, it was a serious offense, and he hardly knew whether to let him out of the house. He would, however, let him out with a fine of $100 and costs. Dr. Bredemeyer—Can't you make it $100 for the 'I am on the verge of poverty. I have earned nothing since I was 18, and it is impossible for me to raise $200." Judge Zane—That is the judgment of the court. The doctor paid his fines later in the day and was released.

Released.
 This morning, Charles Monk, of Provo, was released from the penitentiary, where he has served four months on the charge of unlawful cohabitation.

Information Wanted.
 Mrs. Elizabeth Copper, whose address is Court 9, Warstone Lane, Birmingham, England, desires to hear from or of her mother, Mrs. Susan Morris. The latter was last heard from while on a visit to New York.

Alleged Horsestealing.
 This afternoon C. W. Chappell is to have a hearing before Commissioner Norrell on a charge of grand larceny. He is accused of having sold a horse to John Gurnea, and then, instead of surrendering the animal, taking it to parts unknown. He gave the purchaser a bill of sale, and afterwards claimed that it was worthless. The court will, however, pass upon that question.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Of Mrs. Louise Lange—The Coroner Holds an Inquest.

This morning Mrs. Louise Lange, who with her husband, Mr. Charles Lange, kept a bakery on First South St., nearly opposite the Fourteenth Ward coroner house, died very suddenly. The circumstances of her demise being somewhat peculiar, an inquest was held at 9 o'clock by Coroner Taylor. It appeared from the testimony of Mr. Lange that the deceased left her apartments at the rear and entered the store at 15 minutes past six. She complained of being 'so' ill that she could not remain, and returned to her room. Shortly afterwards some work 'men' near by heard the unfortunate woman calling for her husband as if in great distress. On learning of this Mr. Lange hastened to her side and found her in a dying condition, her face being black and she was struggling. She recovered temporarily, and spoke to her husband, stating that she was going to die; she then relaxed and by half-past six she was dead.

Mrs. Engelhardt, daughter of the deceased, also testified, her evidence corroborating that given by Mr. Lange. The evidence further showed that the health of the deceased had not been good for some time, and that she had been mentally worried regarding business matters. It appears also that her relations with her husband had not been always smooth. Dr. Harrison was called in at the inquest, and after an examination of the body he stated there were no indications to show that the deceased came to her death from any other than natural causes. The jury rendered a verdict accordingly. Their names are: E. Skiles, H. B. Skidmore and W. G. Odell.

The "Two Orphans."
 The audiences that attended the Theatre yesterday afternoon and evening were a high compliment to the Home Dramatic Club. When other shows can barely get expenses, it is considerably to have crowded houses, especially on a day when the attractions elsewhere are so great. The "Two Orphans" has been played in Salt Lake several times, but never with better satisfaction given than last evening. In the afternoon there were some credits, but in the evening performance these were polished up, and the piece ran as smoothly as could be desired, from beginning to end.

There was considerable interest attached to Mr. Boyle's appearance in the evening. The play, "The Two Orphans," was a combination of his personal and professional life. The play was a combination of his personal and professional life. The play was a combination of his personal and professional life.

A TRAGEDY.

At Warm Creek, Utah, Thomas Nooks is Shot and Killed.

We learn from a reliable correspondent at Desert that Alex. Dutrie and Pat Krole shot and killed Thomas Nooks, on the premises of Isaac Preston, on Warm Creek, Santa Valley, on the western line of Millard County, on the night of July 20th, at 11 o'clock. It appears from what we have learned the tragic affair that had feelings had existed for some time over some land claims. The deceased was shot twice with a double-barreled shot gun loaded with buckshot, one charge taking effect in the right leg, shattering the bone below the knee, the other in the breast. He was also shot in the head with a rifle. Mrs. Preston heard the shooting and traveled two and one-half miles to inform her father, Mr. George Bishop, who upon learning of it went to the place to take care of the body, but parties there forbade him on pain of death looking for it until other witnesses should be present.

Dutrie rode to Desert, a distance of about 80 miles, for the purpose, as he stated, to go to Provo to give himself up to the proper officers, but getting in too late to catch the train he lay over until next morning, when he delivered himself to the constable of that place, Mr. George A. Black. They (he and the officer) then proceeded to the magistrate, who turned him over to the care of the constable.

Mr. Bishop, who was the father of the deceased, was also present. The latter left for the scene of the homicide on the 23rd, where an inquest was held. Mr. Bishop followed on a track of Dutrie to the scene of the homicide, where he was arrested. The peace prior to him giving himself up.

Krole was still at large, but it was expected that he would be arrested as soon as the officers arrived.

The deceased was opposed to have a father in Provo Valley. He has been married, but divorced from his wife some time ago. He also has four children.

Dutrie is a French Canadian and has lived on Warm Creek with his brother for some time. His parents are supposed to be in Utah. He appears to be very sorry for what he has done, but does not feel to make an explanation until the proper time.

A SCOUNDREL.

He Betrays One Girl and is About to Marry Another.

William A. Winward is the name of an individual who was held by Commissioner Norrell this morning in answer to the charge of fornication, and if he gets his just deserts, upon his own statement, he will see the inside of the penitentiary for some time. The facts as related by the witnesses are as follows: About two years since he came to this country, and went to West Jordan. Shortly afterward he began keeping company with a young girl. A year later they were engaged to be married, and December last was set as date for the wedding. Above a week prior to the day when the marriage ceremony was to have been performed, and while the preparations for the event were being made, Winward managed to seduce his affianced bride. Having accomplished his base design, he got the marriage postponed on some pretense for a couple of weeks, the girl still having full confidence in him. When the second time came, another postponement was had, and later the scoundrel broke off the engagement.

Winward then took up with another girl and became engaged to her. Their marriage was set for yesterday morning at 10 o'clock. The first girl learned of this, and on Monday night informed the officers. The result was that a complaint was made, charging the girl's betrayer with fornication. The officers went out, arrested him, and brought him to this city. Meanwhile the wedding preparations with the second lady were going on. The girls were assembling, and the prospective bride was awaiting, when the information was brought that he had been arrested, thereby causing a change in the programme.

When Winward was brought before the commissioner he admitted the base part he had been enacting, and he stood under the influence of a prospective term in the penitentiary. He was willing to marry the girl whom he had seduced, but he stated that if he would do so in good faith and take care of her as was expected, the prosecution would be dropped. This Winward promised to do, and it was thought everything was settled.

The villainy of the wretch was further developed this morning, when it was learned that he had violated the latest agreement. The second girl, on learning that he was in custody, refused to sign the agreement made before the commissioner. The result was that he was released, but the first girl, who was waiting for him, was disappointed. Today he was hunting for a new bride, and if he obtains the second girl, he will marry the second girl, while the prosecution on account of the first will be proceeded with.

Winward is quite young yet; he says he is under 19. He came from Utah County two years ago, and one of the witnesses stated that he was afraid to return because he had betrayed a young girl. The case will come before the grand jury at the September term.

Barn Burned.

At about 2:30 an alarm of fire started the steamer and hose cart in the direction of the Eighteenth Ward. A barn belonging to W. B. Barton had been set on fire by some boys playing with matches. The boys were caught and taken to the police station. The barn and remaining contents were totally consumed. No estimate of the loss was made before we went to press, but it will probably be in the neighborhood of $500.

Deputies in the South.

"X. W." writes as follows, from Koshoream, July 16th, 1936: Editor Desert News: This morning, our qu'et little town was visited by deputy marshals Dyer, Armstrong, and McGowan. They were on their way to the south, where they were to investigate the case of a man named Robert Harmon, who was accused of being a member of the United States Saloon. However, they made only one small here, the victim Robert J. C. Anderson, between 65 and 70 years old, against whom has been laid a complaint for fornication.

About three weeks ago, Brother Andrew Anderson, of this place, was arrested on the same charge, and was released on bonds to appear in Court at the September term.

BROKE HIS NECK.

Wm. George Falls from a Wagon and is Killed.

About four o'clock yesterday afternoon William George, a man about 40 years of age, was driving along First South Street, east, on his way to his home in the Eleventh Ward. His little boy was in the light wagon with him. Mr. George had been down town, and did not seem able to control the horse properly. Near Ninth East Street, where they wanted to turn north, the boy asked his father to give him the lines, but the father replied that he could control matters all right. That he was mistaken when the horse turned close to the corner, and the wheel struck a large rock. The jolting threw Mr. George out head foremost, and he struck on the side of his head. He was 'soot' taken up and removed to his home. He breathed a few times after the accident, but was dead before medical attention could be had. His neck had been broken by the fall. He leaves a wife and a large family of small children. It is a strange coincidence that about twelve years ago his father was killed by being thrown out of a wagon, and leaving his neck broken.
