

THE TRAINING OF FOOTBALL PLAYERS

Valuable Pointers on Proper Method To Get Eleven in Shape.

BEGINNING ACTIVE WORK.

Success or Failure of a Season Depends Largely Upon the Preparatory Work Done—De Saules Idea.

Football players all over the country are once more beginning active work, and before many days have passed the sport will once more reign supreme. The success or failure of a season depends largely upon the preparatory work done, and if the indications count for anything the approaching season will be all that the most ardent enthusiast could possibly desire. The knights of the gridiron have been busy for the past couple of weeks, and the reports from all the big eastern universities of crack eleven in the field again and possibly a few new ones will be on the field.

There are, perhaps, as many different methods followed in the training of football teams as there are trainers in the country. Every trainer has his own idea of what is best for his men, and will accomplish the same end by different means. In football training is in everything else, and the best to sports, experience is the best. A trainer should be best fitted to prepare a team for a season's hard campaign who has himself been the most diligent in his own playing of the game.

There are few men in the country today who are better acquainted with the game of football or stands higher in the department of sport than Johnnie De Saules, Yale's crack quarterback. He has had a wide experience in the game, and the best opportunities for observing different methods and their results.

GOOD IDEAS IN TRAINING.

De Saules has some good ideas in regard to the proper training of a football team that should prove of incalculable benefit to those just taking up the game. The first thing that should receive attention, he thinks, is to see that the men keep regular hours and are in good health in all their habits. After the men have become accustomed to the routine of regular living it is time to round them into what athletes everywhere understand to be condition. In this connection De Saules has said: "After the men have become accustomed to the routine of regular living it is time to round them into what athletes everywhere understand to be condition. It is condition that the runner, the swimmer, the roller, the thrower, the pitcher, the batter, the football player, require more than anything else, and unless they obtain it they are forced into it by trainers. They will fall short of their purpose. To enter a football player into condition requires time and patience. Mistakes and setbacks are sure to occur, but the trainer must be a man of infinite patience, and he must always be hopeful and realize that instead of a collection of veterans who are accustomed to obeying rules and in a measure look after themselves he has about him some young enthusiasts who are generally new to strict measures and need a 'cut down' or two before the equal to bring them to their senses."

NEED PLENTY OF EXERCISE.

De Saules would see that the men get plenty of exercise and good air and believe that these are two prominent aids to condition. To keep the men moving at all times and, moreover, to try the exercise in various ways so that their muscular development will be uniform, is an important factor of preliminary practice. "Give each man individual attention, whenever possible," says he, "rather than treat the team as a single unit, pressing the same line of action for every player. Some men have poorly developed lungs, thus shortening their vital. If you find players of this sort, put them to running and insist that they perform a series of breathing exercises."

KEELER, BATTING KING.

Willie Keeler, captain of the Brooklyn team, leads the National League in batting for the season of 1902. His percentage is close to 300. The Brooklyners are very proud of him and he has come to that.

ercises before going to bed and after arising. Other men are weak in the legs, and when you find them put them through a set of leg movements, and on the other hand, if they are weak in the arms, let them do a set of arm exercises. If trainers throughout the country realized the true value of running as a football preliminary, every platoon chaser in the United States would be ordered to run a certain distance every day during the season. It is a simple matter, and it certainly strengthens the body in a dozen different ways, enlarges the breathing capacity, improves the circulation of the blood and makes the eyes and brain 50 per cent clearer.

SPRINTER WINS THE GAME.

"And then the speedy runner is the man that often wins the games. Times without number I have seen a game go against a team for a greater part of the playing period, and suddenly a fleet runner will shake himself clear and go down the field for a touchdown, winning the game."

"The practice of falling on the ball should be given a great deal of attention during training. The coaches that also see that a man does much of this, but that does not relieve the trainer of his duty in the matter."

"Falling on the platoon may be done in various ways. First, stand by the side of the man and roll the ball gently and throw himself upon it from the rear. Again, stand about 20 feet away and directly in front of the player. Roll the ball rapidly toward him. He will be forced to fall on the ball as it comes toward him. Lastly, stand to one side, say about 20 or 30 feet, and roll the ball on a line that will carry it about four feet in front of him. He must then throw himself on it as it bolts past him."

A SIMPLE DIET.

Training food should be simple, but not so ridiculously meager as old usages dictated. After a team is once in condition, the trainer De Saules, it is the duty of the trainer to see that his men do not get 'stale.' It is important that they be given just enough work to keep them in the proper condition, but he must be neither over nor under. What an eleven does in a state in the middle of a season little short of a miracle can save it from repeated defeats. "When a team is at top notch in condition and shows signs of getting stale, the best remedy is to slack up a bit on strict rules and permit the men a few privileges, such as a smoke now and then and a more liberal assortment of food."

FITZ WOULD FIGHT AGAIN.

Is Willing to Take Another Chance With Champion Jeffries.

"If proper inducements were offered me I would go into the ring tomorrow against any man in the world," said Robert Fitzsimmons this morning as he arrived in the city with his theatrical company to fill an engagement at one of the local theaters, says a Seattle dispatch. "I see here in the city a saying that I bar Jeffries in case I decide to enter the ring. I wish to make a denial of that statement. Of all the men I care to meet it is the big Californian. I and I think you will agree with me that all the men having a claim on a chance against him I stand foremost."

"My battles with him, both at Coney Island and San Francisco, stand forth as the only ones in which matters were conceded to be even. I surely held him even at Coney Island, and who, present in the Pacific, the roller, the thrower, the pitcher, the batter, the football player, require more than anything else, and unless they obtain it they are forced into it by trainers. They will fall short of their purpose. To enter a football player into condition requires time and patience. Mistakes and setbacks are sure to occur, but the trainer must be a man of infinite patience, and he must always be hopeful and realize that instead of a collection of veterans who are accustomed to obeying rules and in a measure look after themselves he has about him some young enthusiasts who are generally new to strict measures and need a 'cut down' or two before the equal to bring them to their senses."

"As to McCoy, if that gentleman will make his offer of wanting to meet me for $5,000 a side once more, and then deposit a substantial retainer with some New York paper agreeing to fight, winner take all—well, I will state that a match can immediately be arranged. As to Kuhn, well, I will meet him when there are no others to meet me. I look upon poor Kuhn as the one huge joke of the prize ring. He is a good, big, game fellow, with not the slightest idea about the fighting game."

"CONNIE" MACK IS WISE.

He is Able to Win Championships Without Losing Everything.

"Connie Mack is a manager who wins championships without giving up the entire gate receipts to his players. This was never better demonstrated than the other day when Fultz, one of the star players of his team, approached him and offered him the first choice for his (Fultz's) services for next season, provided Connie would pay the same salary as the New York club offered him ($4,500). This Mack refused to do, and calling Fultz aside, he said: 'You go to New York, my boy, and get the money. There is nothing like making hay while the sun shines. The amount you ask is more than I will ever pay to any ball player. I wish you success.' It only demonstrates the manner in which Mack does business. He has always been a successful manager. He has brought out and developed more young players than any other manager in the business, and although the going of Fultz leaves a big hole to be filled, he is probably equal to the emergency, for surely no team was ever crippled like his when Lajoie, Flick, Bernhart and Fraser were taken away. And yet with it all he managed to go on and win the American league pennant. Mack is in a class by himself when it comes to major league ball. The only other two managers to class with him are Ed Hanlon and Charlie Comiskey."

COLUMBIA NEEDS MATERIAL.

Has Good Coach and Schedule—Dark Outlook as Regards Players.

Columbia has begun its football season with bright prospects so far as coach and schedule are concerned, but with rather a dark outlook as regards material. This became especially evident this week when it was learned that two men on whom the management had relied would probably not be able to play. These are C. L. Berrien and E. R. Bruce, veterans of the '99, '00 and '01 teams. Berrien is reported as having been engaged as coach of the Hamilton eleven, and Bruce will, it is said, be ineligible to play because of the intercollegiate rule that a man cannot engage in intercollegiate athletics for more than four years. Bruce has played football only three years, but four years ago he participated in some dual track contests. With Morley Van Duyn, and Irvine gone, in addition to Bruce and Berrien, this leaves of the veterans only Shaw, center and Weekes and Smith, halfbacks, to work on.

Some of the candidates who are expected to report are Townsend, Goodman, Brown, Tomlinson, Erb, Black, B. H. Boyesen, Benham, Ewing, Thorr, Slackers, Whitely, L. R. Fisher, H. A. Fisher, Pasola, Guyer and Dr. Sallier.

ROOT READY TO FIGHT.

Anxious to Meet Gardner, Hart or Jack O'Brien.

Jack Root, who has not appeared in a Chicago bout for a long time, is booked to be an attraction during the winter. He has not been signed for any particular fight, but the news is that he is ready to fight.

SLOAN'S HARD LINES.

Clever Little Jockey Inveigled Into An Unfortunate Affair.

Poor little Tod Sloan must have been born under an unlucky star. Just at the present time they have got his "Todlets" inveigled into about as pretty a mess as he has ever been connected with in his life and the strange part of it all is that he is simply a victim of circumstances. He is not careful in the selection of his friends. That is the whole sum and substance of his wrongdoings. Little Tod Sloan, who is rather hard on the English jockey club and no reason ever given for the actions of that autocratic body. It is strongly believed in this country, however, that the only way toward the world's premier jockey that James Keene holds against him is what is responsible for his failure at reinstatement on British tracks. Keene has great influence with the English stewards. Now just as it looked as if he would receive the license he is again entangled in a mess that will work to his injury. It does seem sad fate indeed to have the world's most famous and best jockey with his hands and feet tied so that he cannot ride. And all for what? He committed no crime; he broke no rule of the jockey club. But because he gained the dislike of James Keene when he rode Jolly-Hoo Jey for W. C. Whitney. It was claimed at that time that he crowded Tommy Atkins to such an extent as to prevent his winning. Mr. Keene has not forgotten it and Sloan has suffered for it. For every season that Tod fails to regain his place in the saddle it means a loss of $100,000 in jockey fees, to say nothing of other adventures. Tod, it is claimed, has lost $100,000 in France this year and now comes the exposure of the American and the loss of the jockey's capital and he is called into the middle as a witness. The last two years have indeed been hard ones on the great American knight of the platoon. It was a sorry day for him when he decided to cross the broad Atlantic to seek new fields to conquer when all the glory and success a man could wish for were at his home. There is a moral in this Sloan story after all. "Let well enough alone."

THE TURK'S BIG JOB.

Will Undertake to Throw Four Wrestlers in an Hour.

Morablah, the Terrible Turk No. 2, will be a very tired man next Monday night when he undertakes to throw four of Utah's wrestlers in one hour. Articles of agreement have been signed whereby the Turk agrees to throw Thompson, McLaughlin, Ross and some unknown knight of the mat in one hour, or forfeit $100. The Turk is confident he will come out the victor. Thompson, McLaughlin and Ross have their views on the matter which do not run parallel with those of the Turk. He was unable to throw Thompson and McLaughlin in 15 minutes, and Ross gave him about the toughest contest he ever had, and it is claimed by those who know that the unknown wrestler can, alone, give the fellow a terrible fight. At all events, three of the men are known to be top notchers in their class and the match will certainly be worth going miles to see.

COLLEGE SEASON OPENED.

First Games of Season Between Yale, Harvard, Cornell and Pennsylvania.

"The football season among eastern colleges has been opened, and from now on it may be expected that the fight for supremacy will be the hot one. Of course practice games will be the order of the day until the teams settle down to the real battle. The complete schedules of Yale, Harvard, Princeton, Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania follow. Those of Annapolis and West Point are not given, as the big games in which they figure appear in the schedules of the others. Saturday, Oct. 11—Yale vs. Princeton at Cambridge; Yale vs. Brown at Providence; Princeton vs. Annapolis at Annapolis; Columbia vs. Buffalo, at New York; Cornell vs. Williams, at Ithaca; Pennsylvania vs. Virginia, at Philadelphia. Wednesday, Oct. 15—Harvard vs. Wesleyan, at Cambridge; Yale vs. Bowdoin, at New Haven; Princeton vs. Haverford, at Princeton; Columbia vs. Southmore, at New York; Pennsylvania vs. Gettysburg, at Philadelphia. Saturday, Oct. 18—Harvard vs. West Point, at West Point; Yale vs. Princeton, at New Haven; Princeton vs. Washington and Jefferson, at Ithaca.

THE PRESIDENT

Of the City Council, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Cured of Rheumatism.

Col. Wm. J. Harvey, a president of Wilkes-Barre's city council, who will long be remembered for his great work for the city, was a mere physical wreck, torn in every muscle and nerve from the frightful pains caused by rheumatism. He consulted the best physicians, went abroad, took mud baths, and almost every known treatment for the disease. One of the city officials had had a very similar experience and Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy had cured him, so he recommended this great kidney medicine to his friend, and Col. Harvey is today a well man, hale and hearty. He is now about what he states his case: "Dear Sir:—This to certify that I was permanently cured of rheumatism by the use of Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. "WM. J. HARVEY."

Nothing could be more direct or more to the point than this simple statement.

Rheumatism is but another name for uric acid poisoning which is caused primarily by diseased kidneys. Cure your kidneys and the rheumatism disappears. For all diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and bowels, rheumatism, dyspepsia and chronic constipation, as well as all other ailments peculiar to women, Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is unquestionably the greatest medicine known to the medical profession. All druggists sell it at $1.00 a bottle or 5 bottles for $5.00—less than a cent a dose. Sample bottle—enough for trial, free by mail. Dr. David Kennedy Corporation, Rensselaer, N.Y.

Dr. David Kennedy's Rose Jelly radi-cure Catarrh, Hay Fever and Cold in Head, etc.

Princeton; Columbia vs. Hamilton, at New York; Cornell vs. Carlisle Indians, at Ithaca; Pennsylvania vs. Brown, at Philadelphia.

Wednesday, Oct. 22—Princeton vs. Dickinson, at Princeton; Pennsylvania vs. Annapolis at Annapolis.

Saturday, Oct. 25—Harvard vs. Brown, at Cambridge; Yale vs. Syracuse, at New Haven; Princeton vs. Columbia, at Princeton; Cornell vs. Oberlin, at Ithaca; Pennsylvania vs. Bucknell, at Philadelphia.

Saturday, Nov. 1—Harvard vs. Carlisle Indians, at Cambridge; Yale vs. West Point, at West Point; Princeton vs. Cornell, at Princeton; Columbia vs. Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia.

Saturday, Nov. 8—Harvard vs. Pennsylvania, at Cambridge; Yale vs. Bucknell, at New Haven; Princeton vs. Orange Athletic club, at Princeton; Columbia vs. Washington and Jefferson, at Ithaca.

Saturday, Nov. 15—Harvard vs. Dartmouth, at Cambridge; Yale vs. Princeton, at Princeton; Cornell vs. Lafayette, at Ithaca; Pennsylvania vs. Carlisle, at Philadelphia.

Wednesday, Nov. 19—Columbia vs. Annapolis, at Annapolis.

Saturday, Nov. 22—Yale vs. Harvard, at Annapolis; Cornell vs. Vermont, at Ithaca.

Thursday, Nov. 27—Columbia vs. Syracuse, at Syracuse; Cornell vs. Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia.

Then, as usual, the season will wind up with the game between Annapolis and West Point on Franklin Field, Philadelphia, on Saturday, Nov. 29.

AFTER ATHLETIC CLUB.

Sam Clark Says He is Going to Try For It.

Sammy Clark said the other day that he had every reason to believe that he would secure control of the defunct Salt Lake Athletic club this winter for the purpose of promoting boxing matches. Clark promises that in the event he gets the place, he will pull off contents that will please the people, that they will be absolutely on the square and that he will sign none but the very best men available.

There is also some talk of Jack McNamee taking hold of the sport again, although Mac says he will have nothing to do with it unless he has absolute control. He says he does not propose to be tied up with a lot of wisecracks who think they know all about the game, but who in fact know nothing. He is to hold out only "nuts" when the coin is counted," as Jack puts it. It is certain that if the club is a success this year it will have to be in different hands than it was toward the close of last year's season.

THE BASEBALL OUTLOOK.

Fans Anxiously Await the Meeting At Spokane the 15th.

Salt Lake and Ogden fans, one and all, are now anxiously awaiting the outcome of the meeting of the Pacific Northwest Baseball league, which takes place on the 15th of this month at Spokane. It is the annual meeting of the league officials, and one of the great questions which will be submitted for consideration is the proposition to increase the organization by the addition of two more teams, making the league an 8-club organization. Several cities are anxious to be represented in the league and are making efforts to form teams for that purpose. It is quite certain that they will have representatives at the meeting to take advantage of any proposition that may arise. But for consideration, is the proposition to increase the organization by the addition of two more teams, making the league an 8-club organization.
