PRICE OF GOLD.

Corrected Daily by BANK OF DESERET.

SALT LAKE CITY, February 23, 1872.

Buying at $1.07½; selling at $1.10.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—This evening the stirring sensational drama of "Jessie Brown, or, The Relief of Lucknow," will be presented by the company. The performance will conclude with the affecting ballad of "Home, Sweet Home," by Mrs. Matthiesen, from Copenhagen.

RAIN and snow last night; beautiful overhead and muddy underfoot this morning.

ILLEGAL LAWS.—Washington, Feb. 16. Anti-Mormon influences are endeavoring to press a bill of a retrospective nature intended to legalize hitherto doubtful legalacts. The Mormons insist that the bill of itself confesses all the alleged illegalities, and is, moreover, unconstitutional in that it seeks ex post facto legislation for criminal matters. W.—Chicago Post,

AN AWFUL CALAMITY.—That Minister DeLong should answer the wish of the Japanese Embassy, and gratify his own personal desire, to pay personal respects to Brigham Young, whom Mr. Seward pronounced one of the most remarkable men of these times, is one of those calamities, which, happily for mankind, rarely befalls enlightened nations.—Omaha Herald.

THE MUDDLER.—The Philadelphia Press, speaking of Judge McKean's visit to Washington, says the judicial affairs of Utah "are considered to be in such a confused condition that not a few members of Congress have said they will not vote a dollar for expenses until some satisfactory explanation be made concerning recent trials in Utah." Judge McKean is the great muddler of Utah matters.

IN A TEA-POT.—The New York Herald designates the frothy indignation of a few nondescripts over the visit of the Japanese Embassy to President Young as a "tempest in a teapot." If not very tea-poty it was very whisky-poty.

THE POPULATION.—Washington correspondence of several exchanges reports that Utah cannot be admitted unless her population comes up to the new apportionment law. The fact is that Utah comes much nearer the figures in question than most people suppose.

A GOOD BRANCH.—Brother Samuel Pike, writing from Wyoming Coal mines, Evanston, says:

"You have not, I dare say, heard anything from this out-of-the-way part of the world, but I have much pleasure in telling you that we have quite a branch here, and the Saints are full of confidence in their religion, and are trying to live it in uprightness of heart before the Lord.

"The Superintendent of one of the mines here has just built a good Schoolhouse, toward which the Saints donated liberally, and now we have the privilege of meeting in it, instead of, as heretofore, in a private house. We have just had a pleasant visit from Bros. Rich, Budge and Kimball. They have set things in order and by their teaching and counsel encouraged and comforted the people."

NOT TERRIBLY DISSATISFIED.—Says the Reese River Reveille—

"The late municipal election at Salt Lake City has inspired the Gentiles of that place with a decided aversion to Female Suffrage, which institution, the telegraph says today, they have memorialized Congress to abolish in Utah. It appears that at that election the wives and daughters of the Mormons turned out en masse and voted the Mormon ticket to a woman; the Gentiles, not being favored with female auxiliaries, gave up the contest early in the day, as they saw the futility of standing up against a party whose very vote was duplicated by every female connected with the voter's household.

"This goes to show that the Mormon women are not so terribly dissatisfied with polygamy as they have been represented to be, for making all due allowances for the pressure which was undoubtedly brought to bear by their male protectors, a spirit of rebellion would have cropped out in some cases had it existed."

How unfortunate. Now the charge of coercion of the feminines by the "Mormons," must perforce be abandoned. Another sensational lie nailed.

CHICKEN STEALING. — Alexander A. Allen, of the 11th Ward, informs us that he had half a dozen chickens stolen from his pen last night. This morning he saw some tracks in the snow and followed them clear to Camp Douglas, and on arriving there and looking around a little, he found all his missing chickens, alive and well, in the vicinity of one of the mess-houses up there.

RETURNED MISSIONARIES.—James A. Bean, of Provo, called yesterday afternoon, having returned with the other missionaries from the East. Besides those named, Elder Alexander Stalker, of Cache, Jacob Bushman, of Lehi, David Garner, of North Ogden, and Green Taylor, of Ogden, arrived at the same time from the East. Elder Bean traveled through Illinois, chiefly among his relative and friends. Had good health on his mission, and had the privilege of speaking in two churches, with good attendance to hear. He was twenty-two days in the blockade, and he speaks in excellent terms of the R. R. authorities, who fed and boarded the passengers during their detention, doing quite as as well as could have been expected. He had nothing to complain of in regard to the treatment he received from them.

Elder Fisher, of Richmond, called this morning, having returned from a mission to the States yesterday. He left Ogden with the company of missionaries that went east on the 15th of November. While on his mission he became acquainted with many of the leading officials of the eastern lines of railroads, and succeeded in inducing them to allow all the missionaries to travel over their roads at half the regular fare.

He labored chiefly in Missouri and Iowa, and enjoyed himself very much. During the last few months he traveled in company with Elder A. Stalker, of Franklin, who also returned home with him. Brother Stalker baptized several people in Gerard, Kansas, and also baptized a man at Laramie, named Peter Peterson. Before the latter could be baptized the ice, which was about a foot thick, had to be broken. He expects, with his family, to come to Utah the coming season.

A LITTLE SINGULAR.—The Carson Register says—

"It is worthy of note that the women of Utah, who are exercising the elective franchise, vote a straight Mormon ticket—as straight as any of their relatives vote. Now, if polygamy is such a degrading tyranny over women, as most of the latter-day reformers proclaim, it is a little singular that the objects of that tyranny are among the foremost in sustaining their oppressors by their votes—voting en masse for the church leaders."

DIED.

At the residence of Dr. Dunyon, in this city, Feb. 24rd, at 2.30 a. m., of dropsy of the heart, ABBY C. BROWN, mother of Mrs. A. K. Dunyon, aged 75 years and 1 month.

Born at Brownville, Fayette Co., Penn., in 1797. Born and raised in the society of the Quakers. Emigrated to this valley in 1853. Lived and died a Saint, beloved by all who knew her. She passed away without pain or struggle.

Funeral services at 2 p.m. to-morrow. Friends respectfully invited to attend.—[COM.

At Santaquin, February 17th of typhoid fever, SARAH MELISSA, wife of Thomas Topham, and daughter of Wm. F. and Sarah Carter, aged 25 years, 10 months and 4 days.

She left a husband and four children and a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn her loss. She was a good and tender wife, a fond mother, a faithful Saint and a true friend. —[COM.

At Darton, Yorkshire, England, Dec. 25, 1871, CLARA GREGORY BLAGG, grand daughter of Andrew and Sarah Gregory.—Mill. Star.

PUBLIC NOTICE.

SALT LAKE CITY, U. T., Jan. 30, 1872.

ON THE 23rd OCTOBER, 1866, a reward was offered by certain parties, for the apprehension and safe delivery into the hands of the proper officers, of the murderer or murderers of Dr. J. K. Robinson, wherein I offered the sum of $500.

I now give notice, that in consequence of endangering the lives of innocent men, I withdraw that offer, and that the same shall be of no force or effect from and after this date.
