100 VOLUMES

OF THE

STANDARD DICTIONARY!

This rare work of nearly 2,400 pages each volume weighing 1714 pounds, beautifully bound in embossed leather, issued by Funk and Wagnalls of London and New York, is now on sale at the Deseret News office. One hundred volumes have just been received. This is the work in the compliation of which Dr. James E. Talmage was engaged as one of the 200 editors. Its thoroughness is well illustrated by its treatment of the single word "Quorum," as follows:

"Quorum?" 1. Such a number of persons of any deliberative or corporate body as is necessary for the legal transaction of business: unless otherwise ordered, a business: unless otherwise ordered, a majority. 2. (Eng.) Certain designated fusices of the peace commissioned as JUSTICES OF THE QUORUM, without the presence of some one of whom the others could not act. 3. Mor. Ch. A council or organized body of the priesthood; as, an Elders' quorum; the quorum of the First Presidency. 4. Necessary constituents. (L., of whom, gen. pl. of "qui" (who.) from the Latin words "quorum unum—A. B. esse voluwords "quorum unum-A. B. esse volu-mus" (of whom we desire A. B. to be one) forming part of ancient commis-sions, as of justices.

This rare dictionary is offered at $12 per copy. A limited number can be had for Church pay, and our schools and colleges are asked to correspond with us at once should they desire a copy. THE DESERRET NEWS.

MARSHALL IS IDENTIFIED.

He is Undoubtedly the Slayer of Mrs. Joseph Creech.

Husband of the Dead Woman Sees Marshall and Says He is the Murderer-Accused Denies It.

No surprise whatever is expressed by the police authorities now that the identification of Edgar Marshall alias Ed. Allison, as the murderer of Mrs. Joseph Creech is made complete. The officers feel highly elated that Marshall was captured here before he was able to do much crooked work.

Despite his vehement assertions that he has lived in Denver for twelve years and was never in Butte in his life, such a chain of evidence has been linked against Marshall that he will undoubtedly be convicted. First he was identified positively by Joe. Creech, husband of the dead woman; he was also identified by Joe Kinsley, who is well acquainted with him, and who was an eye witness to the murder. He is also identified by a score of persons as the man who was confined in jail for robbing a who was confined in jail for robbing a saloon and who afterwards made his saloon and who afterward have been been been been and some of the Butte officials believe he was full of it when he shot Mrs. Creech. The tale Marshall tells about his long residence in Denver and never being in Butte will, the officers here think, ruin his chances of defense

EX-MAYOR CLARK PORTRAIT Remarkable Lifeslike Piece of Work by Will Clawson.

If the work done by Utah artists continue in line with the high examples of art furnished by some of them, the State will soon become famous for eminent names from the list of its native sons who are devoting themselves to high expression in art. The latest notable example is furnished in a portrait of Mayor Clark, which has just been painted by Will Clawson.

Some time ago the City Council made an appropriation of $250 for a portrait of the then acting Mayor to be added to the gallery of portraits of city dignitaries which adorns the council chamber in the city and county building. The order was placed with Will Clawson, the son-in-law of Mayor Clark, one of Utah's most talented artists, and the portrait has recently arrived and is on exhibition in the Midgely's art establishment on First South street.

Mr. Clawson has won many laurels painted by Will Clawson.

Mr. Clawson has won many laurels in his chosen work, but if nothing else had ever been done by his hand, the portrait just fluished would establish his place as an artist amongst the first painters of the West.

Nothing more absolutely lifelike could be achieved in the line of portrait painting than the picture of ex-Mayor Clark. The flesh tint, individu-ality of expression and features are most remarkably wrought—not a detail of resemblance being missed or marred.
The picture is life size and those who know the original will be almost startled at the striking likeness. The picture alone must stand as a monument to Mr. Clawson's talent, furnishes suf-ficient suggestion in itself that Utah people need not turn to outside artists for work in that line, when home genius is able to furnish such notable examples of excellence as are expressed in Mr. Clawson's recent work. YOUR FACE

SERVICES AT THE TABERNACLE

Elder McKenzie Speaks on the Power of Testimony.

WAS A LOGICAL DISCOURSE.

The Resurrection is a Beatty-Christ Appeared to His Apostics, Whose Testimony Cannot be Gainsaid.

The services in the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon were presided over by President Angus M. Cannon.

They were opened by the choir singing the hymn commencing, "Zion stands with hills surrounded." Elder William McLaughlin offered the opening prayer. Continued by the choir singing the hymn commencing with the words, 'Author of faith's eternal word."

Elder Joseph A. Williams, recently returned from a mission to the Southern States, was the first speaker. He said he enjoyed himself well while laboring in the south. He had the ivilege of baptizing fifty souls and assisting in the election of several churches. We should seek for the fuith this is enjoyed by the Elders abroad, and seek carnestly for the faith that was once delivered to the Saints, and we will enjoy the same blessings that were bestowed upon the ancient Saints. God bestowed upon the ancient Saints. God is a God of truth, and can therefore be relied upon. The speaker quoted a number of passages from the Bible showing that God is a being of truth.

When the Savior sent His Abostles out to preach He said He had not brought peace into the world, but a sword and members of the same household would be opposed to one another. The speaker had found that statement verified in his labors in the Southern States. He had seen men and Southern States. He had seen men and women forsaken by their relatives, those who had loved them, because they had yielded to their honest convictions. The same results follow the preaching of the Gospel today us for owed its preaching anciently; the same lessings and powers of the Gospel are with those who keep the command-ments of God. Elder Williams closed by testifying that he knew that Joseph Smith was a Prophet of God, and those who yield obedience to the principles that God revealed through him, shall merit an exaltation.

John Robinson sang the excellent solo, "Grant us Thy Peace," He was in splendid voice, and was listened to with the closest attention.

Elder David McKenzie was the succeeding speaker. He said that if those who objected to their relatives associating with the Latter-day Saints knew this people as well as he they would rejoice to have their sons and acceptance connect themselves with the daughters connect themselves with the Latter-day Saints. He had associated with this people for over forty years and he knew their sterling worth and integrity, and many had laid down their lives in attestation of their love The very simplest of all principles are those of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, so that the commonest understanding can appreciate them. They can all conform the laws of God and save themselves from destruction. Salvation depends upon obedience as exemplified in the history of Noah and of Joseph who was sold into Egypt. Everything must have a foundation, a commencement. What, then, was the commencement of Christianity? Why, that Jesus arose from the dead. Not is crucifixion, for that was the death of Christianity. What was the cleaning the characteristic of the commencement of the characteristic What was the death of Caristianty. What was the circumstance then that put new faith and life into those who had believed in the Savior? It was the knowledge that He had risen from the dead. They began to understand then what their mission was, they then realized that He was the Great Divine; they had not realized it before. Not only was this testimony to the Twelve, but we have the testimony of Paul that Jesus had revealed Himself to 500 peo Jesus had revealed Himself to 500 people. The people had begun to doubt the reality of the resurrection, thinking that it was but a renewal of spiritual life. Paul had boldly affirmed that there were over 200 people living in his day, who had seen the risen Lord. The Twelve Apostles had all seen Him, and had heard His voice. Some of the Apostles objected to Paul being one of them because he had not associated with the Savior, but Paul vanguished them by saying, "Have not I cutsed with the savior, but Paul van-quished them by saying, "Have not I seen the risen Redeemer?"

"And as He arose from the dead, so we also should walk in newness of life?" We should be born again, con-tinued the speaker, of the water and the spirit and with the blessings of the Gospel we will inherit the hatred of mankind. What was there in the as-sertion of the innocent boy Joseph Smith, that there were at least two personages in the Godhead, to turn the anger of the whole world against him Men said that he was either an in poster or he was the victim of an he The hallucination id lucination. The hallucination idwill not bear examination for a magnet. Joseph Smith subsequently say an angel, and received records from the angel, there was no hallucination about that. And if he knew he was an imposter what did he gain by his testimony? The ancient Apostles, if they knew they were imposters what did they gain by their testimonies? The speaker stated that there were three essentials in a testimony, first number essentials in a testimony, first number, second competency and thirdly credibility. There must be two or more to testify to the same thing, but none of these elements were considered in de-crying the testimony of the Apostles of old. And in this day, there are over of old. And in this day, there are over eight witnesses to the Book of Mor-mon, and many other testimonies in re-gard to other things, so that they are beyond the possibility of a hallucina-tion. Their testimonies are either true or false. If false what had those men to gain by bearing false testimonies? The speaker closed by bearing a most impressive testimony to the truth of the Gospel

The choir sang the anthem "Unfold ye portals. The benediction was pronounced by Patriarch John Smith. After the services were closed the choir rendered a number of very choice selections for the benefit of the strangers who were present ENDEAVORERS' CONVENTION Elaborate Preparations Have Been

HE STOLE FLORIDA WATER. Bald-Headed Burglar's Daring Act-Robbed a Drug Store.

Last Saturday night Woodbine's drug store on the corner of Third East and Second South streets was visited by burglars. The intruders' entrance was made by smashing a pane of glass. It may not be wise to publish the fact but the officers of the law have a clue which may eventually lead to the ap-prehension of the culprit. The thief did a feelish thing, as shown by the articles stolen, and he also advertised the fact that he is not a very desperate man He purloined about one dozen bottles of hair restorer and Florida water. He b bald headed and has a girl who loves Florida water. All the police need to do now to capture the fellow is to look out for bald heads and smell for Florida

The best health habit to get into is to have and keep a vigorous stomach; if you have a healthy digestion you can irink your beloved coffee, smoke your tavorite brand of tobacco, with little or no harm; the mischlef begins when these things are forced upon the faithul stomach, without any assistance. Form the habit of taking afterr meals which will relieve the stomach of so much extra work, Nature furnishes us will such digestives and when they are combined in such a pleasant preparation as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, they give the over-worked stomach just the necessary as-sistance to secure perfect digestion without any of the harmful effects of some harmless but efficient digestive athartics and similar drugs. The habit of taking Stuart's Dyspepa Tablets after meals is as necessary the weak stomach as food lizelf, and indeed to get the benefit from food eat-en, nothing better and certainly noth-ing safer can be used. Many families consider Stuart's Tablets as essential in the house as knives and forks. They consist entirely of natural dipestive principles without the effect or characteristics of drugs; they have no cathartic action, but simply go to work on the food eaten and digest it. Take into account your bad habits and the expense they entail and then invest fifty cents in a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and see if your digestion for the next month is not vastly improved,

Ask the clerk in any drug store the name of the most successful and popular stomach remedy and he will say "Stuart's."
