SPEECH OF THE INDIAN CHIEF "EAGLE EYE."

Braves, give attention to your aged chief,
Once more I ask it and I will be brief;
Old age approaches and my strength does fail,
And even the Eagle Eye makes no one quail.
And yet before I die, my warriors bold,
I wish to tell again what's oft been told,
How we've been robbed and cheated of our lands,
First by the worthless, then by the chosen bands.
It makes the blood to pulsate through my heart
With quicken'd speed, for I can take no part
To stop the infamy, all must go.
They strip the dead to look for sordid gold,
And make us like the slaves that were bought and sold;
They strew our fathers' bones before our eyes,
Dug from their rest; poor Indian has no ties.
Now we must leave our land and hallowed mounds
And never more shall we tread our hunting grounds.
What have we done for which we must atone,
When the Great Spirit leaves us so alone?
With grief I'm stricken, and the tear drop does blind
For all my peace I leave behind.
What has done th's thing but damned fire
They brought to us, for which we had no desire.
But when we tasted the accursed stuff
We never knew when we had got enough.
Still more and more they gave, they made great feasts,
And then we drank until sunk below the beasts.
I watched my braves when they first began,
And thought they were so happy, man with man.
I drank the tempting cup, I took the lead,
And, worse than all, my children signed the deed.
I know not what I did, it crazed my brain,
All I had I gave, I was insane.
O, can you e'er forgive your aged chief,
And stamp the Pale Face only as a thief?
Of all, of all we're now bereft,
And soon, too soon, we shall have nothing left.
If this is Christianity, the Indian says
He wishes not to learn the Christian's ways,
For what is life with liberty unknown,
But living only with the substance gone?
Ye noble braves, ye children of the soil,
The pale-faced strangers, they are full of guile;
For it is true, what I have often said,
They never kept a contract they had made.
From place to place they move you at their call,
And tell you the Great Father does it all.
My strength is failing fast; even elk and deer
Have no more from Eagle Eye to fear.
But O! I dread to leave our land of fame
To sink beneath ourselves and die in shame;
For I can sing no more our warrior's songs,
Nor ever shall forget our grievous wrongs.
Now let us calmly look through deep despair,
And bow before the Spirit of the Air,
To supplicate his aid in all our woe
And all the ills we yet must undergo.
Ye lovely valleys, scenes of beauty give;
Ye lovely rivers flow, that all may live;
Ye lovely trees, so varied, greet the sight,
Ye lovely flowers, yield fragrance and delight.
But I must leave you, I must say farewell,
For here my warrior braves no more can dwell.

The Electoral Commission—Vote on the Oregon Case—The Usual Party Vote, Eight to Seven.

WASHINGTON, 23.—The electoral commission re-assembled in secret session at 10.30 o'clock, and remained in consultation on the Oregon case till three o'clock. The discussion being concluded, and Senator Thurman not having been able to attend on account of illness, a recess was taken in order to ascertain whether he would prefer coming to the Capitol or that the commission should proceed to his residence.

A committee appointed for this purpose reported that Thurman preferred to receive the commission at his house at 4 o'clock, therefore the other members proceeded in carriages to Senator Thurman's residence. Senator Thurman was found confined to bed, where he remained during the proceedings of the commission. The commission was formally called to order by Justice Clifford, president, and a vote taken on the following proposition, which had been informally submitted and discussed, but not voted upon during the day's session, by Edmunds:

Resolved, That the certificate signed by E. A. Cronis, J. N. T. Miller, and Jno. Parker, purporting to cast the electoral vote of the State of Oregon, does not contain or certify the constitutional votes to which the State is entitled.

Justice Field offered the following as a substitute:

Whereas, As J. W. Watts, designated in certificate No. 1 as elector of the State of Oregon for President and Vice-President, on the day of the election held office of trust and profit under the United States; therefore

Resolved, That said Watts was then ineligible to the office of elector within the express terms of the Constitution.

Rejected—ayes 7, nays 8.

The following is the vote: Ayes—Abbott, Bayard, Clifford, Field, Hunter, Payne and Thurman, 7.

Nays—Bradley, Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Garfield, Hoar, Miller, Morton and Strong, 8.

Justice Field then offered the following:

Whereas, That at the election held on the 7th of November, in the State of Oregon, for electors of President and Vice-President, W. H. Odell, J. W. Watts, and J. C. Cartwright received the highest number of votes cast for electors; but,

Whereas, Said Watts, then holding an office of trust and profit under the United States, was ineligible to office of elector; therefore,

Resolved, That said Odell and Cartwright were the only persons duly elected, at said election, and there was a failure on the part of the State to elect a third elector.

Rejected—Ayes 7, nays 8. The same vote.

Justice Field then offered the following:

Whereas, The legislature of Oregon having made no provision for the appointment of an elector under the act of Congress where there was a failure to make a choice on the day prescribed by law; therefore,

Resolved, That the attempted selection of a third elector by the two persons chosen was inoperative and void.

Rejected—Yeas 7, nays 8 The vote same as above.

Bayard then offered the following—

Resolved, That the vote of W. H. Odell, and the vote of J. C. Cartwright cast for Rutherford B. Hayes, of Ohio, for President of the United States, and for William A. Wheeler, of New York, for Vice President of the United States, were the votes provided for by the constitution of the United States, and that the aforesaid Odell and Cartwright, and they only, were the persons duly appointed electors in the State of Oregon at the election held on Nov. 7th, there having been a failure at said election to appoint a third elector in accordance with the constitution and laws of the United States, and the laws of the State of Oregon, and that the two votes aforesaid should be counted, and none other from the State of Oregon.

Rejected—yeas 7, nays 8; the same as above.

A vote was then taken on Edmunds' original proposition, and was adopted unanimously.

Morton then offered the following—

Resolved, That W. H. Odell, J. C. Cartwright and J. W. Watts, the persons named in certificate No. 1, are the lawful electors of Oregon, and that their votes are the votes provided for by the constitution of the United States, and should be counted for the President and Vice-President of the United States.

Hunton moved to strike out the name of J. W. Watts.

Disagreed to—yeas 7, nays 8.

Morton's resolution was then adopted—yeas 8, nays 7.

The following is the vote:

Yeas—Bradley, Edmunds, Frelinghuysen, Garfield, Hoar, Miller, Morton and Strong, 8.

Nays—Abbott, Bayard, Clifford, Field, Hunton, Payne and Thurman, 7.

The decision of the commission was then drawn up and signed by the eight members voting in the affirmative.

On motion of Morton the injunction of secrecy upon the acts and proceedings of the commission, except as regards their report to the joint session of Congress, was removed, and the commission adjourned, to meet in the Supreme Court at 12 o'clock to-morrow.

The report, in substance, is as follows:

The electoral commission, having received certain certificates and papers, purporting to be the certificates of the electoral votes of Oregon, and certain papers accompanying the same, and objections thereto, reports that it has duly considered the same, and has decided, and does hereby decide, that the votes of W. H. Odell, J. C. Cartwright and J. W. Watts, the persons named in the certificate of the Secretary of State of Oregon, as the persons receiving the highest number of votes for presidential electors, are the votes provided for by the constitution, and the same are lawfully to be counted as testified in the certificate of said electors, namely, three votes for R. B. Hayes, of Ohio, for President, and three votes for William A. Wheeler for Vice-President.

The report will further set forth that the election of Watts by the other two members of the electoral college was in accordance with the constitution and laws of Oregon.

The grounds for the decision, as far as they concern the eligibility of Watts, are substantially that it is competent to go behind the certificate of the governor so far as the same is not founded upon the action of the canvassing or returning authority provided for by the laws of the State, which authority, in the case of Oregon, is held to be the Secretary of State.

The report will also take the ground that it is not essential to show that the elector was eligible on the 7th of November, provided it be shown that he was eligible when he cast his vote in the electoral college, and the fact appears that the alleged ineligible elector, Watts, was chosen to fill the vacancy caused by his own absence from the electoral college, and that he was not ineligible at the time he cast his vote.

The Democratic Caucus.

When, this afternoon, information reached the House that the electoral commission had decided upon counting the Oregon vote for Hayes and Wheeler, a motion was made and carried to take a recess till to-morrow morning at ten o'clock, the purpose of the majority being to hold a caucus before the announcement of such a decision should be received. Directly after recess notice was read from the desk inviting the democrats to remain for the purpose of holding a caucus. When the hall had been cleared of all the others, Representative Lamar called the meeting to order, when he said he was requested to suggest that the caucus adjourn till 7.30 to-night, whereupon a member proposed Saturday night, but the voice of the majority being in favor of continuing the caucus this afternoon without adjournment, Representative McMahon, of Ohio, offered a resolution that to-morrow a motion be made in the House inviting the Senate to meet the House in joint convention at one o'clock on Monday.

Representative Kehr offered a substitute, viz., that a motion be made in the House inviting the Senate to meet in joint session to-morrow, at 1 o'clock, for the purpose of proceeding with the count of the electoral vote. To this Representative Neal offered an amendment, which Representative Kehr accepted, to the effect that after the two houses shall have met in joint session to receive the decision of the electoral commission on the Oregon question and shall have separated thereon, the House will then proceed to discuss the decision.

An earnest and excited discussion ensued, in which Representatives Hurd, Southward, McMahon, Vance, of Ohio, Knott, Sparks, and Lane participated, favoring delay till Monday.

Representatives Hill, Brown, Wiltshire, Harrison, and House were in favor of inviting the Senate to meet with the House to-morrow, for the purpose of counting the electoral vote.

Speaker Randall made a few remarks, counseling calm deliberation in view of the importance of the question presented.

Representative Field also spoke briefly, stating that he had prepared two bills, one providing for the election of President and Vice-President on the first Tuesday in May. The presiding officer of the Senate to act as President in the interval between the 4th of March and that time. The other bill providing for quo warranto proceedings, so that the respective contestants for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency could be judged before the United States Supreme Court, and there present their claims to the office.

Under the operation of the previous question, a substitute and amendment to Representative McMahon's resolution were rejected ayes 44, nays 65.

The resolution of Representative McMahon, inviting the Senate to meet the House at one o'clock on Monday was then adopted by about twenty majority.

The reasons given by several gentlemen, who were present at the caucus, for this delay, were that the House wanted further time for reflection and to prepare objections to South Carolina and other cases.

The Republicans Apprehend Trouble—The Filibustering Element.

The jubilation of the republicans over the decision in the Oregon case is greatly tempered with apprehensions of serious trouble, likely to result from the subsequent action of the democratic caucus. It is noted with alarm that the filibustering element of the House manifested increased strength in the caucus to-day, having gained accessions, especially from among the southern members. All the Georgia delegation went over, except Hill and Blount, and the extremists displayed vastly more earnestness and determination than their party opponents. The advocates of the filibustering policy argued that even if the result of defeating the operations of the electoral act should be a declaration, by the presiding officer of the Senate, of Hayes' election, and be followed by Hayes' inauguration, the democratic party should, nevertheless, in the meantime, refuse to give any consent to his being declared elected under the forms of law. They could in the contingency above indicated, say that these extremists submit to a de facto President under protest, without compromising their principles, and thus go before the country in the attitude of victims of lawless usurpation.

Confirmation.

The Senate, to-day, confirmed the nomination of E. M. Marble, of Michigan, as examiner-in-chief of the patent office.

The French Minister Presents his Credentials.

M. Outry, the newly accredited Minister of France to the United States, presented his credentials to the President to-day.

Gov. Hayes and that Newspaper Article.

COLUMBUS, 23.—Referring to a previous article alleged to be suggestive of the use of troops at the President's command in favor of Packard, the Ohio State Journal will, to-morrow, publish an editorial denying in the most positive terms that Governor Hayes, either directly or remotely, inspired the article in question. He says he knew nothing of its existence or any intention to write such an article until its appearance in print, and we learn that he did not know of its publication until his attention was called to it by a telegram from Washington yesterday.

A Good Railroad Business.

CHICAGO, 23.—The annual report of the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy Railroad makes a very satisfactory showing, in spite of the depression in business, and dull times. The road has, throughout the year, more than paid its way and kept up the annual ten per cent. dividend. The earnings for the year ending December, 1876, were $12,057,794. Operating expenses and taxes $6,868,545. Net earnings for the year $5,678,249.

Wool Market.

PHILADELPHIA, 23.—Wool is firm. Colorado washed, 20 @ 28; unwashed, 16 @ 25; extra and merino pulled 36 @ 42; No. 1 and superfine pulled, 30 @ 36; Texas fine and medium, 20 @ 28; coarse, 16 @ 20; California fine and medium 25 @ 33; coarse 18 @ 22.

The Black Hills—Another Indian Attack on Miners.

DEADWOOD, D. T., 23.—On Wednesday evening, at half-past six, a small band of Indians made an attack on Spearfish City, a mining town near this place. About 100 shots were exchanged; none of the miners were injured. Owing to the darkness, the damage done to the Indians is unknown.

Last night Boughton's herd of cattle, which a party of armed citizens recaptured from the Indians a few days since, were again driven off by Indians from False Bottom mining region.

The Vanderbilt Estate.

NEW YORK, 23.—In the stock market, to-day, the New York central was depressed by a rumor that Vanderbilt's will would be contested, and the estate put in the hands of a receiver. It has probably originated in the rumor of the contest by Cornelius Vanderbilt, one of his sons.

Railroad Sold Under the Hammer.

LAWRENCE, Kansas, 23.—The St. Louis, Lawrence, and Western Railroad was sold, to-day, for $200,000 under the hammer, to Mark Morrison, in the interests of the new mortgage bond-holders. It is believed that Atchison, of the Topeka and Santa Fe Railroad, is the purchaser.

WESTERN.

Pacific Coast Items.

SAN FRANCISCO, 23.—A Victoria dispatch says parliament was opened, yesterday, by the Lieut.-Governor.

Dispatches from Lord Carnarvon were laid before the house, asking that the province recognize the principle of money equivalent for the Island Railway, and expressing the belief that work on the main line will be opened in the spring. The dispatch has the effect to quiet the separation sentiment. The Colonist is confident that the anti-separationists are in the majority, and anticipates no further trouble unless the railway contract is repudiated by Canada.

Tucson, Arizona, advices report that forty-five Indian scouts, under Capt. Buford, leave to-day, to operate against the hostiles.

News from Magdalena, Sonora, says the Apaches have cleaned the valley of stock, and killed and captured a few of the residents.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

An Island Pillaged by Turkish Officers and Soldiers.

LONDON, 23.—Dispatches from Bucharest say that a number of Turks, including soldiers, pillaged Goramei Island, on the Danube. A detachment of Roumanian troops captured thirteen of the party, including a Turkish soldier. One of the marauders, who was a Turkish official from Rustchuck, and another Turk, were killed.
