

BURGLARS RIFLE JUDGE'S HOME

Robbers Enter Residence of C. W. Morse During Absence of Family at Long Beach.

TURN THINGS TOPSY TURVY.

Drawers Upset and Pantry in Disorder, But Nothing Apparently Missing—Drug Store Visited.

The residence of Judge C. W. Morse of the criminal division of the district court was burglarized last night, but so far as known nothing of value was stolen. Judge Morse, who resides at 320 east South Temple street, left with his family for a vacation to Long Beach several days ago, and until they return, it will not be known whether or not anything was taken. Two windows had been left open, and the burglars gained entrance through one of them. A neighbor heard a noise in the house and saw light flashing in the various rooms. The police department was called up and Detective Wilson and other officers made a hurried run to the place, but when they arrived the burglars had departed.

INTRUDERS SACK PANTRY.

Nearly every room in the house had been visited by the intruders, and the furniture turned topsy turvy. Drawers were pulled out and the contents dumped on the floors. The pantry was in a state of disorder and crackers and fruit strewn over the floor. A quantity of clothing, cut glass and some small articles of jewelry were left untouched. It was evident that the thieves were looking only for money.

THIEVES VISIT DRUG STORE.

A second burglary occurred at the drug store of L. H. May, Second South and Third East streets. This place has been entered several times, and some time ago a burglar was caught in the act of tapping the cash till. The thieves gained entrance last night by trying open the front door. They secured $2 in cash and $2 in stamps. The police believe it was the work of a gang of young hoodlums and thieves.

PASS WORTHLESS CHECKS.

Isaka and Asaka Are Two Much Wanted Japanese.

The police are looking for two Japanese who issued checks amounting to nearly $2,000 with no funds in the bank, and then left town while their creditors were left to find out that the checks were worthless. The men are D. S. Isaka and G. S. Asaka, who engaged in a general contracting business in Salt Lake City, with headquarters on Richards street.

PLAGUE IN TOOELE VALLEY.

Grasshoppers Are Devouring Crops And Ruining Vegetation.

Word comes from Erda, Tooele county, that every inch of crop is being eaten down by grasshoppers, and that every green thing in the line of vegetation is being destroyed. This plague, coupled with drought and prairie dogs, makes the outlook in the valley rather discouraging for the settlers there.

THERE ARE OTHERS.

Salt Lake Doctor Not the Only One Affected With "Noises."

In view of a local medical man's recent soul harrowing experiences with a neighbor's boisterous roosters which made life for him a hollow mockery and hope an empty dream, there may be a modicum of comfort to the eminent avian in the following brief editorial from the Chicago Record-Herald, headed, "The Rooster in Chicago." The paper says:

"Some very harrowing stories have been written concerning the maddening effect of country noises upon refugees who have fled the city in search of rest and quiet. And in them the rooster always appears as one of the chief disturbers of the peace. Possibly the complaint that is lodged against the bird is sincere, since he is louder than crows or katydids, and his clarion seems all the shriller because of the general calm of the rural districts. But the effort to secure an injunction against him in Chicago must naturally cause some surprise because Chicago has more noises than Cologne has stench. It is one vast boiler factory

MRS. PARRATT DEAD.

Familiar and Pathetic Figure on Streets Passes Away.

Mrs. E. R. Parratt died this morning at her home, 51 west Third North. With the passing of this unfortunate woman the last chapter in a human tragedy closed. Born in Portsmouth, England, in 1857, the daughter of Samuel S. Wilkie, an employee of the British government in the big dockyard, she came to Utah with her parents in 1868.

With her husband she lived happily and the frugal couple soon acquired a little property including a couple of houses in the Nineteenth ward. During the past ten years Mrs. Parratt has been picked up by officers on the streets at intervals where she had fallen. Both she and her husband stoutly maintained that she suffered from fits. Although she appeared before both the late Judge Timmony and Judge Diehl a number of times on all occasions she was discharged.

Mrs. Parratt fell on the street heavily a few days ago and at the time of her death she was suffering from a bad scalp wound.

She died at 2:30 this morning and the funeral will be held from the undertaking parlors of Joseph E. Taylor on Friday.

MUST HAVE A LICENSE.

Opinion by Attorney General Breeden Relative to the Selling of Drugs.

Atty.-Gen. Breeden returned the following opinion today in reply to a query from Secy. Walter H. Dayton of the state board of pharmacy, holding that druggists must have a license before selling drugs:

"In reply to your favor I beg to advise you that under the statutes of this state no person shall be granted a license as a registered pharmacist until he shall have secured the approval of the state board setting forth by affidavit that he is of the age of 21 years, or upwards, and has at least three years' practical experience where drugs, medicines and poisons were dispensed and retained and prescriptions compounded, of which experience one year must have been within the five years last preceding the date of such application, in a pharmacy or in the United States, and that he has personal supervision of a licensed pharmacist, and until he shall have paid such license fee as is fixed by said board not exceeding the sum of $10, and until he shall have passed an examination satisfactory to said board for the granting of a license."

"There is no law in this state excusing any one from the provisions of the statute above quoted and you are advised that your board has no authority to grant license until the law is fully complied with, that is to say, every person desiring to compound or dispense drugs, medicines or poisons, or to open and conduct any pharmacy for compounding or dispensing drugs, medicines or poisons, must apply for a license as required by law and submit to an examination by the state board of pharmacy, etc., and obtain a license therefrom."

SICK MINER'S FREAK.

Taken By Police from Deseret News Fire Escape This Morning.

A miner named William Jones, aged 30, recently from Caliente, called at police headquarters this morning and complained that he was sick, without funds and needed immediate medical attention. The desk sergeant referred him to County Physician Calderwood, and told him to go to the office of the physician in the hotel on the corner. Jones left the station and started for the doctor's office, but on the way became delirious. He entered the Deseret News building, took the elevator to the top and then began to climb down the fire escape. Word was sent to the police station and officers hurried in the patrol wagon to the building. The unfortunate man was taken from the fire escape in safety and conveyed to the police station where he is being temporarily cared for.

WHIPLASH TAKEN AROUND IN AUTO

Mayor Thompson and City Engineer Kelsey Explain Improvements Now Under Way.

TWENTY MILES COVERED.

Hear About Pavements, Water Changes and Sewer Projects and Are Then Fed.

As guests of Mayor Ezra Thompson and guided by City Engineer Kelsey, representatives of the three morning papers and the Deseret Evening News covered 20 miles this morning in an auto, to be shown the improvements now under way in various portions of the city. The start was made at 10 o'clock from the Wilson hotel, the neighborhood around the city and county building being the first place visited. Here the paving being completed between Second East and West Temple streets was examined. The pavement being laid on Main between Fourth and Ninth South streets on State between Fourth and Seventh South streets and on West Temple between Fourth and Fifth South streets were gone over.

WATER SUPPLY INCREASE.

After a run through Liberty park, where the newspaper men were shown the new band stand erected by the city, the big two-seater was turned towards the foothills back of the university. The trench being dug along Fifth South between the top of the bench and Third West was next visited and the "seeing Salt Lake" was told that the 36-inch pipe being laid to furnish the city with water from Parley's and Big Cottonwood will increase the city's supply by 48,000 gallons a day, making the total supply over 64,000 gallons. Mr. Kelsey says this quantity will be sufficient to meet all demands easily. Mayor Thompson explained that the fire insurance rates will be lowered throughout the city as a result of this increase.

MORE PAVING PLANNED.

On the way up the writers were told that all streets from South Temple to Fifth South streets inclusive are to be macadamized to the lower boundaries of the military reservation. This line runs north and south at a point about one-half block above Thirteenth East street. Work is now under way on South Temple street. First street is to be macadamized to the "J" street and Second avenue is being macadamized from its beginning at Canyon road to the military reservation. Rock is being rolled as far up as "I" street at the present time. While journeying down First avenue the travelers examined the "trestle" built by Moran. This is a temporary affair about 25 feet high. Material (rock) is hauled up on Third avenue on the street car tracks and then backed up on this trestle where it is dumped into the loading bins. Four-inch water pipes along First avenue are being replaced by 6-inch pipes.

DRAINAGE SCHEME EXPLAINED.

Coming back through the main portion of town the ride was made down South Temple street to Eighth West where the intercepting sewer is being installed. This sewer is intended to drain the western and lower half of town from surface water. Basements cannot be built at the present time, as water is struck within a few feet of the surface. Quicksand and water are making the work of installing this sewer most difficult work as the sight of laborers shoveling in mud up above their knees made evident. Work is being centered at two points on Eighth West street at present, near North Temple and below Fifth South streets. A run out to the Warren Springs terrace, a half mile or so, was made to see the crowded condition of the schools in the southern part of the city.

The buildings will be used at first for regular school work, but will later be turned into manual training schools. When completed they will greatly relieve the crowded condition of the schools in the southern part of the city.

WEATHER SUMMARY.

Hite, Garfield Co., Scored 106 Degrees In Temperature Last Week.

The summary of the weather for the week ending last Monday evening, July 15, is as follows:

The highest temperature reported was 106 degrees at Hite, Garfield county, and the lowest was 55 degrees at Soldier Summit, Utah county. The highest and lowest temperatures were not confined to certain dates, but occurred on various days throughout the week, especially during the afternoon hours. The weather as a whole, however, was conducive to the rapid growth of vegetation, and the amount of sunshine was in excess of the normal. Owing to the rapid melting of the snow in the mountains, the rivers continued high and afforded ample water for irrigation purposes.

TELEPHONE MEN BRANGING PEACE

Series of Conferences That May End the Strike is Commenced Today.

PRESIDENT McNULTY HERE.

On His Ability to Handle the Situation Both Sides Are Counting to Secure Permanent Peace.

A conference this morning between officials of the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company and President McNulty of the Electrical Workers' International union, may bring an end to the electrical workers' strike that has been active in the intermountain country for the past two months.

There were many others present at the conference, and it has begun a hearing of the entire situation, which will be continued at following meetings until both sides have been heard and have been agreed upon. Then the merits of the situation will be discussed, and an effort will be made to form an agreement that will be at once binding on both sides and satisfactory to all concerned.

DISCUSSING FACTS.

These no discussion occurred this morning, although the meeting was a long one. Facts only were talked over, and no attempt was made to discuss their merits. At noon an adjournment was taken until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning and President McNulty, with Vice President Sullivan went to room 305 of the Wilson hotel, where they talked over the result with a few members of the local union. Later a general union meeting was held at which a report was rendered of the progress made to date.

Representing the striking linemen were President McNulty and Vice President Sullivan, both of whom were represented by Mr. Elmore at a previous and unsuccessful attempt to settle the difficulty existing here. With them were the members of the district council, who come from E. A. Seider of Butte, President Curry of Salt Lake, Mr. Fisher of Ogden, Whalen of Pocatello, and McMahon of Cheyenne.

AMUSEMENTS.

Theater—It was hardly to be expected that an attraction visiting us so long after the regular season had closed, in the heart of the summer, and especially one handicapped by such a name as "Well-Elegant Jones," would draw a large audience. The play, therefore, saw Ezra Kendall last night in his newest fun vehicle, and while the play generally was voted a very light vaudeville affair, there was no denying the worth of Mr. Kendall's personal reception, or the success of his individual characterization. The play is very palpably constructed for the purpose of providing an opportunity to indulge in his usual quaint, humorous soliloquies and repartees; in this it might almost be said to be a monologue, but in his speeches, and especially in the "monologue," which he was forced to deliver after one of the curtains, he was in his very best vein and the laughter and applause which he created were unbounded. The supporting company is made up of possible material, altogether the best work being the "Sleeper" Bundy of Mr. Hacking. The character is as clever in his way as Mr. Kendall's own. The final performance will be given this evening.

Orpheum—"The Private Secretary" one of Gillette's most hilarious successes, is running this week to well satisfied houses.

Lyric—The vaudeville bill at the Lyric is giving good satisfaction this week and good houses are in nightly attendance.
