

out the decline of the fever, the patient sinks into a condition of coma and dies at the end of 24 or 48 hours. If six days is reached, recovery is possible.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—A bill to disapprove the treaty heretofore made with the southern Ute Indians for their removal to Utah and providing for the settling of them on lands under the severalty act was passed by the House today.

GREAT FALLS, Mont., June 13.—Judge Benton, of the district court, has refused an injunction against interference with the sun dance by the governor and the sheriff on the ground that the petition asked protection against the Montana statute prohibiting Sabbath breaking. The managers of the dance will take an appeal to the supreme court today.

ST. JOSEPH, June 13.—The Missouri river continues cutting at Belmont Bend at Winthrop. Citizens of Winthrop are moving away from the banks. The railroad is at work protecting the tracks. The government has taken no steps to prevent the destruction of farms.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., June 13.—The burning of railroad bridges having failed to stop shipments of coal, notices signed "one thousand miners" have been sent to the engineers on the Kansas City, Memphis and Birmingham railroad warning them to quit hauling coal at the peril of their lives. This is regarded as a resort to intimidate the engineers into supporting the strikers. The committee announces the failure of the joint conference with the operators and they having called a monster meeting and demonstration to take place at Adamsville, Wednesday.

OMAHA, June 13.—Judge Dundy telegraphed United States Attorney General Olney this afternoon for troops to protect the Union Pacific railroad from the Carter commonwealers at Julesburg and Ogalla. The reply is expected every hour from Mr. Olney, notifying either Fort Omaha or Fort Russell troops out.

There is great excitement at Julesburg. There are fully 600 Coxeyites at Julesburg, who are part of the Carter army which formed in Utah and stole a train. They are desperate, for they cannot go to Denver, having been sent from there with a farewell lot of provisions to last them for "keeps." Forty of the army stole a Union Pacific stock train this morning and were sidetracked at Ogalla.

BISMARCK, N. D., June 13.—The Coxeyites succeeded in getting out of town on stolen handcars fitted up with platforms made of stolen lumber. The cars were found near Steele today, but the wealers had fled.

An army of 400 is being mobilized here and at Mandan. United States Deputy Marshal Daggett has arrived with a force of deputies, and trains are now being sent out under armed protection.

LOS ANGELES, June 13.—Judge Ross in the United States court today sentenced the seventy wealers who stole the train on the Atlantic & Pacific railroad at Barstow on June 6th, to four months in the county jail.

Judge Ross has received the following threatening letter: "You sentence one of the Industrial army to jail and you will get some dynamite. By order of K."

PORTLAND, Or., June 13.—A telephone message from The Dalles this morning states that almost the entire village of Grants, in Sherman county, has been swept away by the flood.

Only the elevator and a few buildings on the highlands remain. The distillery, owned by Goodell, Walker & Co., went out yesterday. Twelve men were in the building when it was carried off its foundations. All were saved, one man after the buildings were well out in the stream being rescued by boatmen, who saw him floating with the building.

Grants is a place of about 200 inhabitants, located on the Columbia river, and the Union Pacific railroad, 111 miles east of Portland.

SPOKANE, Wash., June 13.—Particulars of the Kaslo (B. C.) disaster reached here today. The property loss, it is thought, will reach $100,000. The Galena Trading company's store, Byers Hardware company's store, a floating warehouse, holding a great deal of merchandise; the government wharf, costing $8,000, and about seventy houses were swept away. The only life lost was that of Mrs. B. C. McGregor.

The storm came up between 4 and 5 o'clock. It was preceded by a number of hot waves, then came a terrific gale, which filled the air with debris, churned the lake into a mighty sea and blew buildings into the water. Meanwhile Kaslo river was dammed by a log jam, and scores of cabins along its banks were ruined.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 13.—All reports from the interior state that the Frazer and its branches are falling rapidly. At Langley the water has fallen ten inches. General Superintendent Abbott, of the Canadian Pacific, states that local traffic will be resumed on Friday.

SHANGHAI, June 13.—The government of Japan has sent large forces of troops to protect her interests in Korea. The king of Korea is reported to have fled to Japanese territory.

CHICAGO, June 13.—The mystery of the killing of Archibald McKillip, the street car conductor, has been cleared up. The slayer was C. F. Keatky, a traveling salesman, whose daughter McKillip is said to have wronged.

LEAFENWORTH, June 13.—Judge Thomas of the U. S. Circuit Court, today found captain John A. Ralston, Frank E. Woods and Ed Hart, the leaders of the Coxeyites who seized a Union Pacific train, guilty of contempt.

Judge Thomas sentenced the men to forty days in jail.

NEW YORK, June 14.—A morning paper prints a statement, based upon the testimony before the Lenox commission, showing that the illegitimate revenue of the police department annually amounts to $10,215,000, of which $8,120,000 comes from disorderly houses.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—By advice of his physician President Cleveland has about decided to take a short outing, going down Chesapeake bay. It is thought four or five days outing will restore his usual vigorous health. Captain Evans, of the light house tender Hubbard, will accompany him on the voyage.

KANSAS CITY, June 14.—There have been more desertions in the commonweal camp in the East bottoms, and out of 800 men who drew rations a week ago, not more than 150 are now in camp. Ex-Adjutant General Artz, of Kansas, is now in full command, "General" Bennett not having visited the camp since Monday. It is claimed he is in Topeka endeavoring to raise money. Artz rules with an iron hand and drums out of camp every soldier who gives the slightest evidence of insubordination. He says he has forty-six loyal men at least which he brought from Topeka, and he will go on to Washington with these if all the others get left.

TANGIERS, June 14.—It is reported that the chief princes who are likely to cause trouble have been removed from their command in the army. Some have been sent to distant provinces and others are imprisoned. In his political statement the late sultan directed that a council of regency be appointed until the young son, Abdul Aziz, the present sultan, attained his majority.

ADMORE, I. T., June 14.—The officials of the looted bank at Long View have identified the greater portion of the money which Mrs. Dalton had in her valise at the Wallace House as that stolen from them at the time of the robbery.

Dalton's remains are still here.

OMAHA, June 14.—Tom Payne last night confessed that he murdered Maud Rubelow, for whose death Dr. Brown is now held. Payne said he met the girl on the Sunday morning when she disappeared, took her to the room where her body was found and there struck her in the head. He claims she threatened to call the police. He left her in the room and returned in the evening and found her dead. He then robbed the body and, giving the booty to his colored mistress, left town. He was captured at Mystic, Iowa.

DOBBS FERRY, N. Y., June 14.—The foundation stone of the monument to mark the spot where Washington had his headquarters in 1783 was laid today by Chauncey M. Depew, president of the society of Sons of the Revolution. The principal addresses were by Vice President Stevenson and General Horace Porter. Secretary of the Navy Herbert was present.

NEW YORK, June 14.—A fire starting early today in the basement of a six-story building at Duane and Elm streets caused a loss of probably exceeding $300,000. The roof quickly fell in and the flames communicated to the Edison building, across the streets. Half the block between Pearl and Duane and West Elm street was totally destroyed within an hour. The neighborhood is known as the stationery and paper district.

DENVER, June 14.—The assets of H. B. Chamberlin, having a face value of $2,000,000, have been sold at auction for $100. The assets of the Chamberlin Investment company, shares and deeds, aggregating $6,000,000, are likewise worthless. Assignee Ellsworth has not a dollar to pay the proved claims of $2,000,000.

LONDON, June 14.—Lord Chief Justice Coleridge died today.

HANDERSON, Ky., June 14.—Kelly's army, numbering 1,200 landed just