

FRAGMENTS.

SUNDAY SERVICES at the Tabernacle, as usual, commencing at 2 p.m.

The Exposition for the latter part of July is out, full of good things.

What shall we do with our worms? Why not plant them? What shall we do with our burglars? Same thing.

A black mare has been stolen. A liberal reward is offered in another column, for the recovery of the animal or the discovery of the thief.

To-morrow evening Elder Thomas Harris will preach on "Iniquity," in the 12th Ward Assembly Hall, services commencing at 7 o'clock. -H. B. Clawson, Bishop.

The August number of Ontario and Wisconsin comes to hand as usual, brimful of breezy and exhilarating notes and illustrations of outdoor sports and travels.

DR. ELLIS D. FERGUSON has removed his office and residence from Second Street to South Temple street, three and a half blocks east of this office, south side of the street.

A BUTCHER boy's horse, with a basket of meat on his neck and his rider on his back, came to a halt on First and Main streets to-day, but was stopped before any harm was done.

DR. BENEDICT yesterday amputated the leg of John M. Johnson, who was run over by an engine near Kamas, on the U. & N. R.R., June 26th, and was afterwards brought to this city with a broken arm and leg.

From J. H. Parry we have Harper's Monthly for August, with contents of more than usual interest. Its leading articles are: "Some Work of the Associated Artists," "The Gateway of Boston," "Artist Strolls in Holland," an article of much local interest, by Ernest Ingersoll, on "Salt Lake City," with thirteen illustrations on wood, representing the city, with good portraits of the First Presidency and others.

LOCAL NEWS.

Gone to Ogden. - Presidents John Taylor, George Q. Cannon, and Joseph F. Smith went to Ogden this morning, to attend the Weber Stake Conference. Elder L. John Nuttall left for the same place this afternoon.

Write to Him. - William Archer, whose address is care of D. H. Saunders, Esq., 11 Panama Street, Dundee, Scotland, would like very much to hear from his son, David Archer, who is supposed to be in Utah, or some other place where this may reach him.

For Printers. - No. 10 of the Independent, an operative journal conducted by workmen, comes to hand bright, new and neat as ever. The artistic work is perfect, and enough to make a printer proud of his profession, while the articles are original, pungent and decided in tone. The trade, the devotee of the art preservative should have it regularly, if he wants to keep up with the times. H. Pembroke has it.

A Word of Warning. - Elias Morris, who holds the right by purchase, of laying down asphaltum or concrete pavements in Salt Lake City, wishes to give timely warning to persons who, he fears, are infringing upon his rights in this respect. He bought the privilege he holds of Mr. Bassett, who has it for the Territory from Nelson H. Downs, the patentee. Parties unauthorized should refrain from trespassing on these rights, thus avoiding ill feeling and financial trouble. Persons who employ such, are liable to double collections on the work done by them. Mr. Morris is prepared to fill all orders in that line on short notice. His place of business is at No. 13 W. South Temple street.

Home from Missions. - We had calls to-day from Elders Joseph H. Evans and William A. Hess, the former of this city and the latter of Farmington, both of whom have lately returned from missions. Brother Evans left here in the fall of 1882 and labored in the British Mission. He returned feeling well in mind and body much pleased with his experience abroad. Brother Hess, who is a son of Bishop John W. Hess, left home the 9th of last October and returned on the 11th inst. He labored in the East Tennessee Conference of the Southern States Mission. His health became poorer about April, probably caused by too much walking on a lame hip, which was hurt several years ago, and finally it necessitated his release. He enjoyed his spiritual labors, and would have been pleased to remain longer, had it been deemed wisdom for him to do so.

A Night prowler. - Friday morning about 3 o'clock, Miss Nettie Taylor, an adopted daughter of Sister Sophie Taylor, of the 14th Ward, happened to wake up, saw a man standing by her bedside. The room was rather dark, but the moonlight, she says, enabled her to clearly discern his figure, which was rather stout and stout. She cried out to her mother, who was in a room on the floor below, that there was a man in the house, but the lady in question endeavored to silence her by saying that she was mistaken, and in the meantime the fellow, if there really was one, decamped, gliding down the stairs noiselessly and walking out of the house into a hard kitchen and thence into the open air. Miss Nettie, feeling certain of what she had seen, got up and lit a lamp and woke up her brother, saying she had heard men talking on the north side of the house, but subsequent search failed to reveal anything further. About 8 o'clock Brother T. E. Taylor, of this office, passing by the house on his way up town, saw in the dusk of the sidewalk prints made by a man's feet, but whether they were made by the night prowler of a few hours before, is an open question.

PERSONAL.

Apostle George Tensdale and Elder John Q. Cannon are attending the Jubilee Stake Conference, which opened to-day and will continue to-morrow. George H. Leonard, business manager of Leonard and Cushman's Minstrel Comedy Company, is in the city making arrangements for his combination to appear at the Theatre, Thursday and Friday, July 24th and 25th. Col. D. C. Dodge, manager of the D. & G. Western Railway, arrived last night by special train. Miss Tessie Kimball has so far recovered from the injuries she received in Weber Canyon as to be able to walk out. Hon. John T. Calne is expected home on Monday evening from Washington. Judge Isaac Harrison, of Sandy, made a flying trip to the capital to-day and called in at the News office. In John M. Olson will call at this office he will learn something of his advantage.

THE TITHING OFFICE.

A WALK THROUGH THE ESTABLISHMENT - CHANGES AND IMPROVEMENTS BEING MADE.

A stroll through the Church Tithing Department reveals the interesting fact that Bishop Preston and his Councilors have been busily engaged, of late, in instituting and carrying forward various improvements in the internal economy of the establishment over which they preside, with a view to a more convenient and systematic method of handling the tithing which comes under their manipulation.

Most of the changes made are in the cellars at the rear, or east side of the building. In the dairy department, of which Brother John H. Nelson has immediate charge, and which occupies the two cellars situated south of the hatchway, the most notable alteration is a spacious door-way made in the west end of the wall between the two compartments, which renders communication more easy and thereby enhances the convenience which has hitherto existed only in part. The south cellar is the receiving room and the other the distributing room.

The first two cellars north of the hatchway will hereafter be devoted to vegetables and fruit, No. 1 for receiving, and No. 2 for dealing out those products. These, of course, communicate with the other, and are in charge of Brother James Fyfe. This department used to be at the extreme north end of the building. Next to these cellars are two more under the supervision of Brother John Lunn. The fact that he has the handling of the vinegar, must not be taken as any criterion of his disposition, but lest some one, not acquainted with the genial nature of the man, should infer as much, we hasten to add that he also manipulates the honey, molasses and other sweets and liquids of a similar kind. One of these rooms is for storage, while the other, besides being used for dealing out those commodities, contains facilities for making elder vinegar on the premises. All the windows of these cellars have been enlarged, thereby increasing the supply of light and fresh air for those who labor inside.

Brother David Hilton, besides superintending the barn, where he has an able assistant in John M. Lees, has charge of the slaughter-house, and meat department. The former is located about two-and-a-half miles south of the city, and the other occupying the frame addition on the northern extremity of the Tithing House proper. Brother Joseph McMurrin may also be seen at any time attending to his duties as charge of affairs of the team, feeding, etc. Nor must we forget in this nomenclature of watchmen Joseph W. McMurrin, nor the equally faithful attendant at the Immigrant House, Brother Niels Jensen.

Leaving the rear premises and coming back through the hatchway to the front, we step up the platform at the right and find ourselves in the flour and grain rooms, where Brother Joseph Keddington, with Brother George H. Hill as his assistant, attends to the legitimate wants of all comers. There are three rooms here, the flour room proper, the store room and another compartment where chopped feed is kept. Further northward is a harness and furniture room, an appendage to the merchandise department, which latter is located in the south half of the building, and entered by the centre one of three doors opening upon the platform at the west. The merchandise is in charge of Bro. James D. Edwards with Niels Rasmussen as his assistant.

The first door south of the hatchway still leads to the office of Bishop Isaac Brockbank, where his clerk, Elder Isaac Brockbank, and several assistants are to be found, and further on to the receiving and crediting office, where Brother John Kirkman sits smiling at his daily task. Our old-time friend, Brother Joseph C. Kingsbury, who has general supervision over all the above-named departments, under the direction of the Presiding Bishopric, may also be seen within, when his manifold duties have not called him elsewhere.

The office of the Presiding Bishopric, where Bishops Preston, Hardy and Burton, or their efficient clerk, Brother W. E. Bassett, are to be consulted, is still in the south end of the building, through the first door on the right after going up the steps from the south gate. And now we have, we have taken the reader right through the establishment, just as our reporter was chaperoned through this morning by Brother Kingsbury, when the only thing omitted was the ascent into the rooms of the upper story, which our representative was told are yet unused for the old-time purposes of miscellaneous storage.

Pioneer Day Excursion. - On Thursday, July 24th, the first excursion of the season from this city to Nephi, Juab County, will leave the Utah Central Depot; tickets also being sold at proportionate rates to Provo and Panguitch. The excursionists have the privilege of remaining four days on this regular ticket, one day longer than has been customary in the past, and as the first day is a holiday but two days away from business are required for a pleasant trip, quite an item for those who have but little time to spare. The residents of Utah and Juab Counties expect a good time, and will give the excursionists a cordial welcome. In Provo, every preparation has been made for a grand Pioneer Day celebration by the citizens, and an invitation is extended to and accepted by the neighboring settlements. The procession will march to the U. C. depot to meet the visitors, from whence all will proceed to the new Utah Stake Tabernacle, where appropriate commemorative Pioneer Day services will be held. In the afternoon a ball is announced for the Provo Sunday schools in the Z. C. M. I. hall, the largest dancing hall in the Territory, and in the evening a grand ball for the older ones; the proceeds will be devoted to the B. Y. Academy and the new Stake Tabernacle. These proceedings are intended to eclipse any celebration yet held in the capital of Utah County. At Nephi, also, there will be a Pioneer Day celebration, and the Sanpete Valley railroad train will connect with the U. C. train at Nephi, so that those who desire to go over into Sanpete County, or to have a cheap trip up the beautiful Salt Creek Cañon, may have the opportunity. American Fork and Provo cañons, too, offer attractions, with their magnificent scenery, delightful shade, convenient camping places, and the good fishing they afford. The Sixth Ward Silver Band will accompany the excursion as far as Provo, and take part in the celebration there.

Change of Field. - Elder Temple, who has been laboring in Texas as a missionary and whose health while there became quite poor, has proceeded to Colorado, and is now engaged as a missionary in the San Luis State. His health is gradually improving, he says a letter written from Mesa to Elder John Morgan.

Accidental Discharge. - A sharp report just outside the News office, this afternoon, started the editorial corps, who dropped their half-sheet proofs and rushed out to the sidewalk walk, expecting to see a dead or dying man lying in the dust, or being helped into the gate-way by the passers-by. But no, they simply saw Officer Holdaway replace a pistol which had accidentally worked out of his pocket and been discharged on the sidewalk, and then resume his seat in a wagon and leisurely ride away.

Meetings in Kayville. - The Quarterly Conference of the Relief Society of Davis Stake, was held yesterday at Kayville, Mrs. Mary A. Clark presiding. Besides the usual exercises and reading of minutes and reports which were all very good, the morning meeting was addressed by sisters E. W. Smith, Mary S. Clark and Bishop Barton. In the afternoon the speakers were Sisters Mary T. Richards, Aurelia S. Rogers, E. B. Wells, Bishop Barton, Sisters Sarah B. Layton and Mary A. Clark.

After the meeting the two Primary Associations of Kayville met in joint session, presided over by Mrs. Jane Wood and Mrs. A. McPherson. There were about a hundred children, and the order was almost perfect, the manner of conducting the meeting was highly commendable. The singing was excellent. The children were addressed by Sisters Rogers, Wells, Smith, Clark and Bishop Barton.

Two More Burglaries. - Last night burglars entered the boarding house of Mrs. Louisa Decker, a little west of the 15th Ward Co-op, and got away with $10 in cash and gold watches. A man was seen in the house by one of the inmates, who supposing him to be a boarder, did not take any alarm.

The house of William Peterson, butcher, next door to Decker's, was also gone through by the marauders, but though desks were broken open and things upset in general, we have not been able to find out the amount and kind of property missing. The Petersons live in a small home, and the robbery was not discovered till this morning, when the people who have charge of the place in their absence entered the house as usual to see if everything was all right.

This burglar boom is getting to be a serious matter. The police no doubt are doing all they can to put an end to it, but the gang that infests the city, and they certainly have the earnest wishes for their success of all classes except the depredators themselves.

Leon and Cushman's Minstrels. - The Denver News says of this troupe, which will play at the Theatre on the 24th and 25th inst.

The most pleasing and amusing entertainment of the kind ever presented in Denver, was presented by Leon and Cushman's minstrel comedy company at the Academy last evening. There was a delightful lack of the time-worn and threadbare features of the "comic" minstrel performance. There was no semi-circle of bad singers and worse jokers, no pyramid of tiresome drummers and still tiresome talkers, and there was no closing piece.

Many well known numbers were presented, but there was a freshness in their performance that more than half redeemed their age. The opening part, "Hill-Fed Dore," a take-off on the play of "Fecora," was exceedingly funny. Leon justified his well-earned popularity as a female impersonator, and Cushman was his old self and thoroughly excellent.

Every number was finely filled. The singing was very good, and there was an abundance of life and merriment from first to last. The enthusiastic applause of the audience knew no bounds and the burlesque band all gave up at the close of the evening. The applause of the audience was the largest which had attended the Academy since it passed under control of the present management, and it is quite certain that the audience will grow larger from night to night. The bill will be repeated this evening.

A Scared Chinaman. - A well-dressed Chinaman, with face as pale as the linen duster he wore, rushed breathlessly into the police office last evening and made affidavit against a countryman of his, living in Plum Alley, off Commercial street, who he had drawn a knife on him and he had fled in haste to save himself from being converted into shoe-strings. On being questioned as to the provocation of the assault, he said he had lately come from Tintic and was standing in the alley, when his belligerent brother celestial approached and asked him for $2.50, which he said he owed him for mending his boots, some fifteen years ago. The Tintic Antonio denied the debt, whereupon the Plum Alley Skylock drew a knife and started for his "pound of flesh."

The affiant stated that he would not have run from him, alone, but there were others in the room who appeared to be supporters of his angry assailant, and so he hit out for the City Hall. The police at once proceeded to the scene of the alleged disturbance, but were unsuccessful in getting wind of the would-be carver of his kind. From other Mongolian residents of the neighborhood, however, the officers learned that the Tintic Chinaman "had been," that he was from Denver before he went to Tintic, and that the debt of $2.50, of fifteen years standing, was an actual fact.

The Confidence Sharp. - Several allusions have been made in this paper of late, to a certain individual who is going the rounds calling at private houses or accosting people on the street, endeavoring to wheedle those he meets out of a few dollars on pretenses as various as the colors of the rainbow. One of his guises is to call at residents in the suburbs of the city, introduce himself to the wife as an old friend of her husband, and after going through all the symptoms of embarrassment at being refused, request the loan of a few dollars on some time checks, for a few days, until he is able to cash his paper and reimburse the lender. He has tried this dodge in several places, in some instances with success, while in others the women folks have been too shrewd for him, telling him to call at the office where the man of the house is at work, or at his home some time when he is in. Another guise of this fellow is to assume a name, on the street, having previously learned his name and other facts concerning him, and addressing him familiarly as "Jim," or "Bill," or "Tom," as the case may be, pretend an old acquaintance with him, refer to school-boy episodes and incidents, and wind up by asking the loan of two or three dollars "till the money pays off," or his money arrives from the "East," or some other direction. This young sharper, who seldom fails to convince people that he knows them, from the intimate acquaintance he manages to pick up regarding their private affairs, has doubtless secured numerous individuals who have not the temerity or good judgment to resist his plausible appeals. He should be gathered in by the police and made to use his muscles, in lieu of his wits, a little while for a livelihood.

"Is Life Worth Living?" - An orphan of seven years, who accompanied his mother and the rest of the "bairns" to the Lake, yesterday, caught a glimpse of the "diamond-dipped blemish," while in bathing. "Well, ye tote me to put my head under!" "Ye keep a tellin' me to douse in all over!" he yelled between his gasps, as he emerged from the briny waters and staggered up the beach with blistered throat and blood-shot eyes. The same youngster was seen, later in the day, steadily to-toting towards the family lunch-basket, and after looking carefully around, and chuckling in an undertone to himself: "Oh, is these ours?" dived elbow deep into a paper bag labelled "E. Scrance, confectioners," and pull forth his big brother's bathing suit. The light has gone out of that young life.

AN OLD PIONEER.

Time tries all things, and the Oyster Grotto established and running since 1871, has always been in the lead when anything has occurred in wedding, anniversary and party lines in this city. I am now prepared with best facilities in Utah Territory. The largest assortment of plain and fancy cakes, ice cream, water ices, Roman punch, tutti fruit, etc., and everything in the cake and confectionery line. Having secured the services of an able confectioner and baker I can furnish the best variety of plain and fancy cakes in the city. Church festivities and parties supplied on reasonable terms. Having hundreds of tons of ice kept up I can compete with any opposition. The finest ice cream parlor in Salt Lake. The Oyster Grotto is acknowledged by experts to be the best in the city, the syrup being pure and good. Orders for delivery at any hour of the day or night by telephone or otherwise will be promptly attended to. GEO. ARNOBAST. 45 First South St.

P. V. Goehls, Druggist, of Louisville, Kansas, says: "I have sold 'Prickly Ash Bitters' for five years, and have never handled a medicine which gave more universal satisfaction. It has become the family medicine of this section. I have warranted dozens of bottles and never had one returned."

FERNET-BRANCA.

Brown's Sarsaparilla and Danadion, with Iodine of Potassium, removes all impurities of the blood. It corrects the torpid condition of the Liver, and removes all obstructions of the Kidneys.

Cures Scrofula, Tumors, Skin Eruptions, Ulcers, Rheumatism, Cancer, Boils, Constipation, Erysipelas, Stomachic, Salt Rheum, etc.

The formula of Brown's Sarsaparilla is printed on every bottle. Physicians endorse this great blood purifier. Every druggist in the State sells it, and recommends it. Price 50¢ per bottle, or six for $3. Manufactured only by the Brown Medicine and Manufacturing Co., Leavenworth, Kansas.

Geo. Dunford, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Gent's Furnishing Goods. Best goods, bottom prices. GEO. DUNFORD.

Imitations and Substitutes of Horsford's Acid Phosphate, that are dangerous to health, are in the market. Beware of all "Horsford's" and take no other.

In one week Ely's Cream Balm opened one nostril through which I had not breathed in years, subdued an inflammation of the eye, and cured the result of Catarrh. - Col. O. M. Nelly, Oswego, N. Y.

Ayer's Pills possess the positive virtue of some of the best having medicinal plans, prepared and combined with a scientific skill, rejecting the crude and drastic purgatives, and retaining only the active principle - that part which cures and does not harm. If you are sick try them.

Lead Poison in Physicians. There are innumerable instances where cures have been effected by Scrofula Sarsaparilla, or Blood Purifier. It has been given for the blood, which they had been given for, by their physicians. It is one of the best remedies for the blood, and as it is prepared with the greatest care, as a specific for certain diseases, it is no wonder that it should be more effectual than hastily written and carelessly prepared prescriptions. Take this medicine for all disorders arising from impure blood, and be assured of leading a long and healthy life.

HORSFORD'S ACID PHOSPHATE. A Valuable Remedy For Gravel. Dr. T. H. Newland, Jr., St. Louis, Mo., says: "I have used it for years in the urinary organs, such as gravel, and secondary spermatorrhea, with very good results. It is a very valuable remedy in those diseases."

WALKER BROTHERS!
BAKING POWDERS CONTAINING LIME.
Why "Royal" is Absolutely Pure.

Analysis shows the presence of Tartrate of Lime in several brands of Baking Powder placed upon the market:
 "PRICE'S" Baking Powder contains Tartrate of Lime.
 "PEARL" Baking Powder contains Tartrate of Lime.
 "GROFF'S SNOW FLAKE" Baking Powder, contains Tartrate of Lime.
 "DE LAND'S" Baking Powder, contains Tartrate of Lime.
 All BULK Baking Powders contain Tartrate of Lime.
 The presence of this substance in the above-named Baking Powders results from the use of inferior Cream of Tartar in their manufacture. The Cream of Tartar of the market, from which they are made, contains Tartrate of Lime in amounts varying from six to ten per cent, and hence these powders contain this impurity, as a foreign substance to a corresponding extent, which is of no value, but a positive detriment in any powder in which it is found.
 The Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar specially refined and prepared for its use by patent processes by which the tartrate of lime is totally eliminated. This highly important result has been attained only with great care, labor, and expense. In money alone a quarter of a million dollars has been invested in patents, machinery and appliances by which the crude cream of tartar, being procured from the wine districts of Europe and subjected in this country to these exclusive processes, is rendered entirely free, not only from the objectionable tartrate of lime, but from other foreign substances. This adds greatly to the cost of manufacturing Royal Baking Powder; but, as all its other ingredients are selected and prepared with the same precise care, and regardless of labor and expense, an article is produced that is entirely free from any extraneous substance, and absolutely pure in all respects. No lime, earth, alum, or impurity of any kind can, by inadvertence or by the use of adulterated articles or otherwise, be introduced into the "Royal," and it contains no ingredients except those certified by the most eminent chemists necessary to make a pure, wholesome, and perfect baking powder.
 It costs more to manufacture the Royal Baking Powder than any other, but it is, as shown by chemical analysis, the only "absolutely pure" baking powder made.
