votes cast, Atlantic City had received 307 cast for St. Louis. A member of the Missouri delegation moved to make the vote unanimous for Atlantic City, and it was so carried. It was the solid east against the Bold middle west, with the far west and the south more or less divided. Illinois split its vote, giving only a slight majority to her sister state, Missorui, in its contest for the en-campment. New York cast 53 votes for Atlantic City and one for St. Louis, Pennsylvania. New Jersev and the Pennsylvania, New Jersey and the New England states all cast practical-ly their solid vote for Atlantic City, while Missouri, Kansas, Indiana and the states of the middle west were practically a unit for the Missourl metropolis.

ST. LOUIS' CAMPAIGN.

Col. A. G. Peterson, who conducted the campaign for St. Louis, said after the meeting this morning: "St Louis conducted her campaign in a perfectly straightforward and honest manner. We made no trades, no dickers and no bids for support that were not honor-able. We were defeated, but we feel that gaz rule was invoked against able. Salt Lake Women Spite Themselves -National Woman's Relief Corps Elects New Officers.

The squabble between the Women's corps of Salt Lake City lost to the local people the office of senior vice president of the National Women's Relief For some time the local orcorps. ganizations have been at swords' points, each determined that its candidate should be named and voted for. As has been the rule in the past, although it is by no means imperative, the senio vice presidency has gone to the candi date presented from the state in which the convention was held. For that reason Sait Lake was due to receive the honor, but the trouble arose as to which should be recognized of the two organizations.

COMPROMISE CANDIDATE.

Mrs. Belle Brooks of Salt Lake City and Mrs. Jennie L. Jones of the same place were both candidates for the of-fice of senior vice president, and today's entire morning session of the oranization at the First Presbyterian church was taken up with the election. As a result of the trouble Mrs. Fannie W. D. Harden of Denver was elected. Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Jones were also candidates for the office of junior vice president. This election resulted in a victory for the latter. The balloting for the two candidates occupied the enthe morning session. The election was finished late this af-ternoon and the work of the organi-zation was finished for another year.

YESTERDAY'S ELECTION.

Acting under the instructions of Col Sterrett, Miss Van Cott and the citl-zens on the committee with her pre-pared coffee and refreshments for the 10,000 people it is believed would take part in the parade. When the hundreds of gallons of coffee and thousands of sandwiches were prepared it was found that there was no means of delivering them. Miss Van Cott was unable to find any means of delivering the re-freshments to the stands. In vain she called on Fisher Harris, J. S. Bransford and others, but was informed that Col. Sterrett was in charge. Col. Ster-rett declared that not one cent had been appropriated for this work. He could lo nothing.

"If it had not been for the generosity of Littleton Price, Joseph Geoghegan, C. W. Nibley and a number of others I would never have been able to send the refreshments to the booths." de-clared Miss Van Cott this morning. "When all Utah responded in a manner that made every one who took part enthat made every one who took part enthusiastic, it was as little as could be done to furnish the means of transpor-tation of the material to various booths.

"There are three big milk cans here filled with coffee that could not be de-livered. I went out to the Freemont school and found that sandwiches were absolutely needed there and I had to beg all day to get transportation for supplies.

"After working all day I was able late Wednesday night to get several men to carry a number of the things we had on hand to the orphanage. Col. Sterrett overestimated things and then we received nothing to cary out the planes with " the plans with."

DEFENSE LEAGUE TO AID ALLEGED REVOLUTIONISTS

Chicago, Aug. 13 .- The Political Refugee Defense league with headquarters here is preparing to assist Joseph J. Rangel and Thomas Sarabia, arrested in San Antonio on a charge of seeking to incite a revolution in Mexico and to-day instructed its general counsel, Atty. Charles H. Soelke, to proceed to Texas and combat extradition papers.

The league has already interested it-self in the defense of Antonio De Arau-jo and others, who were arrested some months ago on a similar charge and has appealed the cases to the federal circuit court. "The league fears that extradition would mean certain death for the ac-cused," said Atty. Soelke, "if the men are tried in the United States where the alleged offenses occurred they at least will have a fair trial and the pun-ishment in any event would not be the extreme penalty."
