One hour after an "old master" had painted the name of a patent medicine on a big rock a cow came not denied by any one but sophists and mountains, but talk never will accomplish this desirable result. It says the paraders along, licked it off, and died before sundown. When the simple name of a medicine kills a cow, human beings want to beware of the stuff itself. A cow was never killed by licking the name of a patent medicine in a newspaper, and no other kind can be recommended.

The Field of Political War.

CINCINNATI, 12.-The political campaign closed last night without any public meetings or parades, and the city is usually quiet. The com-mittees and candidate, of both par-ties have been very busy during the lay. Everything indicates a large vote. The canvass has been managed and regarded more like a national than a State election, and the State candidates and even the local candidates, except congressmen, are not at all prominently brought for- are high spirited animals, took ward.
