LOCAL ITEMS.

THEATRICAL.—This evening Mr. Caine receives his Benefit. The entertainment exceeds anything offered during the season. Every person should be seated before the hour for the performance to commence.

LEAP YEAR IN THE SOUTH.—"Away down south in Dixie"—our "Dixie," though, they are enjoying the delights of Leap Year and the privilege which it confers upon the ladies. A correspondent from Rockville, Kane Co., tells us—quite confidentially of course—of a polite invitation he received from a provokingly fascinating young lady to be her partner at a Leap Year ball, and how he went, and enjoyed himself, and what a good time they had; and that the profits were handed to the Bishop to aid the coming season's emigration, all of which we take pleasure in duly chronicling.

LISLE LESTER.—This lady will read "Mande Muller," a beautiful poem, this evening, at Mr.
Caine's Benefit.

ANOTHER COMPLIMENTARY.—Some of the "responsible's" bachelor friends are humorous gents. Reading the correspondence on Mr.
Caine's Benefit, they very blandly informed him that they named Tuesday evening as the most suitable time for accepting a "Complimentary" and escorting fascinating, female friends, of a matrimonial age, to the Theatre. But the funny fellows got caught, for their "acceptance" was accepted, and, in honor bound, they will blushingly peregrinate to our Temple of The-sps, this evening, encouraged by the presence and sustained by the support of their lovely partners. Go it, boys; when you try it a few times you will get used to it, and be sure to like it.

FROM ENGLAND.—We have been favored with a letter from Elder Franklin D. Richards, to President B. Young, dated Liverpool, Feb. 8th, from which we extract the following:

Since the Conference at Birmingham, on the 26th of last month, the papers have been giving us a general round of notices, as you may observe from reading Public Opinion of Feb. 1st. I have just received a line from Bro. Kent G.
Maeser, who is in Saxony. He says the papers there have translated and published the report of the Conference, taken from the Birmingham papers, and give particular notice of the remark that you are the greatest philanthropist of mankind living on the earth. He says there are some twenty-five or thirty ready for baptism there, some of whom expect to go to America when he does.

The joy of the Saints in England is greatly increasing, and they and the Elders are praying continually that ways may open whereby you may effect the necessary changes of property into cash, so that all may be accomplished that is desirable. The American Elders are generally well, so far as I know.

A UNITED STATE.—The Cheyenne Argus says:—

An exchange suggests that when Utah is admitted into the Union it should be called the State of Matrimony.

Well, is it not a happy state? and a united state? and an honorable state? Better than that to assume the rights and privileges of the Matrimonial State, without being legally admitted; eh?

ARRIVED AT PROVO.—By telegram from President B. Young at Provo, we learn that President H. C. Kimball arrived there at 5 o'clock p.m. He was well with the exception of a slight cold. Also that Elder George A. Smith arrived there in good health at 11:30 a.m., today. All were well.

GARDENING has commenced in the city, the fine weather and drying wind of yesterday and to-day having made the ground fit for working in. If there are no frosts to kill tender vegetation, we will likely have abundance of garden products very early this season.

EXTEND IT.—We notice that Pres. B. Young and Pres. D. H. Wells have had the side walk for half a block south of Pres. Wells' corner, well graded and a thick coating of sand and gravel laid on. If this improvement were extended for several blocks down East Temple St., on both sides, pedestrians in general and lady pedestrians in particular would appreciate it in wet and sloppy weather.

COMMENCING.—The anticipated travel through this city for the Sweetwater region, which has been expected this Spring, is fairly commencing, judging by the number of strangers in town, and the business being done by establishments engaged in the outfitting business.

IMITATING a person learning to skate is the first part of the act on parlor skates by Mr. St.
Ledger, at the Theatre to-night.

TENTH WARD LECTURES.—Elder Ashman will lecture to-morrow evening on "Phrenology and Astronomy," and Elder Phillips on "Battles in the Sierra," in the 10th Ward School House.
Elder Fuller delivered an interesting lecture in the same place on last Wednesday night, on "The Races of Man."

SEVENTH WARD LECTURES.—To-morrow evening Elder Joseph Woodmansee will lecture on "The Valley of the Mississippi," and Elder J.
W. Silver on "Mechanics," in the 13th Ward Assembly Room, commencing at 7 o'clock.

THE BENEFIT.—The Benefit this evening will be a great success. The bill is so very lengthy and of great variety, that it is requested there will be no encore demanded, for there will be no time to give them.
