BEAT TO ARREST.

Before Judge Bishop yesterday, Robert Smith, charged with the murder of a woman named Elizabeth Chesley, the 15-year-old daughter of a local farmer, was arraigned and pleaded guilty. MURDER CASE DEFERRED.

The case of Frank R. Mitchell, ex-convict, charged with assault with a deadly weapon with intent to murder upon a woman named Van Hook, came on for hearing in the afternoon. Both have very damaging testimony and the case was set for the 25th inst. when the jury will be sworn in. The Van Hook woman contradicted the statements made by the Mitchell witness in such a manner that Attorney Macmillan moved the case be continued on the ground of conflict of evidence to justify the defendant being held in the grand jury.
