

DESERET EVENING NEWS.

TRUTH AND LIBERTY.

VOL. VII NOVEMBER 20, 1873.

SALT LAKE CITY, UTAH TERRITORY, WEDNESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 17, 1873.

BY TELEGRAPH.

SPECIAL TO THE "DESERET NEWS," PER
DESERET AND ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC TELEGRAPH LINES.

Last Night's Dispatches.

EASTERN.

Sacile.

CHICAGO, 16.—There was considerable excitement in the city yesterday morning which was caused by the sudden arrival of a man named D. Chapman, forty-five years old, residing at River Park, and a tenant of one of the houses of trade. He was in the flesh room of the hotel where he had shot, and died in half an hour afterwards. It is not known definitely why he committed the act, but as it is certain that he was a man, a morning telegram advised proportions of the authorities that he had been the victim of a successful attempt on his own life was consequent upon the financial troubles resulting from a series of misfortunes in speculations. He leaves a wife and three children.

Mastodon Skeleton Discovered.

RICHMOND, Ind., 16.—An mastodon skeleton has been discovered within a few miles of this city. About a quarter of the bones were excavated, while, according to the authorities, still exists. The animal, indicate this one to have been very large, probably seven feet high and thirty-five feet long. One bone is twelve feet long, and weighs a hundred and fifty pounds. They hope to get the entire skeleton.

Balloon Inflated.

KINGSTON, N.Y., 16.—Professor King has succeeded in inflating his monstrosal balloon at Buffalo, and will make a trial flight about 10 A.M. A splendid breeze is blowing and everything favorable for a safe and pleasant trip to the party.

Serious R.R. Accident.

Detroit, 16.—An excursion train from Detroit west over the Detroit and Milwaukee road, was derailed near Howell last night. Mr. Beaman of Williamson, and Calvin Winchell, of Lansing, were killed, and several seriously injured, among whom were, Bell Watson, Mrs. New York, Mr. Burdette, of Royal Oak, the mail agent Daniel Burlingame, of Ann Arbor, Col. Mathews, Postmaster of Bryan, Mrs. Aronhauser, of Allegate, of Berlin, besides others, who are generally anti-slavery issues, also on the cheaper transportation question.

Committed for Trial.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., 16.—A special to the "Deseret News," from Fort Garry, says that Gordon, who fled from Fort Garry for the Rocky Mountains two weeks ago, has been captured 500 miles away in Manitoba detective, and his lordship now finds himself behind the bars in Winnipeg. A special term of the Court of Queen's Bench was adjourned yesterday for the trial of the American prisoners, who are charged with the abduction of Gordon. The judge, in his charge to the grand jury, dwelt mainly on the同情 case, and was very frank and direct in his reasoning, not precluding it. The jury then retired, and the court adjourned. Bill Hill, who was prominent in the half-breed rebellion, has arrived here, having been a witness. He is said to be guarded by half breeds, well armed, and bloodied if expected if he enters the town. The Canadian brand him as murderer, having caused the death of Thos. Scott, who say it is a disgrace to have him appear in court as a witness. Some parties have a notion to shoot him on sight.

Big Fire.

BOSTON, N.Y., 16.—The very stable and solid house of Mr. Koenig, John Doernberg, McMullen, and Jones, Thompson & Sons' park-packing establishment was all destroyed by fire early this morning; the loss exceeds $50,000.

To be arrested as Vagrants.

PHILADELPHIA, 16.—Orders have come, commanding the police to arrest all vagrants, all boys in the streets found playing on musical instruments.

The American Bible Society.

From a report just issued, it appears that the American Bible Society consists of 2,123 life directors and 12,000 life members. The receipts of the society were $1,000,000, of which $18,500 remain unexpended. During the 57 years of its existence it has published 29,982,212 volumes in thirty-five dialects and languages.

Horticulturists and Fruit Growers.

The horticulturists and fruit growers from all provinces have called at the Pennsylvania Horticultural Society, by request of the executive committee of the Centennial Commission, and will meet at the Horticultural Hall to-morrow to consider and advise to the best plans for the preparation and management of the horticultural department of the Centennial Exposition, and to organize a horticultural society for centennial purposes.

Memorial to W. H. Seward.

New York, 16.—A committee appointed to complete the arrangements for the interment of Wm. H. Seward, in the memory of Wm. H. Seward, has recently entered into a contract with Rudolph Rogers, of Rome, Italy, in accordance with which he furnished a large marble sarcophagus, a little less than a handspan in size, to be mounted on a square pedestal, with base of solid granite. It is to be shipped to this country in a suitable spot, at an expense of $650. The subscription list for this undertaking is now nearly full.

Strewn Murder Cases for Trial.

Strewn murder cases come up for trial in the Court of Oyer and Terrier to-morrow.

Cause of Failure.

It is now ascertained that the failure of Koenig, Cox & Co. to draw of their stock with the famous north-western corner.

The Chief Justice.

The Herald, editorially, strongly urges the immediate appointment of a Chief Justice, and states that frauds have already existed too long, and that any further postpone- ment can only be meant to await the arrival of the State election, so as to give the new chief justice time to make up for the termination of Sturges. It says that the highest office in the government must be filled without delay, and that all efforts should be made to secure the appointment.

The Big Fire at Havana.

A letter from Havana, Cuba, giving the details of the great fire there, and of the Cuban market, on the Plaza Del Vapor, and extensive building of masonry, forms a square with about 600 feet front on each side, and is seven stories high. It was built in 1857 for general market purposes. An immer court was built with both a wood shed and other buildings were occupied by stores and butchers were on the lower floor. The four sides of the building contained a variety of stores and stores of various kinds. The upper stories live in the families of those who had their business and calling in the shops and stands.

OFFICIAL DIRECTORY.

United States Officers for Utah.

Governor—George L. Woods.

Secretary—George A. Black.

Chief Justice—J. B. McLean.

Justices—Jacob S. Bereman.

Mr. Phillip H. Brooks, of Mich.

Marshal—M. T. Patrick.

U. S. Attorney—William Carey.

Surveyor-General—C. C. Clements.

Receiver of Public Money—J. B. Overton.

Car. Vogt, F. Gardner, South American News.

The counsel for Carl Vogt, the alleged Belgian murderer, to-day, obtained a writ of habeas corpus, requiring the city marshal to show cause why he should not be discharged from custody.

The San Francisco gadea gave a highly creditable exhibition in this hall yesterday, before about 6,000 spectators present, including Mayor Havemeyer, who reviewed the cadets.

The following South American news was received, Sept. 10th. No changes has taken place in political matters since the second instant. The same state oflessness, disquietude and uncertainty of the authorities still exists. The violence has occurred since the shooting of Col. Urquiza and Senior Her. Most nearly every place is disturbed by the intended attack, by negroes, all of whom are opposed to the existing government. The general impression prevails that a change is only a question of a few weeks. The present rulers are evidently too weak to sustain themselves.

Hon. M. T. Patrick, minister of the Interior, returned to his steamer, on the 31st.

Mr. Turner, chief engineer of the Panama R. R., is laying at the point of death, and he is not expected to survive from day to day.

Appeal to the Oranges and the Peaches.

San Louis, 16.—The Texas editor arrived from Chicago this morning, and were escorted to the Southern Hotel. They are now enjoying a steam excursion on the river.

General Wood, in a speech at the opening of the Exposition at Kansas City, yesterday, appealed to the grangers to maintain their unity and harmony, and asked the people to unite upon the general anti-slavery issues, also on the cheaper transportation question.

Committed for Trial.

A Yankton dispatch says Wintermute, the murderer of General McCook, was brought up to day for examination, which he waived, and was remanded to the county jail, to await his trial at the October term of the U. S. Court, at which Judge Barnes will preside.

The Gordon Abduction Case.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., 16.—A special to the "Deseret News," from Fort Garry, says that Gordon, who fled from Fort Garry for the Rocky Mountains two weeks ago, has been captured 500 miles away in Manitoba detective, and his lordship now finds himself behind the bars in Winnipeg. A special term of the Court of Queen's Bench was adjourned yesterday for the trial of the American prisoners, who are charged with the abduction of Gordon. The judge, in his charge to the grand jury, dwelt mainly on the同情 case, and was very frank and direct in his reasoning, not precluding it. The jury then retired, and the court adjourned. Bill Hill, who was prominent in the half-breed rebellion, has arrived here, having been a witness. He is said to be guarded by half breeds, well armed, and bloodied if expected if he enters the town. The Canadian brand him as murderer, having caused the death of Thos. Scott, who say it is a disgrace to have him appear in court as a witness. Some parties have a notion to shoot him on sight.

Lost at Sea.

PORTSMOUTH, N.H., 16.—News is received of the total loss of the schooner "Edorado," with all hands. The crew consisted of six men, all of Kittery, Maine.

Arrivals and Departures of Mail.

ARRIVAL.

East—Through mail, daily.

Local—Ogden, Echo City,

Wasatch and Morgan Counties, daily.

West—Jordan and Herrman, Thursday, daily.

Local—West Jordan and Her