George W, Lattig, a successful busi-ness man of Anita, Iowa, was visiting with Salt Laks friends yesterday. Mr. Lattig has become guite enamored of Salt Lake, and may conclude to in-terest himself here. He is now on his way to Payette, Idaho, where he has real astric busiests. real estate interests.

The funeral of little six-year-old Irving Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Wallace, took place at the family home, 251 west North Temple street. yesterday afternoon, Consoling remarks were made by Dr. James E. Talmage and Nephi T. Schofield. The remains were laid away in the City cemetery.

The board of medical examiners met the city and county building today. There were nine applicants present for examination, one in medicine gery, and eight in obstetrics. Examina-tions were in progress all day and will last until tomorraw evening, when the board will issue certificates to the successful applicants.

Special exercises were given in the Second ward Sunday school yesterday morning, in honor of Elder Robert H. Siddoway, who departs for Colorado in a few days, where he will labor as a missionary. Elder Siddoway is one of missionary. Elder Siddoway is one of the counselors in the school superintendency, and the warm feelings that are entertained for him by the members of the school, from the superintendency down to the primary department, were manifested in presenting him a com-plete set of the Church works, elegantly bound. The Primary children gave him a handsome gold fountain pen. A happy speech accompanied each gift.

Olof Hoggen, a laborer residing at No. 459 Hazel court, was severely hurt yesterday while lifting a weighty show case on Second South. Hoggen lost his balance under the great weight, and he was forced to the floor, at the same time excerting himself to maintain his footing. On trying to get up, he was selzed with a sharp pain, and with a deep groan he sank back unconscious. He soon recovered consciousness, how-ever, and an effort was made to raise him to his feet, but he again swooned. McKenna was called and soon re vived the unfortunate man, and had him sent home on a stretcher. While Hoggen received serious injury, the doctor does not despair of his recov-

affect the interests of every man in the live stock business. The Utah Live Stock association ought to be a member of the National association in order that Utah cattle, sheep, horse and swine owners can have a voice in the next convention and a voite on the questions which will be decided, and the stockmen of the State ought to be banded together this year anyhow, for this reason as well as to receive and property entertain all delegates to the national convention. Salt Lake expects to distinguish her-self and the State by her reception of self and the State by her reception of these visitors and the quality of enterthese visitors and the quarity of enter-tainment she will provide for them and every stockman in Utah ought to have pride enough in the matter to commend this laudable design. The next annual meeting of the Utah Live Stock association will be held in the Council chamber at the dity hall there it the stock as most the Wool

It has also been arranged to perfect some organization on the 5th for the enter-tainment of the national convention and to aid in the accomplishment of this the Wool Growers' association in-vites all members of this association and to attern schemerally to attend their and citizens generally to attend their meeting. A large attendance of stock-men upon both meetings is cornestly desired. JOHN H. WHITE, President.

GROSS WOMAN HELD.

Hearing Before Judge Timmony Behind Closed Doors This Morning.

Mary Gross, the woman accused of trying to induce Alice Jensen, a 17 year old girl, to lead an immoral life, had a preliminary before Judge Timpeur at the argointed time but the case was proceeded with just the same. The evidence was such that the court decided to have the hearing behind closed doors. The hearing resulted in the woman being held to the district court, and her bonds were fixed at 5500 in default of which she was locked up in the county just.

An hour after the fire started a big skylight fell in with a crash and then the smoke broke out in clouds. Ten-ants by this time thought that the building was doomed and began to car-ry out what effects they could reach.

Even those on the lower floors began to move, the Herald people making preparations to take out their files of the paper for safety and to gather up their valuable records and cuts. A few weeks ago the large light-well in the center of the building was plastered up, preventing a draught in case of Fireman Angell met with a narrow scape while standing on the six is anding of the fire escape, howing the base. A big block and tackle, used to basist safes and attached to a wood and bolst safes and attached to a wood and iron plank, weighing 500 pounds, ex-tending out over the roof, gave way and came falling down to the narrow platform upon which he was standing. It struck Angell on the shoulder an 1 graved Fireman Gulbransen's check, but the former was in such a position that the failing debris caught him and jammed him against the suiside rail, the failure of which would mean a fail of 150 feet and instant death. The crowd thought he would fail, and some crowd thought he would fall, and some men turned sick at the sight. There were shudders and groans, but the plucky freman held on and was rescued from his perilous position shortly af-terward. Neither Angell or Gulbran-sen ware seriously hurt.

RELIEF SOCIETY MEETING.

Officers Meet and Report Encouraging Progress in All the Wards.

The first officers meeting of the Relief society, of the Salt Lake Stake, was held on Saturday at 2 p. m. in the Fourteenth ward assembly hall. All but one of the twenty-nineswards now comprising the Salt Lake Stake were represented. The presidents of wards from the first to the eighteenth, in-chailve, gave reports but on account of lack of time the other wards were not called upon at this meeting, but will be expected to report later. The reports given were chouraging as were also the remarks and instructions of also the remarks and Instructions of President Horne. It is expected that much good will result from these meet-ings, which are to be held monthly hereafter, on the last Saturday of each , as ideas are exchanged and of interest and the best means of increasing the attendance and good work of these valuable societies are considered.
