ARRIVAL OF SMIGRATION.

THE steamship Minnesota, of the departure of which from Liverpoil, on the soth June, we were advised some time ago, arrived at New York, yerterday, as we learn by our dispatches of shis morning. Her passengers will deubtless be at the terminus within two weeks Their names have not yet reached this city. There were 400 statite adults sailed on board of her. No intelligence has yet reached here respecting the John Bright, the first ship which sailed from Liverpool. We will probably hear of her arrival within a week. As we understand it, the Minn sola has brought the last of the emigration.

MEXICO.

ALMOST every batch of teligrams received either from east or west contains brief accounts of wers and revolutions in Mexico, and the other republics of South America. It does seem as if they are troubled with Shronic revolution, of an irremediable and fatal character. In Mexico, Chili, Peru, Paraguay; in the West Indies-St. Domingo and Hayti, and in nearly all the ancient colonies of Spain, where the popucient colonies of Spain, where the popu-lation is a mixture of Spanish, Indian that the expense shall not exceed a and negro blood, this state of anarchy, bloodshed, rapine and lawle sness, prevails almost uninterruptedly. It is also a fact that in most of these ild Spanish colonies Nature's greatest efforts seem to have been put forth, as in climate, soil, mineral and other resources, they possess all that is necessary in the hands of an intelligent and industrious people to ensure national prosperity.

Particularly is this the case with Mexico. With the downfall of Maximilian it was confidently predicted that a new era in the history of that unfortunate republie would be inaugurated; but we have a tion and government. repetition of the same old story-revolution, lawlessness and brigandage. Of all the lands of the earth Maxico seems to be the most cursed with demagogues question was on the amendments of the of the politico-miltary strips. Popinjays and upstarts of this class seem to be indi- interest at 5, 4} and of 4 per cent, to be genous to her soil and are a perpetual exempt from taxation; that the bonds and effectual bar and hindrance to the progress and prosperity of the nation. Santa Anna, Juarez, and a whole host of adventurers of this description, with priests innumerable have succeeded in keeping this unfortunate country in a continual ferment for nearly fifty years, or since the time Mexico gained her independence. We have no sympathy with monarchy, royal dynasties, and their aristocratic appendages; and with our peculiar religious belief, are satisfied that such institutions cannot flourish on American soil. But we do entertain the belief that with the accession of the unfortunate and ill-starred Maximilian, to the throne of Mexico, a ray of hope dawned for that nation. Maximilian was an enthusiast in the cause of education, and during the few months of his residence in his adopted country he did all in his power to forward the cause, to promote commerce, establish law and order, to further the building of railroads and cussed, but not acted on. other works calculated to give Mexico a name and a standing among the nations. But the nation-killing patriots, and adventurers with which Mexico is so abundantly cursed, set their faces against the projects of "Max.," and soon succeeded in overthrowing him and effecting his death, and in again inaugurating a reign of lawlessness and rapine. For years past there has been occasional talk of annexation to the United States, but, except to the foreign residents-Americans and Europeans who may have settled in the country for commercial purposes, and who desire to see ciency bill. After sundry amendments the wheels of commercearun smoothly, and, to this end, know that law must be tary committee were considered. respected and order preserved-this matter is not very eagerly sought after ly indebted to Americal England, and other foreign nations; but the national 31st of March next. The amendment exchequer is in such a dilapidated condition, that all prospect of their claims being liquidated seems to be hopeless. at Mazatlan and the Captain and one of masters' and Ordnance Departments the officers of the British man-of-war Chanticleer, an account of which has appeared in our columns, seems to be expediting this matter.

be willing to do this, the Mexican people generally are mid to be avance to the alienation of any more if their ferritory. But the accessition of the case are urgent; and as our Government seems to powess a strong penchant for the canargement. of our National domain by purchase, it is not improbable that at an early day the United States will assume a certain share of Mexican indebtedness and that the "Flag of our Union" will wave over additional portions of Mexican territory.

"This is a consummation devoutly to be wished for," or at least it ought to be so by the Mexicans, as a people, and if they have any real petrictiam within them, it is a unsacure they will such to promote rather than retard; not only with the northern States but with the whole of their Territory. With Mexico under the eway of Uncle Sam-har eventual and inevitable destiny-and peopled by the go-shead American Anglo-Saxon, the lawless element so long prevalent, may be overcome, and she may, then hope to take that posttion among the nations, to which by position and natural resources she is justly speech. ontitled.NATNOM . E EL IL LI HI CELEBRATION OF THE 4TH IN THESETTLEMENTS.

GRANTSVILLE, July 5th, 1868. Editor Deseret News: - Dear Sir-Yesterday, the anniversary of the birth of the independence of our country, was duly celebrated here. The usual salutes of musketry and martial music announced that day was dawning; when the "Stars and Stripes" were thrown to the breeze.

A large procession of military, citi-zens, and schools, paraded the principal streets of our city and assembled in our spacious meeting house, where, after the invariable mode of commencing the proceedings of our assemblies had been gone through, they listened to the reading of the Declaration of Indepen-Knoxville.-Col. H. M. Ashley, of the late confederate army, was shot and instantly killed, by E. C. Camp. Pottsville, Pa.-The strikes continue their warlike demonstrations. No viogood martial music was discoursed, by Major J. Ratcliffe's Band; and the choir sang beautifully, with the accompaniment of the organ, which was played by Miss H. Hoagland, who also favored the assembly with an appropriate pa triotic song, accompanying herself on the organ. This was rendered beautifully! A recess was taken till 8 p.m. when all who wished, repaired to a bowery, properly prepared for the pur-pose, and enjoyed themselves in the dance. Music by Captain J. Mollede's string band. This continued as far in-to the evening as wisdom dictated, with Yours respectfully, SILAS HILLMAN.

5 60H F. WELLSVILLE, Cache Co., July 6th, 1868.

Editor Deseret News :- Dear Bro.-Last Saturday, the 4th was celebrated here in a lively manner. The discharge of Nangepore, (our city gun), the sweet strains of music, with a general movement of every thing and everybody proclaimed the break of day. At nine o'clock a procession was formed and at a few minutes to ten his Honor the Mayor of Wellsville, Col. Wm. Maughan, was waited on at his. residence and escorted with other distinguished persons, to the City Hall to further celebrate the day. The Wellsville choin and musicians generally were in attendance, and sang and played appropriate pieces. After prayer by the chaplain, Elder Joseph Woodward, the Decla-ration of Independence was read, by Thomas Bradshaw, followed by "Yan-kee Doodle." An excellent oration was then given by the orator of the day, Majer John Jardine. Archibald Hill. Esq., and Colonel Manghan made short and appropriate speeches, after which the citizens gave volunteer songe, toasts, sentiments, dc. In the afternoon there was a general muster on the public square of all ages and both series for recreation, which was kept up till sundown. The day's festivities ended with a dance in the evening in the Social Hall." In m Committee of Arrangements, Thomas Bradshaw, James H. Haslam, Charles Borley, John Steddard, Levi Mennirly; Marshal of the day, Capt T. B. Leavitt.
