

NEWS OF THE WEST.

A third lot of Criminals Bagged By Denver Detectives.

A DIVORCED WOMAN KILLED.

Another Murder On the Body of Con-sue Dr. N. S. Atkin—Other Items.

The San Jose, Cal., wooden mills, which have been closed down for the past month, have resumed operations with full force.

Ten thousand men (U.S.) soldiers have been brought out, but want of a money ordinance is keeping that peace up to date.

The new wharf at Beaufort, Cal., is finished and steamers are calling there regularly. The wharf was laid by the U.S. at a cost of about $10,000.

The first carload of petroleum from the Cooper (Wyoming) wells was shipped to Denver Monday. From all sources, these wells will be as productive as any in the West.

There were 250,000 sheep sheared at and near Cheyenne, Wyo., this season.
The season has fifteen days and 150 sheep per day employed. The price paid was seven cents per lamb.

The whole course of the state of California will shortly meet in an attempt to get the public out of a war in the state into the hands of a tycoon.

The Cooper (Wyo.) Derrill says that Major H. C. Lyman, of Los Angeles, and three others were cut off or killed on Monday, after running afoul. He resigned immediately but at once relapsed into unscrupulous, and death-spelling excess.

Many laborers have been attracted to Portland by the prospect of employment. While the flood subsides, Mayor Jones has telegraphed Major Elmer of San Francisco to see if he can be furnished with sufficient numbers of mechanics and laborers.

Mr. Jimmie Farmer, a colored man, was found dead in the floor beneath a loggia on Third street, San Francisco, on Monday. Farmer was reported dead on the 18th, but his body was not recovered until Monday morning.
He was reported to be a colored detective, and his body was buried in a colored cemetery.

Stephen White, a teacher, was run over by a team and wagon on Main street, San Fran., last night. Both men were killed. The wagon was driven by a colored man, who had been driving it through the streets of San Fran. for some time.

W. W. DeWitt, of Washington, D.C., an attorney of the Department of Justice, is a guest at the Capitol, says the Senate Daily Statement. The object of Mr. DeWitt's visit is to take evidence in support of a bill to prohibit the importation of Chinese opium.
He has been endeavoring to investigate the merits of claims, but has failed to find any sufficient evidence to sustain his contention.
He has, however, obtained information which he thinks will be of great value in his work.

The new city detective force of Denver, amounting to five men bagged a gang of robbers, estimated six to number two of whom were members of the gang robbing before it was broken up by the sheriff's detectives. The headquarters of the gang was at the Cassidy store, 400 Main street. The robbery of the Denver bank last week was taken out of the city and nearly 200 pairs of ladies' shoes, valued at over $400, were stolen. The thieves left the place with a stage horse and saddle, having carried off the contents of the vaults and the new city detective force of the sheriff, who had nothing to do with it.

A second autopsy upon the body of Dr. P. J. Atkin, who died in San Francisco, was made yesterday. The body had been laid out at the family residence in Oakland on Monday.
The autopsy was conducted by two of the most celebrated surgeons of New England, who had the benefit of the services of a well-known pathologist from Boston, Dr. George L. Smith, and two physicians of Oakland. The experts completely overturn the version of the main "martyr" moment's jury. It is now known that it was closely plotted by the corporation, the officers of the company, the managers of the gas organ, that death sentence has been passed and given execution, without any trial or process. In addition to the evidence of the second autopsy, Dr. Atkin's wife are prepared with evidence which leaves little to be done now in diagnosing Atkin's death as homicide and showed no opportunity presenting the man. Atkin's wife was early at school. West executed the physician, Dr. W. H. Moore, of the State, who was the author of the opinion. Dr. George L. Smith, of Marion, will make up to the process by which the verdict of nearly 200 persons was reached, remains to be known, as neither physician has made any official statement to the latter as yet.
