LOCAL NEWS.

Notice.—The registration office for the 3d precinct will be at his residence, 646 W. North Temple Street, each day during the week commencing Monday, June 7th, from 7 to 9 a. m. and from 5 to 8 p. m., to enter the names of all qualified voters in said precinct whose names do not appear upon said list.

JOHN W. CLARK, Deputy Registrar.

Mr. Acton in Town.—To-day we had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Acton, of New York, who is on his way home after a visit to the Pacific Coast. He is, besides being a genial gentleman, somewhat of a historic character. During the war of the Rebellion he was chief of the Metropolitan police of New York City, and directed the movements of the force during the bloody riots that occurred in that exciting epoch. Mr. Acton was being shown around town this morning by Bishop Sharp.

Hoodlums.—Complaints come to us from the Ninth Ward, against a gang of young hoodlums who infest that neighborhood. Their operations are chiefly conducted on Fifth South Street, between Third and Fourth East, where passers-by are jostled and insulted, and in some instances property is interfered with. The boys are from 10 to 15 years of age, and if their parents cannot or will not control them, their names should be handed in to the peace officers.

Property Attached.—A short time ago J. W. Pitts, of this city, commenced suit against Charles H. Bassett, Jr., of the firm of Bassett Bros., Idaho, for a debt of $800. The suit had some property in this city, it was attached yesterday and will be held until the judgment is satisfied. The goods levied on were: 1 square table, 8 washbasins, 1 lounge, 3 beds, 1 centre table, 4 cane-bottom chairs, 1 garden seat, 3 dozen common chairs, and a box containing some small articles. It is understood that it was Mr. Bassett's intention to start a hotel, but the place will probably be minus the furniture for a while yet.

Visitors.—We received an agreeable visit this morning from Hon. Daniel Needham, of Boston, Mass., who is with the Raymond excursion party, now on the return trip from the Pacific Coast. He is a well-known gentleman, having been National Representative from the State of Vermont. He was many years ago, a resident of Salem, and was acquainted with a number of families of Latter-day Saints. Among his old acquaintances is our fellow-townsmen, Mr. N. H. Felt. He is accompanied by Mrs. Needham.

Attempted Suicide.—It was generally rumored yesterday afternoon that Mrs. P. D. Sprague, wife of the livery stable proprietor, had taken laudanum with the intention of ending her mortal career. The matter was kept quiet as long as possible, and the true facts could not then be learned. So far as the present it seems that Sprague has been leading a very unhappy life, and in consequence of this, she had resorted to the use of laudanum. On Wednesday another row occurred, and that evening Mrs. Sprague took a dose of laudanum with suicidal intent. A physician was summoned, and succeeded in counteracting the effects of the poison. The woman, prior to taking the dose, wrote a statement of her grievances, but as she is still alive, it will probably not be made public. It is understood that she has also taken steps to procure a divorce.

Prove Jots.—From our correspondent: We have daily threatenings of a storm, but as yet the long-winded and expected downpour has not put in an appearance. Consequently the crops are suffering, and the farmers are anxiously awaiting relief from above. We were treated (2) last evening to a public exhibition of light and rope, and a performance by Hagal, the advertised "American Blower" and "King of the Air."

Having during the day attended a rope across the street from the Excelsior Drug Store, a rope, by the way, which looked as though it had been used by an expert, and was, therefore, commencing to go through a little tumbling with his boy, who was picked up in Salt Lake, and then swinging the store from which the rope was drawn he announced that his wife and sister would take either side of the street with the contribution boxes, our hero awaiting results of the performance. The final scene of the performance was the final scene of the performance. The final scene of the performance was the final scene of the performance.

Our interpreter is nearing completion. The players are taking down the scaffolding, and a corps of men, are plotting the scene.

PRIESTHOOD MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the Priesthood of the Salt Lake Stake of Zion convened in the Assembly Hall at 11 a. m. to-day. All the wards of the Stake were properly represented, excepting the Fourteenth city ward and the Draper and South Jordan Wards. The various quorums of the Priesthood were well represented, particularly those of the Lesser Priesthood.

The "new" business of the meeting having been dispatched, remarks were made by several of the brethren present. Prior thereto the revelation given through President John Taylor on the 13th of October, 1883, was read to the assembly.

Letters from the Presidency of the Church to the Stake Presidency were also read, calling attention to the necessity of thorough organization in all the wards, particularly of societies and organizations for the relief of the poor; also of the need of checking the sinful practice of Sabbath-breaking, which was becoming more prevalent as the warm weather advances.

The speakers also dwelt upon the tendency to hoodlums, profanity, and other evils among the young, and the spirit of frivolity and excessive gaiety which prevailed in certain quarters while the community at large had cause to mourn on account of persecutions. Those who rejoiced at such times in the spirit of the world would lose the spirit of the Lord and His favor. Every soul that suffered for righteousness' sake was one of God's instruments in breaking out the shackles of Zion's bondage, and those who sympathized with their suffering brethren and sisters, instead of dancing and feasting and mirth-making, would have the blessing of God resting upon them. These were glorious days for Zion, notwithstanding her trials and sorrows. The clouds would get burst and let in the sunlight of peace and happiness, but how soon it would be, would depend upon how soon the people of God were willing to become pure and righteous. As long as it was otherwise, God would scourge and chasten His Saints.

The Bishop was exhorted to cleanse their Wards from iniquity, that they might stand spotless before the judgment seat of the Almighty, and His blessing was invoked upon them and their labors. Pleasure grounds and public resorts where liquors were sold and evils of various kinds practiced were referred to, and it was counseled, where the proprietors of such places professed to be Latter-day Saints, that they be labored with, if necessary, in order that drunkenness, Sabbath-breaking, and other iniquities, wherever they prevail, might be put down with a firm hand, and those who frequented such places and committed such sins might be dealt with strictly. Liquor dealers and liquor drinkers could not be fellowshipped in this Stake of Zion. The High Council had so decreed, and the prophets of God, dead and living, were in accord with the spirit of their decision. As long as the land of Zion and the Saints of God were defiled, just so long would the favor of God be withdrawn from us, and our persecutions would continue. Our families should be set in order, and our ungodly sons and daughters dealt with and cut off the Church if they do not repent. This would apply to those who persist in disregarding and disobeying the wholesome regulations of the Church. Round dancing was especially condemned. The disobedient had no right to belong to the Church, and it would be better if it had fewer members so they were all of the right kind. We were approaching that peculiar time in the history of this people and the world when everything not sanctified unto God would be rejected, and the lines of division between the obedient and disobedient were rapidly being drawn.

The meeting was adjourned for one month.

The Inquest.—The jury called to investigate the causes that led to the death of Eliza, or, as she was better known, Lizzie Boyd, met yesterday at 6:30 to continue their labors. Mrs. Thurgood, who was wanted as a witness, was not present. Several others whose testimony was considered necessary, were also absent, and the jury adjourned until 10 a. m. to-day. At that time it was decided to have a post mortem examination made of the body of the deceased, and Mrs. Richards, Benedict, Bower and Young were sent for to perform the operation. Through some misunderstanding, Mrs. Richards, who was to perform the operation, did not arrive at the time appointed, or in fact until after the autopsy was held. Dr. Benedict and Young made the examination. Dr. King and Mr. Clark, druggists, were present. After the report made by the surgeons it was deemed unnecessary to examine more witnesses, and a verdict was rendered in accordance with the facts. The following is the report of the examination, signed by Drs. J. M. Benedict and S. B. Young:

The body revealed no marks of external violence. It was full, rounded and well developed. The skin was fair, smooth, and of a healthy color. The important organs of the pelvis and abdomen were carefully examined and revealed the following conditions: Liver white, fatty and nearly twice its normal size; stomach containing six ounces of fluid of a greenish color and with a strong, ethereal odor; mucous membrane of the posterior wall and greater curvature and cardiac portion, highly injected; there was no erosion, indicating corrosive poisoning. The odor was so well marked that it was noticeable; kidneys highly congested and containing pus; the uterus and right ovary gave every indication of the natural menstrual disorder. There were no evidences whatever of an attempt at abortion, or of any other disease.

The conclusion to be arrived at is that the subject, Lizzie Boyd, died from acute alcoholic poisoning, caused and superinduced by a protracted debauch and that no poison other than alcohol had been taken into the system. Further, that the medicines administered had nothing to do with her death, and that they were properly compounded by the druggist.

The brother and sister of the deceased came from Bingham yesterday, and will take charge of the funeral, and of the property of the deceased. A number of letters were also charged with the connection of Thurgood and some others with the whole affair has been such that no decent persons would engage in it.

To-morrow (Sunday) afternoon, at three o'clock, the funeral service will be held at the office of undertaker Jos. Wm. Taylor, on West Temple Street, Rev. Mr. McIntire officiating.

Criminals Arrested.—The police last evening arrested Willard Carter, who is held to answer to the charge of drunkenness, reckless driving, and keeping a house of ill-fame. His alleged wife, May Carter, and one Edna Dixon, were also arrested, the latter for residing in a house of ill-repute, and the former being proprietor of the establishment, and enticing a young man to leave his home for immoral purposes. Both of the women were also charged with drunkenness. The Carter woman is the individual who under the name of Mrs. Turner, induced a girl from Hill Street to enter upon a life of prostitution. The girl, who was named "Lizzie Boyd," was subsequently killed by a car.

Five Counts.—Mr. Wm. H. Paddock was arraigned in the First District Court this morning on an indictment charging unlawful cohabitation with his wife. The period of time covered is divided into five counts. Mr. Paddock pleaded not guilty.

A Terrible Crime.—A week ago yesterday a horrible outrage was perpetrated at Hooper upon the person of a thirteen-year-old girl named Lizzie King. The base wretch who violated her is named Stoddard, said to be about seventeen years old. He was caught and identified, but subsequently made his escape. Sheriff Behan is hunting for the young criminal, but up to latest tidings, received this afternoon, had not returned, so it was uncertain as to whether he had been successful in making the capture.

Sentenced at Ogden.—In the First District Court this afternoon, Wm. Simpson was called to receive sentence on three counts for cohabiting with his wife. His attorney, Mr. C. C. Richards, made a statement that the defendant was endeavoring at present to live within the law. Judge Powers, without exacting any promise as to his future conduct, then sentenced Mr. Simpson to imprisonment for one month on the 1883 count; two months on the 1885 count; and three months and to pay a fine of $500 on the 1886 count; making a total of six months' imprisonment in the penitentiary and a fine of $500.

Court Notes.—In the Third District Court to-day, Edwin W. Birks was admitted to citizenship. Rhoda Murphy, executrix, vs. James Payne et al.; court gave judgment for plaintiff, and orders a decree accordingly.

Geo. M. Scott et al. vs. Silas Reed; two cases; Court holds that it has jurisdiction, and finds in favor of plaintiffs; also that the locations of both parties are valid.

Alex. Nieringhaus; order of survey made and entered.

McDon. Mining Co. vs. John Glichrist; suit dismissed.

The grand jury came into court and reported having found seven indictments under the United States statutes and three under Territorial laws. The indictments also reported that they had ignored the case of the People vs. Bent Bolson and the People vs. Charlotte E. Thurgood.

A. F. CASE has been sentenced to three months in the Beaver county jail, for obtaining money under false pretences.
