THE EVENING NEWS.

Thursday, - - - - - January 5, 1871.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—Robertson's comedy, "Birth" was splendidly rendered last night. The "Jack Randall" of Mr. Thompson was as good as could be desired and Miss Sallie Hinckley, as "Sarah Hewlitt" was equally good. The members of the Salt Lake Dramatic Company who were cast for the piece, rendered their respective parts in excellent style, giving good support to Mr. Thompson and Miss Hinckley. The "Irishman's Ghost" sent the audience away in good humor. Mr. Thompson is perfect in his specialties—comic Dutch. The piece of last evening will be repeated to-night. It is worth seeing.

To-morrow night Miss Sallie Hinkley and Mr. W. Thompson will take a benefit, which it is to be hoped the audience will be as large as their merits as artists deserve.

LATE FROM UTAH.—The Cincinnati [illegible] of the 28th ult., says that on [illegible] preceding "Ned Buntline," [illegible], delivered a lecture in [illegible] Hall, in that city, on "Utah and the Mormons." That terribly stale subject, the "hostility" manifested here to the national government, discerned by the astute "Ned," during a stay of a couple of days in Salt Lake City, was a prominent theme of the lecturer; but he seems to have made no credit by his "gas," nor funds as the audience numbered only seventy five.

DEATH OF REV. ALBERT BARNES.—The Reverend Albert Barnes, so well known throughout the religious world as a commentator on the scriptures, and by his "Notes on the New Testament," died suddenly, of heart disease, at the residence of his daughter, in the city of Philadelphia, on the afternoon of Saturday the 24th ult. Mr. Barnes was one of the leading ministers of the Presbyterian denomination, and was celebrated for learning and piety. He preached his last sermon on the 18th ult. He was born in Rome, N. Y., Dec. 1, 1798.

CALIFORNIA PAPERS PLEASE COPY.—In to-day's NEWS will be found a letter from Payson, U. T., containing some account of the death of a Mr. Leonard, said to have been a former resident of California. As he came to his end in a mysterious way, and it may be by unlawful means, the publication of the letter by the press of California, may lead to some investigation, and will certainly end the suspense of Mr. Leonard's friends, if he have any in California.

BUTTER MOULDS.—It is to the interest of those who make butter for disposal in market, that the article should be done up in neat and convenient shape. E. K. Howes & Co.'s moulds are "just the thing" with which to produce that result. They are on sale at the produce department of Z. C. M. I., rear of Eagle Emporium.

STILL AT LARGE.—No clue has yet been obtained to the present whereabouts of Heath and Robinson, the remaining two of the five prisoners who lately escaped from Camp Douglas.

THAT LECTURE.—The first lecture in aid of the Salt Lake Exchange and Reading Rooms will be given at Independence Hall, on the evening of Tuesday next, and not to-night, as advertised.

SURGICAL OPERATION.—We stated in yesterday's issue, that a young man named Benjamin Edwards had been brought to town from Bear Lake, having his feet badly frozen. He was taken to the house of Judge Elias Smith, where he now lies. Yesterday Doctors Ormsby and Davis were called in to attend him. They discovered that it would be necessary to amputate both feet, near the ancle joint; three out of the seven bones of the foot, however, remain, including the heel bone and the two upon which the leg rests. The operation was performed in the presence of Judge Elias Smith, by Drs. Ormsby and Davis, assisted by their student, Mr. Walter Pike, and was one hour and a half being performed. At last accounts the young man appeared to be doing well.

BRIGHAM CITY.—Our Brigham City correspondent, "A. C.," sends us the following, under date of the 1st inst.:

"Last evening was spent very pleasantly at the Lyceum, in the City Hall. Professor L. F. Monch's students gave a variety of recitations, &c., which were well selected and splendidly rendered, to the great pleasure and satisfaction of the parents of the students, who were present by special invitation. Mr. J. Christensen's brass band was in attendance during the evening and rendered good service. The reading of the 'Little Monitor,' by Miss Clara Snow, surprised all. This paper is edited by lady students of the school, and contains much that is instructive, entertaining and amusing. Presidents L. Snow and J. C. Wright, and Bishop A. Nichols were present, and, at the close of the exercises, briefly expressed their satisfaction and surprise at witnessing the progress made by the students of Brother Monch's school."

STANDING AND STEVENS.—There are messages at the Deseret Telegraph Office for James Standing and Sidney Stevens. Call and get them.

FARMINGTON.—We are in receipt of a letter from the above place, dated Dec. 29th, 1870, from our correspondent, W. C. McGregor, from which we extract the following:

"We have organized a co-operative stock herd, with Bishop Samuel H. Rogers, President; Steven S. Barton of Paragoonah, Vice President; Jesse N. Smith, Secretary, and three Directors. Last night an auxiliary society for the improvement of stock, &c., was organized, with Edward Dalton, President and Wm. Adams, Secretary.

"Our co-operative store paid a dividend of twenty-one per cent for the year ending the first Monday in Nov., 1870. Last summer, some $800 dollars were stolen from the mail, which were being remitted from the co-operative store here to the parent store at Salt Lake City. This made the profits so much less. On Christmas eve, the Harmonic Society, under the leadership of Elder Thomas Durham, gave the first of a series of concerts, to be given during the winter months. Enclosed I send you a copy of the programme of the songs and glees which were sung on the occasion, they were all most excellently rendered, being accompanied by the cabinet organ played by Professor Durham."

The publication of the programme alluded to would take up too much space; it indicates, however, a choice selection for a rich, chaste and varied entertainment. We are pleased to learn that there is a growing taste for music in the settlements, it should be encouraged.

THE CELEBRATED
COOKING STOVES!

SUPERIOR
For Wood.
They are really what their name indicates, SUPERIOR to any other stove in the market, and for Economy, Durability, Convenience & Dispatch
Are Unequalled!
KANSAS, ALASKA
AND IMPROVED AMERICAN
For Coal,
Which for Neatness of Design, Thoroughness of Combustion, Capacity of Oven, Economy in the Use of Fuel and Uniformity of Operation, place them as the best Stoves in the market.
They have been constructed specially for the use of our Western Bituminous Coal (for which all stoves of Eastern manufacture are so ill adapted). Enlarged Flues insure a perfect draft; the plates that line the fire chamber are unusually heavy, and combine certain peculiarities in their construction which give these stoves superiority over all others in the consumption of its smoke, thus saving a large per centage of fuel.
