

in dust, having sold her cargo of supplies intended for Montana to the Black Hills train at Fort Pierre.

A train is loading to day for the return trip. The day after Stevenson arrived with supplies, the stock sold at once—flour $28 per sack and other goods in proportion. It is estimated that from 4,000 to 7,000 miners are in the Deadwood region.

Crook City is located ten miles west of Bear Butte, and Deadwood ten miles north of Crook City. Deadwood Gulch is about three miles long. Every portion is being marked with claims, which pay from $2.50 to $5 per day, with occasional pockets yielding much more. Four men took out in one day fifteen pounds of gold, $3,800. Another claim yields from $1,800 to $2,800 per day, two gangs of men of ten each being employed mining day and night. Large parties have gone to the Big Horn region from the Black Hills.

The head of the little Missouri is also being prospected; of forty-two men who came in yesterday none are dissatisfied with the Black Hills' prospects, and none express fears of the Indians. Many rich prospects are reported from the Rapid Creek region. No Indians were seen by the party on their way in, nor by the last few parties which left here in going to the Black Hills, nor have any been seen about Deadwood since the time the expedition left Lincoln and other points for the Yellowstone.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., 10.—Samuel M. King, formerly deputy U. S. marshal for middle Tennessee, indicted to-day for obtaining money under false pretenses last October, shot and killed himself in the criminal court room in this city this evening while in custody. The weapon used was a pocket Colt revolver. He died instantly. Deceased was originally from Dayton, Ohio.

NEW YORK, 10. The Pennsylvania R. R. Co. announce a further reduction of passenger rate to the following points—Cincinnati $12, Chicago $14, Indianapolis $13, Louisville $16, St. Louis $18, and corresponding reductions to all points west.

MONTREAL, 10.—The foot and mouth disease has broken out with great violence among the hogs at Outremont. Hundreds are dead and dying.

SAN FRANCISCO, 10.—A dispatch from Santa Rosa says, that last night, about one hundred and fifty armed men went to the jail in that town and overpowered the keeper, and took Thos. W. Healey, who was confined there waiting the action of the grand jury for killing James Rowland, a prominent citizen, about a month ago, and hung him to a tree a mile from town, to-day.

WASHINGTON, 10. Gov. Pennington and Gov. Edmunds, of Dakota, arrived here yesterday and with Delegate Kidder had a conference with the President, General Sherman and Secretary Chandler, relative to the recent order closing the Fort Pierre route to the Black Hills. The order has been so far modified, at the solicitation of Delegate Kidder, as to procure the issuance of the following military instructions—

"Headquarters Army U. S., Washington, June 8, 1876.

"Gen. P. H. Sheridan, Chicago, Ill.

"Judge Kidder, of Dakota, represents that there are about one hundred tons of provisions at Fort Pierre ready for the Black Hills, and that the commanding officer forbids them going. We have just seen the President, who consents that these provisions may be hauled out, but that no escort can be given. You may instruct accordingly. The commanding officer should see that parties who go out with the train are armed and prepared to defend the train and to prevent its falling into the hands of hostile Indians. Judge Kidder has been very zealous in this matter, in the interest of the Territory.

"Signed, S. SHERMAN, General."

These gentlemen say they have assurances that so long as there are people to feed in the Black Hills, responsible parties who will undertake to protect themselves will be allowed to take in substance over the Missouri and Fort Pierre road. No military protection, however, will be furnished on any route over or through the Indian reservation.

The House committee on Territories have authorized Wigginton to report for passage, at the first opportunity, a bill to regulate elections in the Territories. It limits the elective franchise to male citizens of twenty-one or upwards, who are not bigamists or polygamists at the time they respectively offer to vote. The bill authorizes in the main the copy of the California State election law. All ballots are, however, to be enclosed in envelopes of a uniform size, to be furnished by the territorial secretary. This measure will be reported as a substitute for the bill introduced by Luttrell, which is a copy of Senator Christianity's bill to regulate the elective franchise in Utah. It will be observed that the substitute differs from the Christianity measure in very important particulars, and is not at all retroactive in its requirements concerning polygamists.

PHILADELPHIA, 10.—Francisco Peralto, the Mexican, accomplished the feat at Suffolk Park, to-day, of riding 150 miles in seven hours, using twenty-five mustang horses. The rider started at twelve at noon and closed the last mile at ten minutes to seven.

BOSTON, 10.—Dom Pedro passed the day at Harvard College and dined with Professor Longfellow in the evening.

The war in western bound freight rates is being inaugurated by the Erie R. R., beginning to-day by the announcement of the following prices, which will go into effect on Monday next—freights, first class to Chicago, 25 cents per 100 lbs., instead of 70 cents; second class 25 cents instead of 70 cents; third class 25 cents instead of 80 cents; fourth class 16 cents instead of 25 cents. All rates western on same basis at these rates. It will be impossible that R. R. Co's. will be paid by the handling of goods. It is probable that all lines will follow suit.

FORT SCOTT, Kas., 10.—The body of a man named Celestine Desperse was found seven miles north of this city this morning, with his head cut open, and otherwise horribly mangled. A hatchet covered with blood was discovered near the body.

WASHINGTON, 11.—This morning, a short time before eleven o'clock, ex-Speaker Blaine left his residence in company with Mrs. Blaine, and slowly walked to the Congregational Church, which is about three-fourths of a mile from their home. Just as they reached the church he complained of a severe pain in the head and dizziness, at the same time placing his hand upon it. On entering the vestibule he was so overcome with a sudden illness that he came near falling, but this was prevented, and he was assisted to a seat on the steps, when he exclaimed: Oh, this pain! A conveyance having been procured, Mrs. Blaine returned with him home, he then being unconscious. A bed was brought into the front parlor, on which he was laid, and a messenger having been sent for surgeons, General Barnes and Drs. Bliss, Cox, Verde and Pope soon appeared, and lost no time in cupping the spine and resorting to other counter-irritants and revulsive enemata. From 11 in the morning until 4 o'clock in the afternoon he lay unconscious, breathing irregularly, his wife, the physicians and other friends remaining at his bedside during that time. The physicians said Blaine was suffering from over excitement of the brain and nervous system, superinduced by the recent events in which he has been a prominent actor, the symptoms being aggravated by the weather, which, to-day, is very oppressive. Several weeks ago Blaine was confined to the house for some days by a low typhoid or malarial fever, but appeared before the sub-judiciary committee, who were investigating the charges against him before he had fully recovered from the effects of that disease; this, with the excitement on his part both before the committee and in the House, the large number of persons daily in conference with him, and his attention to extensive correspondence, including many telegrams from all parts of the country, especially during the past week, loss of rest and other causes, produced a strain upon his mind that caused his sudden illness to-day. Bristow called at the house as soon as he heard of Blaine's illness, as did also Secretaries Fish, Robeson and Chandler, Postmaster General Jewell, Sherman, Senators Ferry and Paddock, General Garfield and other gentlemen of prominence. The sympathy for Blaine was not confined to political friends, many democrats having called to inquire as to his condition and regretting his sudden illness. At four p. m. Blaine's consciousness gradually returned, when he recognized his wife, and inquired of her what was the matter, and she replied that he was ill, and after that he, for the first time, turned over in his bed unaided. His breathing now was better and his pulse stronger. The enema produced some effect, but not to the extent desired, and therefore, the doctors applied electricity. They said that his symptoms are favorable, although he does not appear fully restored to consciousness. This evening one of them said, in a private conversation, that the attack was clearly a case of sun-stroke or heat-stroke, to which Blaine was rendered liable on account of his recent illness, over-work, excitement and loss of rest. The physician farther said that at first he was apprehensive that the attack might be apoplectic, but the examination disclosed no symptoms of that disease. For several hours numerous visitors were admitted, but after the doctors had administered the enema the doors were closed so that the patient might rest. Dr. G. W. Pope, the eminent practitioner of this city, who has been Blaine's family physician in Washington during the past eight or ten years, and is intimately acquainted with his constitution and temperament, furnished the following diagnosis of his condition—

At eight o'clock this evening Mr. Blaine's case is one of simple cerebral depression, produced primarily by a great mental strain and secondly by the action of excessive heat. There is no apoplectic congestion or effusion nor any symptom of paralysis. He has free use of his limbs, and the pupils of his eyes are normal. He has spoken several times and recognizes his family. He lies quietly, breathes naturally and is disposed to sleep. He has responded excellently to the treatment, and I have every reason to anticipate a speedy and complete recovery. At 8.30 p. m. Dr. Bliss remarked that the patient's attack was yielding to the treatment with remarkable rapidity.

NEW YORK, 11.—Panama advices to June 1st, by the Acapulco, state that the President of Columbia has authorized a contract for the exploration of the route, and, if possible, the construction of an inter-oceanic ship canal across the Isthmus of Darien.

NEW YORK, 12. The Times' Washington special says that Blaine, yesterday, received a letter informing him that his friend E. Rockwood Hoar, who had been one of his warm supporters, had decided to oppose his nomination for president. This seemed to annoy him considerably, and during the morning he frequently alluded to Hoar's disaffection.

There was some excitement at the Atlantic Beer Garden in the Bowery last night, caused by the police arresting the bar keepers. Sixteen were arrested. Several fights occurred, when the proprietor, fearing a general riot, caused the bar to be closed. Over 300 excited Germans and others were present. There was much cheering and counter cheering.

The Erie Central, New York Central, Baltimore and Ohio and Grand Trunk railroads to-day reduced the rates for west-bound freight from 75 to 25 cents per hundred pounds to Chicago, Pittsburg, Cincinnati and Buffalo, and proportionate reduction to all western points. The rates, both east and west bound, for freight and passengers, are now cut terribly, and the companies are all losing heavily. The Grand Trunk and Baltimore and Ohio lines claim differential rates, and will fight to the end. The prospect is that the war will be long and bitter.

In view of the incorrect stories in circulation touching the relations of Blaine and Bristow, the latter was called upon to-day to state the nature and result of an interview which took place between them last Saturday night, but declined to make any communication other than that his relations with Blaine have never been otherwise than friendly. As to the conversation with Blaine on Saturday night Bristow said Governor Dennison was present and he preferred that any statement of what occurred should come from him. Governor Dennison, being called upon, accordingly wrote out and signed a statement to the effect that he (Dennison) was present at the interview between Blaine and Bristow, at which interview Blaine denied any participation in the circulation of the story detrimental to Bristow. The interview was one of the most cordial character, evidencing friendly relations between the two gentlemen.
