SCHOOLS ARE CROWDED.

The district schools are now in full running order, having a total attendance of 45, crowding the buildings to their utmost capacity, strongly emphasizing the need of more room.

Constable Jenkins, who was badly injured by being thrown from a horse the other day, is reported getting along nicely.

HAPPY SURPRISE PARTY.

On Tuesday, Sept. 11th, a pleasant surprise party was given in honor of the birthday of Mrs. William Paxman. The event was something that very seldom occurs, in that the surprise was given by her grandchildren, who met at Geo. McCune's home, and from there all went to the home of Grandma Paxman, where into the rocker reading the "News," and encircled her and sang an appropriate song. After the song was finished the oldest (who is 15 years old) presented her with a small bouquet and a kiss, and wished her "many happy returns of the day," and all followed in their turn until the youngest, two months old, had dropped a bouquet in her lap. The children had a pleasant afternoon, and in the evening grandma's sons and daughters, and her friends, met, together with some friends, and spent a very enjoyable evening.

BENJAMIN.

Stewart Family Hold Renion on the 81st Birthday of A. J. Stewart.

Special Correspondence.

Benjamin, Utah Co., Sept. 12.—The Stewart family of Utah county held their annual birthday party for the day, being the eighty-first birthday of A. J. Stewart, the oldest living member of the family. One hundred and sixty descendants sat down to an elaborate dinner. A program followed, consisting of song, recitation, and other amusements. The venerable head of the family addressed his relatives and bore a faithful testimony to the truth of the Gospel. An appropriate and original poem, entitled "In the Lead, or Grandpa's Farewell," was written by Stewart for the occasion by Mrs. Melissa R. Stewart of Provo.

NEELEVILLE, IDAHO.

Sad Drowning of Young Homer Pease—Body Recovered.

Special Correspondence.

Neeleville, Idaho, Sept. 13.—A very sorrowful occurrence happened here in Neeleville a short time ago, in the drowning of Homer Pease, the eldest son of one of our respected citizens. The boy was 17 years old. His body was recovered from the river, and was found to be in good condition. It was found shot to pieces. The parents have the sympathy of the community.

BLACKFOOT, IDAHO.

Politics—Doing Well at Home—Money for Fort Hall Indians.

Special Correspondence.

Blackfoot, Idaho, Sept. 13.—The busy season of the year is upon us. Schools are opening and everybody is busy. The autumn weather has been unusually hot but free from destructive storms.

POLITICS.

The last political convention for the year has been held and the ruffled waters are smooth once more. The Republicans brought up the year with their county convention yesterday and put up a full county ticket.

Blackfoot will be full of politics from now until the 6th day of November. There has been here and spoken. Towne is coming and will speak.

DOING WELL AT HOME.

A party of Blackfooters now at Cape Nome have struck it rich in that far away field of gold. Four of them have a claim which is bonded for $500,000. They can sell it any day for $400,000. The four are poor men but when they return they will be rich as the world counts the average rich man.

THE INDIANS OF THE FORT HALL RESERVATION

are the moneyed people of today. They are being paid $7.15 each on the first installment of $100,000 for lands ceded back to the general government. The ranchers are the busy people. They are threshing, gathering hay and doing the work necessary before the frosts cover the pumpkins and the fodder is put in the shock.

THE PROUSSE INQUEST.

An Eye Witness to the Shooting Examined—Dr. Pinkerton's Statement.

Testified That Robber James Lynch Fired the Fatal Shot—More Guns—Certs. Burbridge on the Stand

The inquest over the body of Colonel George Prouse was to have been held on 10 o'clock yesterday morning, but was postponed until the afternoon on account of the failure of Deputy Sheriff Samuel Downs to locate the material witnesses in the case. He spent all morning looking for them, but was unable to locate a single person who could throw any light on the case. After waiting around for an hour and a half the jury adjourned until 2 p. m. At 2:30 p. m. witnesses had been found and Dr. Pinkerton was sent for. He soon appeared in court and was at once examined by County Attorney Putnam.

Dr. Pinkerton testified, in answer to Mr. Putnam's questions, that he was acquainted with George Prouse during his life time, and attended him at St. Mark's hospital on Tuesday morning about 8 o'clock.

"Did he subsequently die?" "He died," the doctor replied. "Did you make a post mortem examination?" "I did."

Dr. Pinkerton was next asked to describe the course of the bullet that killed Col. Prouse. The doctor said the bullet entered the thigh, passed through the abdominal cavity, cut the intestines and finally lodged in the bone of the opposite hip.

Asked as to the caliber of the bullet Dr. Pinkerton replied that he did not know. The doctor said that Col. Prouse died of acute peritonitis, caused by the perforation of intestines by a bullet. Col. Prouse told Dr. Pinkerton that on the night of the shooting three men came in and tried to rob the place, and the shooting commenced. The dead man did not describe the man who shot him.

Dr. Pinkerton produced the bullet taken from Col. Prouse's body with a piece of bone clinging to it.

Police Sergeant Burbridge was next examined. He testified that when he entered the Sheep Ranch Col. Prouse was sitting on a chair behind the faro table shuffling cards. He told witness that three men tried to rob him and he shot one of them. Sergeant Burbridge said that Prouse told him that the man who shot him (Prouse) was the man who shot him. The gun used by Lynch was a .45 caliber, and one cartridge had been discharged. Prouse fired five shots. In answer to Mr. Putnam's question Officer Burbridge said that two more revolvers were found at yesterday (Wednesday) at the rear of a saloon on Second South. One a large one and the other quite small. The large gun had three shots fired from it and the small one two shots.

Paul Johnson, one of the employees of the Sheep Ranch, was next examined. He testified as to the entrance of the robbers, and saw Lynch rush up to Col. Prouse and fire on him, and saw Prouse fire and hit Lynch. Dr. Pinkerton said the other two robbers ran down stairs.

Leaders Have a Winning Spirit and Carry Off Two Games.

QUAKERS DOWN PITTSBURG.

At Boston St. Louis Won With Ease and Batted Pittsburg Out of the Box.

The leading team made quite a sport yesterday and went far ahead of the other teams. Two games were played at Brooklyn with the Cincinnati's and the Brooklynites were victorious in each. The Pittsburg nine did not fare so well as heretofore. The inning streak was knocked out of them for a time at least by the Phillies who won the game with ease.

Pittsburg, who creates mysteries for the cultured bean eaters of the Hub, was batted out of the box by the St. Louis batters, while the visitor's pitcher, Jones, was in splendid form. Following is the standing of the clubs:

CROCKER IS REMOVED

From the Directorate of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club.

A San Francisco dispatch today says: Most of the holders of the Pacific Coast Jockey club, after voting conditionally to lease the Ingleside track to the San Francisco Jockey club, Prince appointed a committee to pass upon terms and report its recommendations to the main body. A meeting was held but nothing was done, and how the minority claims that no lease has been determined upon, and that the whole proceeding is irregular and illegal. Henry J. Crocker has been removed from the directorate of the Pacific Coast Jockey club and Hall McAllister appointed in his place, on a showing made to the directors that Mr. Crocker does not now own a share of stock in the club.

AMERICANS SHOW UP WELL.

Cooper Wins Second Place in the Professional Races.

Prize, Sept. 12.—The Americans made a much better showing at Vincennes today in the bicycle race for the expedition grand prix than on the previous visit. Cooper gaining second place in the professional and Lake third in the amateur. Tallander and Sanz, Frenchmen, secured first and second prizes in the amateur contest, where the prize was works of art worth respectively 1,000, 600 and 300 francs. The distance in this race was 2,000 metres and the time 2:52.

The professional race was interesting, as it resulted in the defeat of the French crack Jackuclin by the Dutch champion, Myers, and Cooper; the Frenchman having to be contented with third place. The distance in this race was 2,000 metres. Time, 2:52-2-5. The first prize was 15,000 francs; the second 6,000 and the third 3,000.

LEAGUE GAME

HERE TOMORROW

Ogdens, Otherwise Known as Lobsters, are Coming Down.

WILL PLAY SHORT LINES

Jack Meinecke Has Resigned from the Banks of the Chippewitges and Will Not Play Tomorrow.

Tomorrow afternoon the baseball team called the Ogdens, but sometimes referred to as the Lobsters, will journey down to Salt Lake and cross bats with Jim Clippinger's Short Lines. Papa Gim will be along with his band, and that in itself insures a warm contest. The home team has recovered from the effects of its defeat by the Hickories and will undoubtedly be in fair shape to make the game an interesting one. It is understood that Cochrane will pitch for Ogdens and Kimer's cross fire will be there for the Short Lines.

Jack Meinecke, the old timer, has resigned from the Short Lines and will be seen in the national game no more. Dan Taylor will cover the position of second base, but who will fill Taylor's place has not yet been decided upon.

After the ball is over the Lobsters will return to their home and play the Helms from Pocatello Sunday.

The Rio Grandes and Short Lines are scheduled to play here Sunday afternoon. There are not very many more games to be played in the league and each team will work hard from now on, to come out best in the end.

Fifty Mile Race Tonight.

The feature at the Salt Palace tomorrow night will be a fifty-mile motor paced match race between John M. Chapman and John Lawson, the "Terrible Swede." The purse is $250, $200 for the winner and $50 for the loser. The pacing machines are in condition, and the race will be speedy from start to finish.

Well Known Jockey Killed.

New York, Sept. 13.—John Stival, formerly well known as a jockey, was killed at the Gravesend race track this morning while exercising a horse which fell and rolled on him. During the training season of 1899 Stival was ruled off the track for alleged unfair riding at the Linden, N. J. track. His home was formerly at Lexington, Ky.
