For Guidance of Voters in Preparing Their Ballots.

[To vote for each person—Place your ballot in each box and the above in and around the putting places in corresponding positions.]

TO OBTAIN BALLOTS FOR VOTING:
 Ask your name to the judges of election, who will, if your name appears on the official list of voters in the precinct, hand you one official ballot, provided that in the meantime your name has not been challenged.

TO PREPARE BALLOT FOR VOTING:
 On receiving your ballot, from the election judges immediately retire alone to one of the unoccupied compartments of the voting booths and prepare your ballot for voting by marking in ink in the appropriate margin, or square, a cross (X) after the name of the candidate of your choice for each office to be filled. If you desire to vote a straight ticket put a cross (X) in the square opposite name of your party or party emblem. Before leaving the booth fold your ballot in the same manner it was folded when you received it, so that the stub can be inserted in the top without revealing the X marks you made on it. Keep your ballot so folded, and approach the judge at the ballot box. Announce your name again and hand your ballot to the judge, who will, if the number of your ballot is identical, return the stub and remember your ballot in the upper right hand corner, turn the same down and seal it. If you are not challenged your ballot will be returned to you, and you will cast it. Put the ballot, with the printed endorsement thereon uppermost, in the box yourself in full view of the judge.

NO UNLAWFUL BALLOTS:
 Should you spell a ballot by accident or mistake or in marking, you may obliterate successfully, not exceeding twice in all, upon returning to the election judge each spotted use.

TO OBTAIN ASSISTANCE:
 If you are unable to read or write the English language, or, by reason of physical disability, cannot prepare your ballot without assistance, make oath to such fact before the judge, one of whom will then render you assistance in the marking and preparation of your ballot for voting.

Three of the eleven thieves, who stole thousands of dollars' worth of goods in a most unique manner, are now behind bars in Chicago. They are named respectively Peter Nease, and W. T. Johnson, and W. Parker and J. C. Miller. The latter is the father of the gang. The Chicago Journal describes the methods of the gang as follows:
 Miller would allow himself to be picked up in a big box, which was filled with straw to prevent injury and supplied with a new, clean and shiny, and a quantity of provisions.
 This box would be shipped from Chicago to some western town. When it arrived, the box would be opened and the goods would be taken out. The box would be packed with the goods. Then, with a knife, he would cut a hole in the floor of the box, make his way out, and return to Chicago ready for another trip.
 When the box had reached its destination a telegram would be sent from Chicago asking that it be returned to this city. It would then be taken to the party warehouse, the whole eye, and the goods would be turned over to the party warehouse and returned to the party warehouse.
 The party warehouse would be engaged in the scheme for six months past. The party warehouse would have had several at work on the case for months, but beyond the fact that the thief had stolen the goods and escaped through a hole in the floor they could not get a trace.
 Special Agent Miley of the Northern district arrived the copy, says, says the Journal, a big box assigned to W. T. Johnson arrived at Chicago. It came in a car which had a cut out in the door. The contents of the box had been tampered with. A telegram signed W. T. Johnson followed the box. The telegram said that the box be returned to 300 Walnut street, Chicago, by way of the American Express company. Special Agent Miley accompanied the box. He reported the contents to be for the party warehouse and Detective Norton and other officers in the party warehouse, and when the box came, and when a box containing to W. T. Johnson the officers placed them under arrest. One of the men attempted to draw a revolver, but was quickly overpowered. The men gave the names of Johnson and Parker. As the excited police taking they had of a third man whom they imprisoned, and the detective went to the Hotel Irving, 714 N. Main street, and arrested a man who gave the name of James G. Miller.
 The box which contains upon the floor of the box of goods and money, valued at $100. The goods had been stolen from a warehouse of goods and money at Wright House, Pittsburg, Kas., and from the Kansas City, and were from the Chicagoan. He came to Chicago the past six months the men were worth thousands of dollars' worth of goods.

Suspender Milk.
 A Connecticut subscriber has told us about his unfortunate experience with milk. Four young babies, out of a herd of 30 Jerseys, suddenly began to give milk that tasted like "rotten suspenders." While four others gave milk and quite so bad. None of the old cows was affected, though all the cows were fed from the same pasture and hay. One thought now before us that the trouble lay about the pasture, the milk from only two babies during the last few days. He is convinced that the same was turning the cows from high, dry feed to fresh pasture. This country and sudden change of feeding disturbed the cows' systems—the babies, probably, grazing more than the cows. The lesson is to turn the cattle into pasture gradually—a few hours at a time only at first.—Rural New Yorker.
