Mr. Mathoninah Thomas, represent-ing the board, made his debut before the teachers in a short, pleasing talk. It has leaked out that some of the qualifications to be possessed by the successful aspirant for the Lafayett. principalship were to be a geniality and courtesy. TRIED BRIBERY.

Woman When Arrested Gave Money To Officer Brown.

Officer J. D. Brown made an important arrest this morning when he took into custody Mrs. A. Wilson and her daughter Dolly Smith. They are charged with obtaining money by means of false pretenses.

According to the statement made by Officer Brown, the women have been swindling Salt Lake citizens out of hard earned coin, by representing that they were making a collection for the benefit of Mrs. Reilly, the unfortunate woman whose husband and little son were drowned in the Jordan river several weeks ago.

Just how much money the women col-lected is not known, but it is claimed that it amounts to considerable. Their actions during the last few weeks have attracted considerable attention, for some time Officer Brown has been working on the case, When he arrested Mrs. Wilson this morning, she tried to bribe the officer, so he says, by giving him $5. He took the money and will use it as evidence against her. The two women are still in jall, and will be held there pending their arraignment before Judge Diehl on Monday afternoon.

Officer Brown says that the woman does not deny that she has been get-ting money by representing that she was collecting it for Mrs. Reilly.

JAMES MECHAM PLAYS IN LUCK.

The first meeting of the state board of pardons in two months was held today in the supreme court room. A very few applications were presented to the beard and only one pardon was grant-ed. James Mecham, who stands con-victed of incest but who has not yet been sentenced, was the only one who received elemency at the hands of the board. He was granted a pardon and sentence will never be passed upon him. He pleaded guilty to the charge before Judge Booth at Vernal on Nov. 19, 1908, and the time for passing sen-tence was postponed from time to time to allow him to present an application for pardon to the board.

M'MILLAN'S CASE. The application of Jesse F. McMillar for a parole was the principal matter considered by the board today. Frederick G. Palmer, John P. Meakin and Rev. John T. Axton appeared before the board and made eloquent pleas granting McMillan a parole. McMil-lan was sentenced by Judge Norrell in this county on July 29, 1898 to 20 years for murder. His case was continued in executive session until next month. HAWORTH'S GOES OVER. The application of "Nick" Haworth for a pardon was continued until next month at the request of his attorney is presumed that such action was taken because the attorney had not yet secured all of the data he desired to present to the board. APPLICATIONS DENIED. The following applications were deand by the board: Zee Graham, par-don, sentenced on July 14, 1903, by Judge Morse to four years for grand larceny; Frank Wilson, parole, five years for arson; Vido Del Vichio, parole, six years for rape; Henry Wright, commutation, nine years for grand larceny and burglary.

The following applications were con-tinued for one month: Thomas L. Imlay, parole, two and one-half years for adultery: James Ackenback, commuta-tion, five years for robbery; W. H. Burton, Jr., parole, two years for grand larceny.

The gloomy sundown of defeat set-tled over the Eureka hosts at Murray 169,841.1 18,194.88 esterday afternoon, while the Murray 11,315,74 fans are rejoicing in the possession of the state amateur championship. The hero of the game was twirler Husser whose clever play won the day for Murray, and caused Manager Miller of Eureka aggregation to wire home for the championship cup, which remains in Murray for the coming year. Much was expected from Eureka, and they played good ball up until the fifth in-ning. Then the quiet training of the Murray men, which they have been heavily indulging in since June 23, be-gan to tell, and their close playing and steady team work surprised and rat-tled their opponents. In the eighth innings. People abandoned all hope, when the umpire called the second strike on the batter, and began to be impatient for the close. But all at once the ball was seen streaking out through the diamond at a rate too fast for the niftiest men in the Eureka aggregation, and it wasn't fielded till Husser was hugging third. The pitcher for Eureka lost the last remnant of his nerve at this critical moment, and before the third man was put out Murray had third man was put out Murray had found him for three runs, which made their final score 8, against Eureka's 7. Eureka has held the state championship for only a short time, having won it from Park City this season. The line up and score by innings fol-
