

THE EVENING NEWS.

GEORGE O. CANNON,
EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

AN ILLINOIS EDITOR ON UTAH AND THE MORMONS.

HORACE WHITE, an Illinois editor, in writing about "Utah and the Mormons" has made a discovery, which, as he propounds it, must sound strangely to the ears of his readers, (if he have any in Hancock and Adams counties and the surrounding country. We state the discovery in his own language:

"Without Polygamy if 'Mormonism' would be in nowise different, in its public aspects, from Methodism, or Presbyterianism, or any other form of religious belief."

"Mormonism without Polygamy is an unoffending institution."

"This is a pity that White has been so long in making and announcing this discovery. Had he made it twenty-six years ago, and persuaded the people of Illinois of its correctness, the eschewal of that State would not be stained to-day with the foul and dishonorable blot which rests upon it; for Joseph and Hyrum Smith would not have been foully murdered, while confiding in the honor of the State as pledged by its Governor, Thomas Ford. Unfortunately for that State this man White has made his discovery twenty-six years too late. On what small events great destinies hang! We cannot arraign the decrees of Providence; but does it not appear to be a cause of regret that he could not have lived in 1843, when polygamy had not been revealed, and visited Nauvoo, as he did Salt Lake City, in the train of some great man, walking with reverent footsteps in his shadow, and then have proclaimed to the authorities and mobocrats of the State that 'Mormonism was a harmless and unoffending institution, and, in its public aspects, in no wise different from Methodism, or Presbyterianism, or any other form of religious belief'?"

Had he made such a visit then, and announced this discovery, how different the position of affairs might now be. Joseph and Hyrum Smith would, probably, have been living to-day; Nauvoo, and not Chicago, would have been the chief city of Illinois; and Horace White might have been humming round there to secure votes for some politician whom he favored.

Besides this discovery Mr. White has learned something more about "Utah and the Mormons." He finds that the Latter-day Saints are the only people recorded in history who never complain of taxes (by taxes he means, in this connection, tithes). Such confidence as they display in this matter astounds him. His statements argue badly for his own course of dealing and the society with which he mixes. After reading them we conclude that he would be a very unsafe custodian of our tithes. We also conclude that if he lived in Utah, his bishop would be sure to have trouble with him; suspicious and miserable himself he would endeavor to make everybody else feel like him. Mr. White's past associations have evidently not been of such a character as to prepare him to form a correct judgment of society in this country. He cannot rise to the conception of such honesty as will enable a man to handle the funds of a people and not appropriate them. If he had the opportunity of doing so without being called to account—to his own use. Being unable to view such honesty as possible he, of course, cannot conceive of a people paying in their funds, as the Latter-day Saints do their tithes, to the Trustee-in-Trust, and not call constantly for statements as to how they are expended, without they are excessively ignorant!

A people who lose sight of self-interest so completely as the Latter-day Saints do, must, in Mr. White's opinion, be very ignorant. It is inconceivable to him how they can be otherwise. It only requires the light of his own statements to force every intelligent person to the conclusion that his mind is both sordid and selfish, and, therefore, he is utterly disqualified to pronounce a correct opinion upon a people such as the Latter-day Saints are. This is the great difficulty with many of our censors, they measure us by themselves. They cannot, in their thoughts, reach a standard higher than that by which they are governed, and hence the ridiculous failures they make in endeavoring to describe us and to find motives for our conduct.

TRADE WITH SALT LAKE.
We are indebted to the kindness of Lieut. Henry M. Benson, U. S. A., of Camp Douglas for the following extract from the Pacific Commercial Advertiser of June 26th, published at Honolulu, on the Salt Lake trade.

"Among the passengers by the D. C. Murray for San Francisco, was Mr. George Nebeker, of the Mormon Colony at Lake City, who has gone to Salt Lake City for the purpose of perfecting arrangements for opening a direct trade between this port and that city. He took with him 130 bags of sugar and 80 barrels of choice molasses, the product of the Lake Plantation, which he proposes shipping through by rail, via Sacramento and Ogden, to the Mormon metropolis of the plains.

We have before us the opening of this trade, which is intended to supply the whole population of Salt Lake valley, numbering not far from 200,000, and are glad to hear that it is to be tested. Of its practicability we have no doubt. The Central Railroad Company offer to take flour from Sacramento to Ogden (which is 40 miles north of Salt Lake City) for $45 per ton of two thousand pounds, and the same rate will probably be fixed for sugar. The freight from this port to San Francisco is $5, and San Francisco to Sacramento $4, making the whole freight cost from Honolulu to Ogden $50 per ton, or a little less than three cents a pound.

The Salt Lake merchants have heretofore been supplied exclusively from St. Louis up to recent date at 35 to 45 cents a pound in greenbacks, equal to 25 to 33 cents in gold. But the cost of transportation by river and railroad from New Orleans to Salt Lake is more than double what it is from Honolulu to Salt Lake, as given above. So far, therefore, the advantage appears decidedly in our favor. If the numerous incidental expenses in San Francisco, can be avoided, and shipments made direct to the interior, simply paying duty, cartage, etc., from the Honolulu packets to the Sacramento boats the cost will be greatly lessened.

Under this arrangement, if it can be perfected, our No. 2 sugar, which are the best for that market, costing in San Francisco, say ten cents, can be delivered to order in Ogden, (which will probably be the large distributing point), at not over fifteen cents apiece. So far, a handsome margin for profit. This trade is certainly worth the attention of our merchants, and if rightly managed may redound to their advantage."

GENERAL.

St. Louis, 19.—Omaha dispatches say that General Carr's victory was more complete than at first reported. Over four hundred horses and mules were captured with a large quantity of powder and dried meats, among the killed is the noted chief Standing Bull. This was the same body of Indians who fought General Forsythe.

Lieut. Col. A. W. Bowman, of the 31st Infantry died here last night, he will be buried with military honors this evening.

A portion of the bridge in course of erection over the Marie Des Cygnes river on the Missouri River and Fort Scott gulf railroad, seven miles south of Paola, Kansas, fell yesterday, killing four men and severely wounding another.

New York.—Commodore Buckner, of the U. S. Navy, died at Brooklyn yesterday.

Washington.—The July interest on the Virginia State debt will not be paid before January, the payment will be made at Richmond.

The City Directory for the present year contains over 120,000 names, an increase of 18,000 over last year.

New York, 19.—It is reported that a new Cuban camp has been established at Hoboken. It is said to be composed of two hundred of the men who escaped from Gardiner's Island.

The Cuban filibusters on Gardiner's Island were not released to-day as reported. They are still detained in Fort Lafayette.

The eight bankers arrested on the charge of violating the usury laws were arraigned before Judge Cordozo in a court of over and terminated to-day. Edward R. Jones, George Phillips and David M. Morrison pleaded guilty. The trial of others is fixed for Thursday.

The detectives found a press, lithographic stone and all appurtenances for a well appointed establishment for counterfeiting Government tobacco stamps at Snake Hill, N. J., to-day. They seized all the material and arrested several men.

Boston.—Chief Justice Chase has arrived; he will make a brief address tomorrow at the dinner of the Dartmouth Alumni, of which he is President.

Poughkeepsie, 19.—Chas. Wheeler, the principal keeper at Sing Sing, has resigned his position to-day; half the convicts are still locked up.

Washington.—The acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue to-day decided that when tobacco is purchased at a marshal's sale, the marshal's brand does not protect the tobacco from the liability to bear the tax paid by stamps.

To-day Commissioner Parker discovered in the Indian Bureau a number of silver medals prepared under different administrations as presents to friendly Indian chiefs, in token of friendship.

The medals were stamped with the heads of different Presidents under whose administration the treaties had been ratified. A few medals are to be struck bearing President Grant's image for distribution.

Wilmington, N. C.—Trouble is anticipated at the special election to be held in this county to fill a vacancy in the Legislature. The Republicans are divided into two formidable factions, between whom the bitterest feelings exist. One of the most prominent leaders of one faction in a speech to-day predicted bloodshed before the campaign was over.

Washington.—Mayor Bowen in a message to the City Council to-night recommends that white and colored children be educated under the same public school system and under the same roof; he also nominated Professor Vashar, colored, to be one of the trustees of the white school.

Chicago, 20.—New York special says orders have been received for the release of the filibusters in Fort Lafayette on their own recognizances.

A portion of the rebel archives, removed from Richmond at the time of Lee's retreat and since concealed in North Carolina, have been brought to New York and placed in the hands of two Confederate officers, who are preparing them for publication.

Washington special says the formal consent of the government to the working of the French cable has not yet been given, some papers from the agent of the cable company not having been received at the State Department, still there is no doubt but the negotiations have been satisfactory and it is concluded that the new line will be immediately put to work. It is understood the first dispatches will be one from the Emperor to the President and the President's reply. It is presumed that the House will, early in the session, take favorable action on the Senate bill.

Wade visited Secretaries Cox and Boutwell yesterday and had a long interview with each gentleman with regard to the condition of the Pacific railroads. The substance of his conversation is, that both companies have worked earnestly in pushing the roads over the continent and are still working with undaunted energy to bring the roads to the best possible condition, and he recommends the immediate issue of the bonds still due to the Union Pacific to enable the company to keep a force of workmen employed the remainder of the season.

Gov. Clayton, of Arkansas, is visiting the North. He gives a favorable account of political affairs in that State. There is very little disorder now in any part of the State; crops are everywhere good and there is a more cheerful feeling with regard to all affairs than has existed since the war.

A delegation of Radical Republicans from Virginia, now in Washington, say they will endeavor to show Congress next winter that Walker has been elected by fraud.

The Grand Jury appointed to investigate the late negro election riots have already found indictments against eight or ten persons.

The argument in the Yerger court martial commenced yesterday. Judge Advocate Barr will probably start on Thursday to bring the finding to Washington, while Gen. Ames remains in that city, to enable him to sign it.

Chicago.—Henry D. Lloyd, the agent of the New York Free Trade League, is making a tour through Ohio, to bring the subject of revenue reform before the people and then organize a State league with headquarters at Cincinnati. These leagues are not political organizations but composed of the friends of revenue reform of all parties, and are organized for the purpose of discussing these subjects, distributing documents, etc.

A special from Alton says, another horrible murder was committed on Sunday night. A ruffian named John Cregan shot dead the wife of Gottlieb Oertel. Cregan had been working for Oertel but was discharged last week; he went to Oertel's house intoxicated and killed Mrs. Oertel. Cregan escaped, but it is reported that he shot himself.

The Tribune publishes a partial list of buildings in process of erection in Chicago the present season. It estimates that fifteen hundred will be built at a value of ten millions.

The Times Washington special says that orders have been issued from the War Department to the superintendents of the recruiting service at New York City, Carlisle, Pa., and Cincinnati to forward all recruits west for service on the frontiers.

Hon. B. F. Wade highly lauds Secretary Boutwell's policy. He is sore over the result of the Virginia election; thinks we ought to enter a wedge for the separation of Cuba from Spanish rule and says he will probably stump Ohio for Gov. Hays.

FOREIGN.
London.—The first general meeting of the woman's franchise society was held here yesterday. Among the notable present were John Stuart Mill, Lord Houghton, Hon. James Stanfield, Henry Fawcett, Rev. Thos. Kingsley and Louis Blanc, also many ladies. Addresses were delivered and resolutions unanimously adopted in favor of female suffrage.

London.—Advices from Rio to June 23d state that the revolution in Paraguay was increasing. The President had returned to Montevideo without hazarding an engagement with the insurgents.

In the House of Lords to-night the university bill came up. Earl Carnarvon moved the previous question on the ground of the lateness of the season and the insufficiency of time for its consideration. On a division of the House the bill was thrown out.

In the House of Commons Mr. Otway, under secretary of foreign affairs said the Government was aware that negotiations had passed between Bavaria and Austria with respect to the Ecumenical council, but having received no official information it could submit no papers on the subject. In reply to an inquiry as to how the Irish church surplus fund was to be locally supplied, Mr. Gladstone said, the question was rather premature, the financial parts of the measure were very complex and he could not say how far portions of the surplus would bear a local character; but he assured the House that the government was desirous of distributing the fund equally over Ireland.

San Francisco.—The steamship Hayo formerly the Confederate Cruiser Tallahatche was totally wrecked on Plymouth Rock, near Yokohama on June 17th. Twenty-two lives were lost including the captain, many of the crew and most of the passengers. On the receipt of the news at Yokohama assistance was immediately dispatched to the scene of the disaster but no vestige of the wreck was visible, the vessel having sunk in forty-four fathoms of water.

The imperialists have captured Hakodate. Enomoto still holds Fort Kamada. The steamer Eagle has been blown up by northerners, it is rumored that the Mikado, is preparing to leave Yeddo to avoid receiving the Duke of Edinburgh. An embassy is about leaving for the Sandwich Islands the Mikado having delegated two of his Vice Ministers of foreign affairs for that mission. The French Corvette Dupleix sailed June 19th for France. The French miltshipman captured by the imperialists and brought to Yeddo was surrendered to the French minister and with the French officers formerly in the service of the rebels was sent on board the Dupleix. The Parliament is still in session at Yeddo, its action is anxiously awaited by natives and foreigners. Business is entirely suspended, the natives are virtually compelled to close doors on account of no arrivals.

Pekin advices state that the great North and South gates of the inner city, in which is situated the Imperial residence, are undergoing extensive repairs.

Slight showers of rain have fallen, but not sufficiently copious to improve the now desperate condition of the crops. Gas works have been established at Peking.

There is great excitement in the cities in the neighborhood of the Grand Canal, there being prospects of a formidable rebellion. A letter has been found giving particulars of a conspiracy to capture Saacheroo, Kooching, Hwang, Burghaw and Shanghai. The number of conspirators is reported at fifty thousand, chiefly in Canton and Ningpo. The people of Soochow are fleeing to Harkaw for protection, dreading another rebellion.

Another outrage has been committed on foreigners near Hankow, the British Consul and his wife being among the party attacked. The matter will soon be brought before the notice of the Chinese Governor who has promised an investigation of the affair.

The inhabitants of Formosa have resisted the efforts of the new General-in-chief to capture some pirates. Reinforcements are called for.

While the English gunboat Opossum was at Iching placards were posted on the gates offering a reward for the murder of foreigners and the destruction of their steamers.
