

Riverdale some were blown up with the explosion, but from the best accounts obtainable, the number is small, as there were few in the cabins at the time. An exact idea cannot at present be gained as to the number of passengers on board, or the number of lives lost. Accounts of the number of passengers vary from 50 to 200, and of the killed from 10 to 50.

Additional list of wounded: Wm. P. Henry, aged 18, stover on a steamer in this city, hands and feet burned; Israel Lazarus, deck hand, this city, badly bruised; James Tobin, aged 34, and Nelson McGee, pilot of the Riverdale, scalded and bruised; John Moran is reported by the police as injured, but they do not know what became of him, or who he is.

Indianapolis, 28. — Jacob Oldenberger and Jacob Bush had a law suit this morning in the Justices Court, which decided in the latter's favor. Meeting Bush on the street about one o'clock, Oldenberger drew a pistol and fired, killing Bush instantly. Turning from Bush he shot Samuel Campbell, who was passing at the time, probably fatally. He then crossed the street, and putting the pistol to his own head, shot himself dead. It is probable that the shooting of Campbell was accidental, as he was in no way connected with the suit.

New York, 28. — Judge Barbour, an old well-known actor, was knocked down and robbed by highwaymen last night. He called for help and a policeman promptly responded. The robbers fled; one was captured by another policeman coming from an opposite direction, when a shot was fired and the highwayman fell dead. It is believed the shot was fired by his pal, who shot at the policeman. Barbour was not seriously injured.

Chicago, 28. — The trial of James Nutt, slayer of Lyman Duke, will commence in Uniontown on Thursday of next week. District Attorney John Boyd will conduct the prosecution, and W. H. Playford and A. D. Boyd will be counsel for defense.

San Francisco, 28. — The coroner's jury in the Skerritt murder case brought in a verdict to-day, charging Wm. Leroy with the murder of Skerritt. Leroy will be examined in the police court to-morrow.

Savannah, Ga., 28. — A crowd of 500 citizens surrounded the jail last night, where the suspected murderers of Hertel and wife are incarcerated, and demanded that they be delivered up. The jailor prepared for the defense of the prisoners, when a squad of mounted police, armed with rifles, dispersed the mob. It is rumored another attempt at lynching will be made to-night. Detectives are hard at work in efforts to discover the perpetrators of the horrible crime.

Kansas City, Mo., 28. — At the county jail of Wyandotte, Kansas, to-night five prisoners overpowered the guard and broke jail. The sheriff appearing, attempted to halt them, and falling, fired two shots, fatally wounding a confidence man named Dunbar. A second man was recaptured. The other three are still at large.

Chicago, 28. — Journal's Jamesville, Wis.: A furious hailstorm last night practically destroyed the entire tobacco crop of Rock County; damage estimated at fully $100,000.

Stirling, Ill., 28. — A severe hailstorm, last night, extended over a territory 15 miles long, and 10 miles wide. Loss to crops will approximate $50,000.

Williamsburg, Pa., 28. — Loss by the fire in the lumber yards here last night, fully $600,000; fully insured.

Bar Harbor, Me., 28. — An extensive forest fire is now raging between Seal Cove and Great Pond, 10 miles from Bar Harbor, on the western side of the island. The fire burned over 200 acres of forest. Two hundred men succeeded in surrounding the burning district with ditches, thus preventing the further damage from the fire. It is now believed to be under control.

Chicago, 28. — Dr. B. Newell, a physician of standing, committed suicide to-day by taking morphine. He had suffered from ill-health, and sustained a number of financial reverses.

New Brunswick, N. J., 28. — Freeholder Jno. J. Hall, of the Fifth Ward, is missing, with $12,000 borrowed money. The Trenton Times states forged notes in aggregate between $20,000 and $30,000 were discovered. The facts as to these statements are hard to obtain, as the principal sufferers are understood to be Hall's friends, and they refuse to divulge the amount of their losses.

In New Brunswick the entire loss will probably amount to $30,000. Hall was contractor for the Pennsylvania railroad, and it was an easy matter for him to borrow from sub-contractors.

Pensacola, Fla., 28. — Another day without a case of any kind of sickness in Pensacola. A movement is on foot to request Surgeon General Hamilton and Surgeon Murray of the navy yard to settle the character of the fever there. Surgeon Owen's widow is dead, making three new cases reported at the yard.

St. Louis, 28. — Post-Dispatch Gallatin: The James trial was resumed this morning. Defense asked permission to introduce specific acts against witness Mrs. Bolton, with a view of attacking her credibility. The intention was to open up the murder of Wood Hite at Ford's house, for which Liddel is now under indictment, and of which Mrs. Bolton and Cox Ford were witnesses.

Ida Bolton, aged 14 years, daughter of Mrs. Bolton, was the first witness. She was present at the killing of Wood Hite, but witness was not permitted to say who did it. She narrated the details of the burial and the cleaning of the room; her mother did the latter. This was in direct contradiction to her mother's testimony.

Willie Bolton, 18 years old, was the best witness for the State this morning. He positively identified Frank James as the associate of Liddel, Jesse James and the two Hites. Witness's description of the burial of Hite was graphic, and of the killing. Capt. Ford, Bob Ford and Wilbur addressed the body where it had lain on the floor all the day, wrapped it in a horse blanket, then took it out and buried it in the pasture.

St. Louis, 28. — Republican's Gallatin special: Afternoon session: Jas. Malloy, a farmer living eight miles from Gallatin, testified that on the Thursday before the Winston robbery he saw Frank James at Pott's blacksmith shop, where he was having his horse shod. There was another man with James. Witness had a discussion with James concerning the assassination of President Garfield. James told witness that he was living in Caldwell county.

Jonas Potts, the blacksmith who shod the horse referred to by Malloy, testified that he lives four miles northeast of Winston; he believed he had seen defendant in his shop the latter part of June, 1891, and that he was there again on the 13th or 14th of July.

Wash. Wheaton, a farmer testified in corroboration of Pott's statement, he having been at the blacksmith shop when the two men had the mare shod on the morning before the Winston robbery.

Mrs. Potts, wife of the blacksmith, testified to the correctness of her husband's statement, and identified defendant as one of the men who took breakfast at her house the day before the Winston robbery.

Ezra Soule testified that he lives near Winston; saw the defendant near Winston on a low place surrounded by thick trees; talked with defendant, who seemed very cautious, and claimed to be a stock buyer and was in very hot pursuit of a lost cow. Witness saw the place where there five horses had been hitched.

In the evening, while on the stand as a witness for the State, Frank O'Neill, of the St. Louis Republican, was asked where the interview he had with Frank James, and which was published in that paper when Frank surrendered, was held. Witness declined to answer, giving as a reason the fact that he had taken a professional pledge to keep the place of the interview secret. The Court has given him until to-morrow to decide, and in the event of his refusal to answer he will doubtless be committed to jail for contempt of Court.

New York, 28. — Thos. J. Sauls, injured on the Riverdale, died at midnight. The following missing people have been inquired for. Mrs. Longstreet, Mr. Archibald and Mr. McConnell; Mrs. Emily Wordoff, of Haverstraw, Abram Tompkins, of Tarrytown and three ladies who were with him, W. W. F. Tippey, of Palisades, Mountain House, ex Senator Robert H. Strahan, Mrs. Longfellow and daughter, of Tarrytown, W. W. Harris, Supt. Belt Railway, Mrs. D. Gettry, of Yonkers, and Mrs. Rose, of Sing Sing.

Philadelphia, 29. — Caldwell & Mason, dealers in wool and hair manufacturers supplies, have suspended.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., 29. — A special to the Courier-Journal from Frankfort, says: Hon. J. O. Blackburn was in the city to-day and made known his intention concerning the speakership to Colonel J. Stoddard Johnson, editor of the Frankfort Yeoman. He said: "Certainly I have no reservation when I speak to the people through the Yeoman, which I am always glad to make my medium of communication. I am not a candidate for Speaker. For some weeks I have made my determination known to my friends, and you are authorized to make this announcement public. My feeling for the success of the democratic party in Congress, and for the organization of that body upon a basis which will insure to the best interest of the country, is superior to any mere feeling of personal ambition. Ardent friends and fellow-members have urged me to prosecute the canvass for the position, and have assured me of substantial strength in the caucus, but I am satisfied that, in order to defeat the machinations of the protectionists and secure the election of a Speaker who will reflect the true democratic theory of a tariff for revenue only, it will be necessary to concentrate, rather than by having too many candidates, prosecuting similar views, to promote the chances of the common foe. By my withdrawal Kentucky will be united in the fight, and I shall lend all my energies to the success of the candidate who, representing the true principles of tariff reform, shall show the best prospect of defeating Mr. Randall. These may be said to be the considerations of a public nature which have led me to this conclusion. There are, however, personal reasons, which supplement them, and have also a controlling influence. Since the adjournment of Congress I have been urged by many personal friends to permit the use of my name as candidate for United States Senator. After mature consideration I have consented to become a candidate, and you are authorized to announce me in the canvass. I do not feel that I can, with propriety, stand for both places, and, therefore, decline the race for the Speakership to devote my energies to that of Senator."

Oscar Wilde arrived very quietly and unobtrusively in New York on Saturday. He wore short hair and tweed clothes, and was unrecognized save by a few casual acquaintances. What a contrast with his first arrival in this country!
