As a result of this con-ference Mr. Maynard was instructed to incorporate the lands not mentioned in the last two bills into a third and to dismiss the three of them when the Utah Fuel company paid over $73,000 and reconveyed to the United States 5% acres of coal lands involved in the suits. With the compliance of the company with these conditions today, the government has virtually received back 2,240 acres of coal lands worth anywhere from $150,000 to $200,000 as valued by the government, in addition to cash payments of nearly $200,000 when the cost in connection with filing are taken into account.

Payment was made today by a New ork draft drawn on the National Bank of Commerce, payable to Joel F. Vaile, general counsel of the Den-ver & Rio Grande rallway, and endors-ed by him to Attorney-General G. W. Wickersham.

FUNERAL OF F. B. ELDREDGE.

Service Held in Forest Dale Meetinghouse Yesterday.

The funeral of Frederick Baker Eldredge, who died at Granger July 23, as the result of paralysis, was held yesterday afternoon in the Forest Dale meetinghouse, and was attended by friends from all over the city and county. The speakers were Bishop Wil-liam Wood of the Twenty-fourth ward, Bishop McRae of Granger, and George B. Emery of the Salt Lake stake presidency, all of whom spoke highly of the integrity of the deceased, who was a man of his word. He was a ploneer of 1847, and since that time he has been a worker in redeeming the desert, often in the face of misfortune and hardship, and has been true to every trust. He was born in 1845, in Massachusetts, coming to Utah two years later with his parents. He married Almira Jane Nebeker, daughter of the late John and Lunna Nebeker, and his sur-

When the committee on buildings and grounds of the board of education and grounds of the board of education met this morning, it was decided to fight the attempt on the part of the city to collect water rates from the public school buildings. The board had received bills from the city for water rates on all the school buildings, which amount to about $1,900 for the year. A notice was also served upon the board Saturday that the water would be turned off today if the assessment was not paid.
