

LOGAN TAFT CLUB BRINGS BIG CROWD

Cache Valley Noon Train Arrives Under Double Head of Steam.

AT SALT AIR THIS AFTERNOON

Speeches Begin at 3 O'clock Ratifying
Taft and Sherman With Talks by Local Leaders and Candidates.

Headed by the Taft club of Logan, the people of Cache valley today turned out en masse to join in the Saltair excursion, ratify Taft and Sherman, and have a bath in the salt water.

The noon Cache valley train came in under a double head of steam with nine coaches packed to their full capacity with people. Five hundred and eighty people joined in the excursion, by actual count. And at Ogden 400 more belonging to the Taft club of that town or their friends piled on, so that Salt Lake received 1,000 visitors from the north.

The people after leaving the train at the Oregon Short Line depot came up town for a short time, after which they boarded the early afternoon Saltair train for the lake.

LITERARY PROGRAM.
The plans for this afternoon include a literary program at 3 o'clock at which Congressman Howell, U. S. Marshall and Dr. A. S. Condon of Ogden will be the principal speakers. After that the crowd will take to the water, and after enjoying the briny waves will spend the evening among the various Saltair amusements. Tonight they will stay over in Salt Lake, and will spend tomorrow seeing the sights before returning to Logan on the 4 o'clock train.

NOT AN INSURRECTION.
The officers of the Taft club are William Hanson, president; J. C. Allen, Jr., secretary, and Joseph E. Wilson, vice president. Mr. Wilson said this afternoon that the people of Logan had been much amused at the attempt of certain Salt Lake papers to construe the Taft club movement as insurrectionary and as an attack on the Republican party organization. "Our list of speakers should show our aims on that point," said Mr. Wilson. "We are for the Republican party, its success, and its candidates." He is the first to say that the movement is not an insurrection, but a patriotic one to secure a day's outing at the lake.

CONVENTION AT LOGAN

Cache County Capital Captures Democratic State Gathering to Name
Ticket Sept. 22.

The city of Logan was the subject of so much praise at yesterday's meeting of the Democratic state executive committee in the offices of State Chairman Martinson that when the eulogies of the "Athens of Utah" were finished there was nothing to do but to vote for Logan.

Therefore in the year 1908 the Democratic forces of Utah will name their state ticket in Logan city. The day will be Sept. 22, with primaries Sept. 17, and a round trip rate of a single fare will be allowed for the day. Possibly a special train may be arranged to bring the delegates home after the voting is over.

National Committeeman Frank K. Nebeker was unable to be present at the committee meeting at Salt Lake. O. W. Powers spoke for him of the need for campaign funds and for an active campaign.

The apportionment of delegates was made on the basis of one delegate for each 50 votes cast for O. W. Powers for Congress in 1906. This will give a convention of 508 delegates, apportioned to the counties as follows:

Beaver ..... 19 Rich ..... 5
Boxelder ..... 16 Salt Lake ..... 119
Cachoe ..... 48 San Juan ..... 1

POLITICAL POINTERS

Parley P. Christensen, candidate for the congressional nomination, was a caller at the "News" office yesterday to state that the "News" office yesterday is good. The state press has frequently pictured Mr. Christensen lately with complimentary notices accompanying his photograph.

The Taft club of Logan is at Saltair this afternoon enjoying an outing in which all other Republicans have been asked to join. The Loganites came down on the noon train and were met by other Republicans from Salt Lake and Provo, all of whom adjourned to the lake. The speakers invited to address the Republicans at Saltair are U. S. Marshall William Spry, Judge J. E. Booth of Provo and Dr. A. S. Condon of Ogden.

Harry J. Robinson of Bingham and Salt Lake is declared by the Park City Record to be out for the attorney-generalship.

From Green River comes a boast for Thomas L. McCarthy, postmaster of the town, for Emery's next member of the legislature.

MRS. MILLER IN JAIL.
Mrs. Mary Miller, once respectable, well to do and influential, but now a common woman of the streets, a drunkard and a vagrant, was again arrested this morning. The unfortunate woman was found in the streets of Salt Lake West and Second South streets this morning in an old shack near a vile joint called a saloon. The woman's clothing was filthy and torn and she was in a beastly state of intoxication.

WELLS VERY MUCH ALIVE

Blacksmith Who Was Reported Lost
In Canyons is Safe and Sound in Alta.

Harvey Wells, a blacksmith aged 25 years, working at Alta, who was reported in all of this morning's papers as lost in the canyon between Alta and this city, is not lost; he is not dead, and this morning was reported from Alta to be very much alive.

Saturday Wells got word that his wife was ill. He was notified by his father, Henry Wells, residing at 1133 Yale street. It was reported that young Wells immediately started to walk from Alta to Salt Lake, a distance of 20 miles and some one joined the rumor that Wells had considerable money on him and was followed out of Alta and down to the city and called at the police station. He stated that on Saturday afternoon Wells went to Brighton's lake and played a game of ball there, and that he and Wells ate dinner together at Alta yesterday.

A resident of Alta was telephoned to this morning and stated that Wells was still there, that he had not started to walk to Salt Lake; had not been lost, or murdered, and that he would leave this afternoon for Salt Lake to come to the bedside of Mrs. Wells.

DULL DAY FOR WHITAKER

Police Court Proceedings Deal With Peddler, Teamster, Negress,
Drunks and Vagrants.

William Burningham, a peddler of farming produce, who is known to the early morning crew of hucksters on Market Row as "Timberline" and "Long Bill," has given all kinds of trouble to License Assessor S. I. Goddard for many months. It is claimed that Burningham has been peddling for four years without a license and all the other peddlers have been making strenuous kicks but all to no purpose. Mr. Goddard has been after the man for several weeks but was unable to catch him until early yesterday morning. Yesterday afternoon he came to a complaint against the man and he was arrested. Burningham then promised to be good. This morning he appeared before Judge Whitaker in the criminal division of the city court for arraignment but the case was dismissed on motion, because "Timberline" had taken out a license and was anxious to comply with the law.

JAIL FOR "BABE."
If "Babe" Seairight, a notorious colored woman "dip" and woman of the town shows her dusky countenance in Salt Lake City during the next 60 days she will be sent to city jail. Yesterday the woman pleaded guilty to the charge of vagrancy and was given a "floater." This morning Judge Whitaker pronounced a sentence of 60 days in the city jail, because she was arrested on motion, because "Timberline" had taken out a license and was anxious to comply with the law.

WORKED SICK HORSES.
George Thomas was arraigned on the charge of cruelty to animals. He was accused of working horses that were unfit for use. He pleaded not guilty but later changed the plea to guilty and was fined $5.

Mrs. Annie Fairchild, a woman who has given the police considerable trouble, was before the court on the charge of drunkenness. She was arrested last night and roundly abused the police for taking her to jail. Judge Whitaker fined the woman $5.

All the state cases pending in Judge Diehl's court have been set over by Judge Diehl until the return of Judge Diehl from his fishing trip to Island Park, Ida.

AUDITORIUM LEASED.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil S. O'Mara have returned from Mazuma, Nev., in the famous Seven Troughs district, where Mr. O'Mara has some valuable property. Mr. O'Mara and his wife will leave in a day or two for a month's vacation in southern California. He is enthusiastic over the outlook for Seven Troughs and declares it will be one of the greatest camps in the country in a short time. Mr. O'Mara, who is head of the Auditorium association, has leased the big Auditorium in this city to a Mr. Shoemaker, an amusement man of Chicago, for a year. The latter will not conduct a roller skating rink, it is understood, but will run a dance hall and other amusements. When Mr. O'Mara returns from the coast he will reopen the rink in Ogden.

EVA BOOTH BETTER.
Warsaw, Ind., Aug. 17.—The condition of Miss Eva Booth, commander of the Salvation Army of the United States, who was overcome by heat and collapsed at the Winona Lake Bible conference, following her audience last night was improved today. In charge of friends she started for her home in New York city.

A TELEPHONE MONEY ORDER.
Diminutive Negro Plays An Eight Dollar Game and Lands in Jail.

George Leonard Snowball Washington is in jail. It cost J. L. Franken $8 before he landed there and that is how it all happened. Saturday the telephone rang in the Druehl & Franken office and the voice which responded when the usual "hello" answered, re-

J. L. YUNDT GETS WABASH AGENCY

Well Known Local Railroad
Freight Man to be in Charge of Office.

W. A. HOPKINS IS PROMOTED
He Goes to Moberly, Mo., as Division
Freight Agent of Big Gould System.

W. A. Hopkins, who for nearly two years past has been commercial agent of the Wabash railroad in this city, will leave Salt Lake in the near future to become division freight agent of the road at Moberly, Missouri. The promotion comes to Mr. Hopkins in an order which will go into effect announcing the change between now and September 1, by which time he will bid adieu to local "Railroad Row." For the purpose of carrying the order into effect and appointing a successor to Mr. Hopkins, J. D. Lund, assistant general freight agent of the Wabash, with headquarters at Moberly, Mo., will leave Salt Lake today, and is making the rounds of the row in company with Mr. Hopkins. To succeed Mr. Hopkins as commercial agent here, Mr. James L. Yundt will be named. Mr. Yundt has been connected with the company for some time in the capacity of traveling freight agent, and his selection will be approved among the western nations of the road and the railroad men of the city.

TRAFFIC SI RESUMED.
Washouts on Caliente & Pioche Railroad Have Been Repaired.

Trains over the Pioche branch of the Salt Lake Route have resumed regular service, making the run between Caliente and Pioche without interruption. For several days the trains were delayed and the mail service blocked between these two points by large washouts in Condor canyon. A cloudburst on Monday sent the largest volume of water down the Condor flats ever known, washing out the roadbed and tearing up the tracks. A large force of men was at once put to work on the washout, and the track is now in condition to carry regular traffic.

COL. BENTON RETURNS.
Col. I. A. Benton, general agent of the passenger department of the Rio Grande Western in this city, has returned from a business trip to Denver. Col. Benton returned on the third section of No. 1 last evening, and reports that travel was never heavier on his line than it is right now. He says the former course of travel has now been reversed, and eastern people who formerly spent their summers in Europe are turning the pleasure trips westward, and the capacity of the road is being taxed to carry the business.

Mrs. Benton, who accompanied the colonel to Denver, remained at Colorado Springs on the way home, for a few days.

SURVEYORS IN TETON.
Engineers of Chicago & Northwestern Making Headquarters at Driggs.

W. H. Wardle and G. L. Miner of Victor, Idaho, are in the city today, the guests of the Wynnton hotel. They bring great news of probable railway construction in their section of country. Quarters have been reserved for an indefinite period at a hostelry at Driggs, for a party of 10 surveyors attached to the service of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, who will camp in the Teton country until one or two routes for a road to traverse have been decided upon.

Mr. Wardle said this morning that there was no doubt as to the purpose of the engineers now at work in the Teton country. They were here to bring great news of probable railway construction in their section of country. Quarters have been reserved for an indefinite period at a hostelry at Driggs, for a party of 10 surveyors attached to the service of the Chicago & Northwestern railroad, who will camp in the Teton country until one or two routes for a road to traverse have been decided upon.

BOISE-NAMPA ROAD.
Engineers for the Boise Valley railroad are now in the field, and according to advice from Nampa, the road will be rushed forward to completion at the earliest possible date. This is the electric railroad projected between the capital of Idaho and Nampa, and is the beginning of a network of electric lines radiating through the rich western part of Idaho from Nampa as the central point.

DR. CALDER, ECONOMIST.
Reports Fourteenth Case of Deportation Thereby Saving Thousands.

Dr. D. H. Calder of the state mental hospital reported to the United States immigration officer in this city that he had a patient at the hospital in the person of Karl Sandahl, who was liable to deportation, from the fact that he had not been in this country for years. The regulations of the United States provide that any immigrant becoming a public charge within three years shall be deported, and Chief Inspector J. McCabe, of the immigration service in this city, has taken steps to have deportation orders for Sandahl. This is the fourteenth case of a similar nature that Dr. Calder has reported from the state institution, by which means he has saved the state thousands of dollars per year in the care of the unfortunate who were really not entitled to be charged to the state.

A TELEPHONE MONEY ORDER.
Diminutive Negro Plays An Eight Dollar Game and Lands in Jail.

George Leonard Snowball Washington is in jail. It cost J. L. Franken $8 before he landed there and that is how it all happened. Saturday the telephone rang in the Druehl & Franken office and the voice which responded when the usual "hello" answered, requested that Mr. Franken step to the telephone for a little business chat. Mr. Franken responded with his customary courteous air.

"This is Mr. Critchlow, Mr. Franken. I am at Brighton, but will be down soon. You will greatly oblige me if you will let me know when you will have $8 and when I get back I will hand it to you. Be sure he doesn't get more than $8, won't you Mr. Franken?"

This is the message that Mr. Franken got. He believed it really was Mr. Critchlow. That part about not letting the boy have more than $8 seemed to him to clinch the matter. Soon there appeared in the drug store a messenger bearing a note from the plentifully named and 17 year old negro. The messenger got the money and then Washington got it.

Yesterday Mr. Critchlow came to the drug store and met him on the street and he said to Mr. Critchlow: "That boy called for the money and I was pleased to let him have it," or words to that effect, and total.

"What boy? What are you talking about? I don't know about any money getting a boy, or I mean, any boy getting a good purpose, that is, I don't know what you mean."

Mr. Franken saw a great light about that time, and then went into a detailed explanation of the affair. The Patrolman Critchlow told to find a boy, a little negro with a very long name. He did so, and the lad is now in jail. At first he was stubborn in denying any part in the act, but later on, when Shannon took the lad to a lonely quarter of the jail and threatened him with the black hole unless he told the truth. Then, the thought of being stowed away where there was nothing to eat, and darkness brought Washington to the desired point. He has confessed the entire affair and is charged with obtaining money by false pretenses.

CLOUDS DRIVE HEAT AWAY.
Thermometer Hovers About Endurable Point—Fair Weather Predicted.

Yesterday's maximum thermometer was 75 degrees—pleasant weather, and today there is more or less clouds with a not over high temperature.

Barometric conditions have changed but little over the western states. The air pressure is lowest over the south plateau and north central Canada. Over the British northwest territory, central valleys, lake region, and the mountain slope the barometric pressure is high. Local showers or thunderstorms are reported over portions of Nebraska, Kansas, Ohio valley, Atlantic and Gulf states, with heavy rainfall in California, Texas, and Washington.

FUTURE OF THE ERIE ROAD.
Wall street observes with interest the gradual unfolding of the Erie railroad. Starting with holders of the prior lien and general lien bonds on June 30, a powerful financial group has purchased or offered to purchase the maturing interest coupons until no less than eight different issues of the Erie road are included in the undertaking, temporarily relieving the road of interest charges, which between June 30, and Sept. 1 amounted to $3,518,514. This plan will continue.

Wrapped up in these bonds is some intensely interesting financial history, recalling past comings and goings connected with the Erie corporation. All that, however, may be dismissed. The plan of the present deals with the upbuilding and future development of one of the country's oldest transportation systems. The present situation is in nowise comparable with the past. Though bankers are buying Erie coupons, the Erie road is not in default now. There is a likelihood of such. Like all other railway properties the Erie has felt the effects of business depression, and felt it severely. It has been engaged in extensive improvement work, which has been developed in the transportation industry. But the Erie has kept up its maintenance charges and operating efficiently, and has been relieved in the matter of fixed charges, and thereby has the rounding out of improvements, means much in increased earnings, the foundation is being laid for a better and a stronger property in the future than in the past.—New York Herald.

WHOLE WEST IS SEEKING BEAUTY

Salt Lake's Pace is Only Up to Speed of Six Sister Cities.

DENVER'S GOOD ROAD MOVE
It is Being Made With a View of Marching on the Legislature With Demand for Appropriation.

That Salt Lake is not getting any advantage over her sister cities of the west in inaugurating a sky scraper era, a good roads movement, a temperance movement, and a city beautification movement, all in a single sum, is the testimony of the papers of all the six big towns living nearest. That the good roads men are hustling is the largest headline of the Denver Post, for the issue of Aug. 16. In the issue of last Sunday papers of praise for the new apartment houses are sounded, and it is declared that "in no place in architecture more diversified or individual in type or more beautiful than in our own growing city of Denver."

The apartment houses are reproduced by the page full, showing the new interior court plan which is lately becoming most popular, the colonial and mission styles, and even the French touch, worked up into attractive modern lines.

Here are a few words on Denver architecture, set forth to please the populace and make the "call for Denver" spirit grow more formidable. "In no city of the Union is there displayed such beauty and variety of style in the construction of apartment houses as in Denver. No more is the eye wearied with the interminable flat wall and rectangular windows that made the old time apartment house an abomination. Graceful mullioned recesses, long and broad verandas, symmetrical sweeps of archways between the pillars, chimney effects unique and picturesque, and a thousand and one delights for the admiring eyes of all who observe are found on every hand, and the apartment house is now a sight as attractive as it was formerly forbidding and ugly."

Apartment houses of the better grade present an individuality and attractiveness peculiar to themselves. In most instances this class of apartment houses consists of those set back from the street thus affording a lawn and garden between the front, which not only enhances the beauty of the property but affords more privacy and exclusiveness to the occupants of the building."

GOOD ROADS BILLS.
And lest for a moment, we forget the expansiveness of the Denver boost for Denver, a turn to another column and there affronts the air the shouting headline: "This summer is record in sales of real estate."

"The summer of 1908, has been the banner summer of ten years," is the first sentence of the real estate review, and then on in this strain to the next column where the "good roads" men receive their attention. "Preparations" starts the first sentence "for an active good roads campaign are now being made by the Rocky Mountain highway association, with headquarters in this city. The association will go before the next legislature with a good roads bill behind which will be the sentiment of all business men, commercial bodies, and others interested in the improvement of Colorado roads."

The objects of the Highway association, set forth in two paragraphs are: "to secure the improvement of the roads to the value of good roads, and to aid in the securing of good roads appropriations. A glimpse at any western newspaper will rapidly convince a Salt Lake citizen that the highway movement is needed to keep up to pace, and is not passing others to lead the rush for better things. All the six cities seem in one great rush for beautiful things, and more pleasant civic surroundings."

LATE LOCALS.
Local Bank Clearings—Today's local bank clearings amounted to $684,183.76, as against $960,652.09 for the same day last year.

Unauthorized Solicitor.—A fakir is reported as soliciting money from local business men for a convention of machinists to be held in the city. The Salt Lake Union machinists say there is to be no convention, and that the solicitor is a fraud.

Teachers Wanted.—Wayne county is lacking pedagogues for the next school year, teachers to the number of 19 being asked for. Supt. Joseph Eckersley, of Loa, would be pleased to enter into correspondence along the lines indicated.

Picnic in Liberty Park.—The Sixth quorum of elders of Pioneer state held a very successful outing at Liberty park last evening, a most enjoyable time being the result. Lunch was served at 7:30, after which a program consisting of songs, recitations and speeches followed.

Packers' Version.—Local packing men say that the recent advance in cured meats was caused by the scarcity of hogs, due to the panic and blow given the packing trade by widespread reports as to the injury of American meats. This occasioned a falling off in the demand for hog products so that raisers largely reduced their stock. So now there is a scarcity and higher prices.

New Building Society.—Articles of incorporation of the Home Industrial promotion company, of Springville, Utah county, were filed today in the office of Secy. of State Tingey. The objects and purpose of the corporation are stated to be: To encourage and promote home building and to engage in a general real estate business. The capital stock is placed at $25,000, divided in shares of the par value of $50 each. John Bryan is president; G. R. Roylance, vice president; Stanley Staten, secretary-treasurer; Stephen J. Bjornsen and Viola Roylance, directors.

Souvenir of Convention.—A photograph of the enlarged Declaration of the Governors of the United States, in conference assembled, Washington, D. C., May 15, 1908, has been received at the office of Gov. John C. Culter. The paper is about two by two and a half feet, and the original will be adorned by the signature of each of the state and territorial executives, as well as that of the president of the United States. The declaration was drafted by a committee of five, consisting of the governors of the states of Louisiana, New Jersey, Utah, Wisconsin and South Carolina, and was ratified by the conference.
