FUNERAL OF CATON LOVE.
The North Ogden meetinghouse was well filled with sympathizing friends yesterday afternoon to pay a tribute of respect to the memory of Caton Love, who expired Thursday from apoplexy, aged 69 years. The funeral services were commenced at 12 o'clock, Bishop James Ward presiding.
The choir, consisting of the following members: Miss Amanda Ellis, soloist; "Sometime We'll Understand," and a duet, "I Need Thee Every eulogized the life work of the deceased, speaking of his devotion to the faith, his industry and his faithfulness to the various duties he had to perform. A large funeral cortège followed his remains to their last resting place in the North Ogden cemetry.

George Watts has been granted a decreet of divorce from Marcella Watts, on a showing of infidelity. The attorney stated that an agreement had been entered into between the parties to the suit as to the division of property. The court therefore granted the decreet as prayed for.

HIT BY DELAYED SHOT.
Through the explosion of a charge of dynamite, John Matthews, an employee of the Copper Monster, near Brews, Nev., received quite serious injuries Saturday and was brought to the Ogden hospital for treatment. He had placed several charges of dynamite in a place where he desired to loosen some ore. One of the discharges was slow to explode and Matthews thinking it had exploded, went nearby, when suddenly rock and debris was hurled at him with great force, badly injuring his eyes and head. He will recover, however.

SPANISH FORK.
SHOCKING GUN ACCIDENT
William O. Johnson Shot and Instantly Killed by Hunting Companion.

Special Correspondence.
Spanish Fork, Utah Co., Dec. 1.—A shocking gun accident occurred here Saturday afternoon, when William Orson Johnson, the 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orson Johnson of Eureka, was shot through the heart and instantly killed, by his friend and hunting companion, Earl Adamson, 18 years old, also of Eureka.

The boys were here on a visit and had been out hunting. They were at the home of Mrs. Chris Ferguson, aunt of the deceased, when the accident happened. As they were unloading their rifles, the Johnson boy had some trouble emptying his gun and handed it to his companion to assist, when the gun went off with the result stated.

The parents of the unfortunate boy, who was their only son, were notified at once and his mother came in in the afternoon. He will be buried here.

Special Correspondence.
Lehi, Utah Co., Nov. 30.—A Jacobson 15-horsepower gasoline engine has been unloaded here and taken to the pumps at the head of the Jordan and will be used as reserve power in case of accident to the electric supply. This using from Cottonwood.

E. W. Schneider of Chicago, western passenger agent for the Nickel Plate railroad, has bought a 160-acre ranch above Jordan, near the rick-saga springs, and has built thereon a six-room home which was made in sections in Chicago, and there is every indication he is going to try the joys of farm life. There is no doubt others will follow suit as the beautiful Utah lake and the Saratoga springs being so near make it very attractive.

Mr. Joseph Dallimore, who was operated on at the Holy Cross hospital some few days ago for appendicitis, died Thursday and was brought here for burial.

The Relief society of the Third ward held a most successful bazaar last week, which netted it $125, which will be applied on building a new sanctuary.

Every effort is being made to show the old folks a royal good time at the UNION.

ANNUAL WARD REUNION.

Old and Young Banqueted—No Winter
Yet in La Grande Valley.

Special Correspondence.
Union, Or., Nov. 29.—The people of the Union ward held their annual ward reunion yesterday, Thanksgiving day. Stake President and Mrs. P. S.
Brannell of La Grande were in attendance.

A very appropriate program of speeches, recitations, singing and instrumental selections, was rendered from 12 a. m. to 12 m.

On tables made the length of the hall, dinner was served to 300 people, from 12 noon to 2 p. m., when the amusement committee took charge and according to arrangement the children were made to rejoice in the dance. At night the old people's party took place, and they turned out en masse. Old style dances were indulged in, the remembrance of ye olden times. The whole day and evening was spent in prayer, rejoicing and thanksgiving and a time was had that will long be remembered.

Winter has not set in yet; all kinds of teaming is still going on, plowing and preparing the soil for fall crops, etc.

Winters here are usually open, the mercury very seldom runs below zero and remains that low but a very short time. Sleighing is practically unknown here.

RUPERT.
Irrigation Project Boosted by Appointment of Local Supervising Engineer.

Special Correspondence.
Rupert, Lincoln Co., Idaho, Nov. 29.
—Tuesday night last a public meeting was held in the Rupert Opera House by the settlers of the M'Adams irrigation project for the purpose of showing appreciation to the United States reclamation service officials at Washington for segregating the M'Ad-ams project from the Boise-Payette project, and also for appointing a project engineer in the person of J. G.
Camp.

Mr. Camp has been acting superintendent of the project for some time, and his appointment to be project engineer gives him more power and authority which—as was expressed in the meeting—will be the salvation of the project locally. The work of the project has mostly been supervised from the Boise office, which has proved unsatisfactory. With an engineer on the ground, and one being familiar with the work as Mr. Camp is, beneficial results are expected.

The business men of the south side of the public square are having an 8-foot cement walk put in. The walk later is to be made 11 feet.

Union services were held at the Christian church on Thanksgiving day.
W. K. Shilling has recently moved his warehouse from Minidoka to Rupert and has had the same re-erected near the railroad track.

Coal is plentiful here this winter, but so high priced that many are burning sagebrush. Coal sells for $10 and $12 per ton and $7.50 extra for delivery.

DEATH OF PIONEER.
On Saturday morning last at 4 o'clock one of our old townsmen, Nels Christian Schow, passed to the great beyond after suffering from a third stroke of paralysis for three days and two nights. Uncle Chris, as all knew him, was 79 years of age last June.

He was a native of Denmark, and came to Utah with his parents at the age of 17; he first resided in Bountiful, then in Brigham City, after which he moved to Nevada, where he was engaged in merchandizing. About 1872 he moved to Panguitch, where he has resided most of the time since. He spent a few years in Tropic, where he acted as postmaster. Mr. Schow was a faithful member of the Church, a good citizen, and was known for his joyful disposition. When a young man he made one of those famous trips across the plains after emigrants. He leaves a wife and six children, besides a host of friends to mourn his death. Also a host of grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

BOND ELECTION.
Dec. 2 there will be another bond election for Panguitch city to raise means with which to meet the extra cost of the joint city and county building, being erected in this city and nearing completion. It is estimated that the building will cost $1,000 more than at first planned.
