Local college men will be interested in learning that the forthcoming Yale triennial catalogue will show the total the rate of graduates of the institu-tion to be 21,800, of whom 12,900 are living. Yale graduates are dying at the rate of about 100 per year, but the large size of recent graduating classes is increasing the ratio of the living to the dead. The oldest living graduate is Rev. Joseph S. Lord of the class of 1831. The preliminary cata-logue shows that the present freshman class numbers 712 men, 409 in the aca-domical department and 200 in the academical department and 312 in the sci-entifie. This is the largest freshman clas in the history of the institution.
