BRIGHAM YOUNG,
Editors and Publishers.

Local and Other Matters.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 3.

Recovering.—We are pleased to be able to note that Mr. James Needham, although not yet able to leave the house, is gradually recovering.

Convalescent.—We are gratified to be able to state that President A. M. Cannon, after a protracted illness, is now able to be about a usual.

Boisterous "Runners."—Last evening four hotel runners were arrested for boisterous and noisy vociferations at the railroad depot. This morning Justice Pyper fined them $3 apiece.

District Court.—Thursday, January 3.

Mitchell, Lewis & Co., vs. Lewis Benites; default and judgment; referred to clerk to compute.

O. D. Ford vs. L. E. Holden; argument for an injunction and receiver still in progress.

Manti Sexton's Report.—Sexton's report for the year 1877: males six, females seven; of these, adults four. Causes of death as reported: lung fever, two; teething, one; inflammation of the bowels, two; old age, one; scarlet fever, one; premature birth, three; diarrhoea, three. Total interments, 13.

JOHN H. TUTTLE,
Sexton.

Williamsburg Conference.—The Semi-Annual Conference of the Church at Williamsburg, L.I., was held November 25th, 1877, in American Hall, Grand Street, in that city. The assemblage was addressed, on subjects pertaining to the principles of the gospel and building up of the Kingdom of God, by Elders Held, Schwartz, Sedgewick, Worthington, Loftus, Counselor Pullman, and Elders Keeler and Garnier. The records of the branch were presented by Elder French, the secretary. They showed the affairs of the Church there to be in a healthy condition. The general and local authorities of the Church were presented and sustained. The Conference was presided over by President H. G. Bywater.

A Peculiar Work.—Mr. S. W. Wetmore, record clerk of the Illinois State Penitentiary, at Joliet, has compiled materials for a Detective's Vade Mecum. It will contain the names of most of the notorious criminals hailing from Chicago and different eastern cities—bank robbers, burglars, forgers, swindlers, confidence men, etc., with their haunts, the gangs to which they belong, and other particulars.

It will also give many of the slang phrases, with their meaning, common among criminals. The book is designed for the special use of officers of the law.

American Fork Canyon Wagon Road.—Mr. Niels C. Heiselt, of Pleasant Grove, furnishes the following:

"Having been for some time engaged in superintending the construction of the wagon road through American Fork Cañon, I am pleased to inform you of the success of the undertaking thus far. This work must be regarded as one of the most important enterprises in behalf of the interest of the farming community in the settlements adjoining American Fork Cañon, as when completed it will render accessible the timber of the mountains to aid the material development of their farms and the improvement of their homes.

"It is also due to the people of the several settlements in the northern portion of Utah County, that a hearty and public acknowledgement should be made them for their liberal subscriptions and for the substantial services rendered in the building and construction of the road; as also to the miners in and adjacent to the American Fork Cañon, for the interest they have taken in the work.

"There is yet a portion of the road unfinished; and that it may be made safe and permanent for travel at an early day, I am in hopes the people interested therein will continue their liberality, either in money, supplies, or labor, that I may be able to push it forward to completion without unnecessary delay. I give my unqualified assurance that no exertion shall be spared on my part that will ensure so desirable a result."

The Work in Germany.—The Latter-day Saints will be greatly pleased to learn that the gospel is gaining a steady if not a rapid foothold in Germany. The barriers that have heretofore hindered the introduction and spread of the truth in that country are gradually melting away before the influence of religious toleration, which is increasing.

We have perused with much pleasure a letter addressed to Bro. Gerber, from Elder Jacob Mueller, dated at Ludwigshafen, Nov. 13, 1877. It was written in the German language, and translated into English by Elder Edward Schoenfeldt, of this city.

He states that he visited Wurtemberg in September, where he found a sect of people distinct and peculiar in their views. The leading man among them, whose name is Jacob Hoeckli, is 28 years of age, and claimed to have received divine direction through fasting and prayer. Elder Mueller and a companion Elder preached to them and created great interest. The sect had in advance received some of the principles of the gospel as true. Mr. Hoeckli told the Elder that it had been manifested to him that the Elders were the servants of the Lord and their message was the true gospel, and that he should administer to their wants, which he did. Many members of the sect said they were ready for baptism, but Mr. Hoeckli stated he was not yet, and desired the others to wait till he was prepared, to which they yielded.

After a visit to Berne Elder Mueller visited Ludwigshafen, in Bavaria, and Mannheim, arriving October 27th. Between that date and November 5th he baptized seven persons in the River Rhein. On the day last mentioned he visited Wurtemberg. He was received gladly by his friends, and the following evening he baptized five persons, on the next evening five others, and on the third evening four more, and on the following night four others.

Elder Mueller says: Never have I found such faith as among that people, and preaching, baptizing and instructing kept me going for some days till midnight, and one night I slept not at all." Several of the converts were impressed that there would be a movement among them, and some of them would emigrate to somewhere in the spring, and they had made preparations for gathering even before Elder Mueller had preached the gathering to them. They are much united among themselves.

Elder Mueller arrived in Ludwigshafen again on November 10th, and expected to meet Elder Bradley Clawson on the 13th. He intended soon to re-visit Wurtemberg and baptize others who were ready, and to hunt new openings and fields of labor. He expresses the earnest conviction that the time for the spread of the gospel in Germany has arrived.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, JAN. 4.

D. A. & M. Society.—The directors of the D. A. & M. Society are requested to meet at room 18, City Hall, to-morrow evening, at seven o'clock.
J. R. WINDER,
President.

Lost.—This morning, on his way home, a lad, named M. R. Pratt, lost a couple of purses. One contained $40 in Tithing Office orders and a small amount of currency, and the other a small sum in fractional currency. The finder will oblige by leaving the same at this office, for the owner.

District Attorneyship.—The dispatches inform us that Sumner Howard, District Attorney for Utah, has resigned. If this act had been voluntary it would have been one of the most graceful of his life. Utah has no cause for regret. The change cannot well be for the worse.

Silk.—Father Graves has made the circuit of the settlements of Utah County, lecturing in the interests of silk culture. At a small, secluded place called Benjamin, while he was there, the people agreed to plant out 1,000 mulberry trees in the spring, one person offered the free use of an acre of ground for that purpose, and then proffered to plow and otherwise prepare the land, while some young men tendered their services to set out the trees without remuneration.

Analysis of Temple Granite.—Following is an analysis of the Temple rock, by Professor Thos. M. Drawn:

Silica.....	71 75
Alumina.....	14 75
Ferrous Oxide.....	1 94
Manganous Oxide.....	0 09
Lime.....	2 36
Magnesia.....	0 71
Soda.....	3 12
Potassa.....	4 89
Ignition.....	0 52
	100 16

This is a beautiful rock, classed among the Dioritoid Granites. It is from Little Cottonwood Cañon in this county. It consists of quartz, mica, as biotite, feldspars as orthoclase and plagioclase, with a large proportion of hornblende, some titanite and other interesting macroscopic and microscopic crystals.

Mortuary.—Mr. C. Larsen, sexton, of Logan, Cache County, furnishes us with the following report for the year 1878:

Males 24, females 21, adults 13 Children (under 12 years) 32. Causes of death as reported:

Diphtheria, 4; consumption, 3; croup, 2; premature birth, 5; inflammation of lungs, 3; inflammation of bowels, 2; scarlet fever, 6; heart disease, 2; decay of nature, 2; inflammation, 2; cholera infantum, 3; fatty degeneration of the kidneys, 1; lung fever, 1; accidental poisoning, 1; accidentally scalded, 1; accidentally drowned, 1; asthma, 1; paralysis, 1; fever, 1; summer complaint, 1; throat disease, 1; cancer, 1. Total interments, 45.

Deseret Museum.—We were shown, to-day, a relic of the Mayflower, an old pepper-mill brought over with the Puritan Fathers by a maternal ancestor of Sister Hannah Grover, of Nephi City, Utah. Sister Grover justly prizes this curious relic and, in 1870, she deposited it in the Deseret Museum, by recommendation of the late President Brigham Young, at which time she refused to sell the mill. We learn now that Sister Grover has finally concluded to part with the treasure, and has wisely donated it in perpetuity to the Museum. The relic is to be restored carefully to its original shape, so as to still retain its antiquated appearance, in which condition it will be seen in the Museum cabinets among a large collection of ancient curiosities.

There have also been received, for the library, the United States Geological Report for 1877, of the geology of the 40th parallel, by Hon. Clarence King; and the report of the Geological Exploration of the Rocky Mountain Region by Major Powell, U.S.

Ogden Matters.—The matter of the changing hands of the Ogden Iron Works property and the prospect of the manufactory starting up again is a subject of no mean interest to that railroad centre. Here is what the Function has to say:

The thing is done. "The Equitable Iron and Coal Company of Ogden" have bought of Charles Woodmansee the property formerly owned by the "Ogden Iron Manufacturing Company," and the articles of incorporation were filed in the office of the Clerk of the Probate Court on the 2d inst., with the following officers: W. G. Case, President; J. M. Langsdorf, Treasurer; Geo. F. Brown, Secretary. Directors, W. G. Case, George F. Brown, Jesse M. Langsdorf, Charles Woodmansee, John Brown, Frederick Tiernon, M. H. Beardsley; H. W. O. Margary, Attorney.

"The consideration of the deed of conveyance to the company is $84,000; 252 shares at $100 each have been subscribed. The capital is $100,000, with power to increase to $250,000, and the principal place of business is Ogden City.

"Mr. Case left for the East this morning, and expects to return in a few weeks and go to work as soon as the weather will permit, so that we may now expect to see pig iron made in Ogden by the early part of the coming summer. This will undoubtedly cut the Gordian knot which has bound us to hard times for so many years past, and with successful iron works, foundries and rolling mills in our midst, so much muscle at present unemployed will be utilized and so much money at present sent out of the country will hereafter be retained here where it belongs, that we are safe in saying our best days are our future days."

The same paper states that a fire broke out yesterday morning in the office of Mr. Hart, foreman of the U. P. R. R. shops and storehouses. The flames were extinguished, by the promptness and energy of the railroad hands, before much damage was done.

DIED.

SARAH M. GUCKIN, daughter of Jame and Margaret M. Guckin, was born August 29th, 1803, in Chester County, Pennsylvania, was married to Elijah Mallin, Jr., in 1830, was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, under the hands of Lorenzo D. Barnes, November 16, 1839, and moved to Nauvoo. Left the latter place and arrived in Winter Quarters, in 1846; emigrated to Salt Lake City in 1851, and finally departed this life October 24th, 1877, aged 74 years, 1 month and 25 days. Sister Mallin lived and died a good Saint, and was greatly beloved by all who knew her, as her lovely disposition and saintly conversation made her many friends wherever she went. Long will her name be had in remembrance, by the first Elders in the church, for her kind treatment towards them, in an early day, when thefulness of the gospel of Jesus Christ was first preached in Chester County, Pennsylvania.—Com.
