

THE GOULDS AND CASTELLANES

The Countess Says: "Please Make Light of the Matter."

COUNT BONI IS INDIGNANT

The Goulds Refuse to Talk—Council for Either Side Have Little to Say.

New York, Nov. 1.—The Countess de Castellane, whose property has just been placed under the direction of her brother, George J. Gould, by a French court, was questioned relative to the matter, says a Paris dispatch to the World, at her mansion in the Avenue de Bois de Boulogne, but she would not go into details of the case. She said: "Please make light of the matter. It is only a family matter which will hurt my dear husband's feelings. He already suffers keenly the exposure of his present situation."

Count Boni has been away from Paris for the last three days, but will return today (Thursday). Last night he was conversing for the first time with his father, who had heard the news. He is indignant that the court should have appointed a foreigner to watch over the countess' fortune. He wanted his father appointed if a trustee was to be named. "My son," said the Marquis de Castellane last night, "I could serve you equally well. Boni and the Goulds are equally wrong. We both feel that George Gould will administer the trust with harsh parsimony. Boni with difficulty will bear this burden. He is a miser and all Paris clubmen are speculating as to the outcome. Some of the count's more hot-headed friends expect that he will not submit. Others laugh at this."

THE GOULDS REFUSE TO TALK

The news of Mr. George Gould's appointment by a French court as administrator of his sister, the Countess de Castellane's property, was conveyed by a reporter to the Gould Brothers in their Broadway office. Mr. George Gould said that he could say nothing, though he might make a statement. Mr. Edwin Gould likewise declined to be interviewed, but said that he was glad to hear the news. Mr. Frank Gould, said simply that his brother George must do all the talking. Mr. George Gould summoned his two brothers into his own office, where the doors were closed and they conferred nearly an hour. As a result of a talk it was said George Gould will start for Paris to take charge of the Castellane affairs.

Coudert Brothers are counsel for the Castellanes, Frederick H. Coudert Jr. said: "I can say anything now because it would not be fair to my clients. It is all in the hands of our Paris branch where the Castellane's business is done. A little later we may have something to say for publication."

Backed John P. Dillon is the Gould's counsel. "I have not had any personal knowledge of what the count has spent in the last five years," he said. "I can confirm this news. The countess got a sixth of her father's estate and neither she nor the count had the right to touch the capital. No court has the power to allow them to do so."

"If any such appointment has been made it is of course under the laws of France, which provide for such emergency. They are very much more frequently made there than in this country. A great many persons in Paris are under trusteeships of this kind, and it is not unusual for any reproach or reflection upon them."

DETAILS OF GOULD'S APPOINTMENT

Paris, Nov. 1.—Further details regarding the appointment of George J. Gould as trustee for his sister, the Countess de Castellane, show the inheritance of Count Boni and his wife to be about $25,000,000 francs. Of this sum, there was expended on real estate in connection with the charity Bazaar and his private home on the Avenue Malakoff, $2,500,000 francs; mortgages, $5,500,000 francs; loans and tradesmen's bills, $2,500,000 francs; on art and bric-a-brac dealers, $1,000,000 francs. Mr. Wertheimer, who is one of the art dealers interested, claims goods were bought, then taken back and then resold to the amount of $6,000,000 francs, and that in these transactions there was some loss due him the sum of $2,000,000 francs.

Mysterious Murder in Arizona

Doings of Naval Vessels

New York, Nov. 1.—While undergoing repairs and taking on ammunition and supplies, the training ship Buffalo will remain at the Brooklyn Navy Yard until December 4, when she will start on a Mediterranean cruise with another crew of landmen. The Buffalo will not go to the Philippines or to China, as she did on her former voyage, when she had been received from the commandant of the Asiatic squadron that there are enough men with the Asiatic squadron to man all the vessels in service there.

The battleship Kearsarge has been placed in the dock at the navy yard, where she will probably remain a week to receive a thorough cleaning, scraping and overhauling preparatory to her winter cruise in West Indian waters. The tug Wompatuck will be ready to sail for Manila within a month and will try to make a record run to the Philippines via the Suez canal.

Iron and Steel Trade

New York, Nov. 1.—The Iron Age today says:

Conditions in iron and steel trades are improving. In recent demand for steel billets has resulted in an advance of $1 per ton at Pittsburgh.

From all quarters come the reports of active buying of foundry irons, the tonnage already placed having been large, while there are still very important requirements unmet. Some of the sales were effected at low prices, and, while no advance has yet taken place, it is a fact that a number of sellers have withdrawn, being well filled for some time to come. There has been some movement, too, in Bessemer pigs in Pittsburgh and in basic pig in eastern Pennsylvania.

This activity in pig iron has caused a better feeling in all markets. It is all the more a trustworthy indication of improvement since it is free from the suspicion of any rigging by any combination, association or consolidation.

The demand from Europe has fallen

Some very heavy sales have been made east and west during the past two weeks, the requirements for ship-building being particularly large.

The demand for structural material generally is quite active, and the bar mills in all parts of the country are rushed with work. The wire trade is reported to be active, and there is some scarcity of spot tinplate in Chicago.

Big Figures Surprise Merriam

Chicago, Nov. 1.—Former Governor Wm. H. Merriam, of Minnesota, the director of the United States census, spent several hours in Chicago while en route from Washington to his home at St. Paul, where he is going to vote in discussing the census, he said.

"The large figures shown by the recent census of this country are a big and pleasant surprise to me. None of us at to take just such action as may be indicated, stop it. There will be neither intimidation at the polls, ballot box stuffing nor fraudulent counting this time. If either is attempted it will be stopped there and then. And if anyone ever has in this process of prevention I hope it will not be the honest man who is doing his duty fairly and well. The Democrats have made an honest campaign. We have appealed to the heads and hearts of the American people. We have won the fight, and by heaven, we will not be defrauded out of our victory by the chicanery of election judges. If our Republican friends will be honest there will be no trouble, but intimidation and the balls of election judges in dishonesty in the counts will be met by such methods as may be necessary and entirely effective."

COTTON GOODS FOR CHINA.

Said to Have Been Large Reselling in New York Market.

New York, Nov. 1.—The Journal of Commerce prints the following: Reports have recently been current that there has been a considerable amount of reselling of cotton goods purchased for China in the spring and early summer, the delivery of which has been prevented by the warlike disturbances in that country. While there has undoubtedly been some basis for these reports, it cannot be discovered that the movement of the reselling of cotton goods has assumed any important proportions, and conservative estimates place 2,500 bales as the extreme limit of such resales. It is also estimated that 44,000 bales of cotton goods represent the sum total of all contracts that are held here awaiting a change of affairs in China. The shipping of cotton goods to China has been suspended since July last, when the banks notified their clients that they could no longer finance shipments of cotton goods to Shanghai, where the warehouses were so overcrowded that there was no room for additional imports. Stocks are very heavy at Shanghai and had it not been for the sharp advance in the price of raw cotton the troubles in China would undoubtedly cause a ruinous condition of affairs in all branches of the cotton goods export trade to China. As matters have turned out, however, exporters in this country and buyers in China find themselves with stocks of goods on hand which could not be duplicated at the purchase price. Some small resales have, indeed, been made at a profit even after counting the interest charges that exporters have had to pay on the goods that have been tied up for delaying deliveries beyond contract date.

CONDITIONS IN FRANCE.

Political Disturbances Grow Graver Each Day.

New York, Nov. 1.—The outlook for social and political disturbances in France is becoming graver every day, says a Paris despatch to the Times.

In the north 100,000 miners are on strike, and the recent socialistic tide in France is becoming graver every day. It is being encouraged by the other elements of the government. Only the fact that the government controls the churches' funds prevents the clergy expressing their opinion vigorously on the matter.

Clever Forgery Scheme Nipped

Cleveland, Nov. 1.—Chas. E. Labberis, a guest of the Victoria Hotel, was taken from his luxurious apartments to a cell in Central police station last night. He was arrested on a warrant sworn out by a wholesale fruit firm on South Water street. The police claim that the arrest nipped in the bud a clever forgery scheme which the prisoner may have been operating in places outside of Chicago. A check on a New Orleans bank cashed by the fruit firm and later found to be suspicious caused the arrest. The check, which had been presented to the hotel people, was indorsed by Del Oro of San Francisco. Labberis came to Chicago a week ago and registered from Galveston, Tex. In the trunk in his room was found a bunch of checks similar to the one presented at the hotel and to the fruit dealers.

CROKER'S POLLING PLAN.

Chairman Jones Thinks It is a Good Suggestion and All Right.

Chicago, Oct. 31.—Senator Jones, chairman of the Democratic national committee, was asked today his opinion of Croker's suggestion that Democratic voters congregate about the polling places on the evening of election day, count noses and then, if the election returns for Bryan do not tally with their own, go into the polling places and throw those fellows in charge of the returns into the street. He said: "I don't see anything wrong with that suggestion. I believe, suggested a baseball bat as being peculiarly appropriate to render justice to a corrupt election judge. In my opinion the best way is for Democrats to be at the polls when they are opened and to remain there in good strong relays until the count is completed. It should be the duty of the Democrats to watch the count and the count, and to see to it that no fraud is committed, and if any fraud is attempted, to stop it then and there."
