

NOBLE WOMAN LAID TO REST.

Impressive Services Over the Remains of Mrs. M. Isabella Horne.

DRAMATIC DEATH OF A SUICIDE.

John W. Thomas' Sensational and Effectual Manner of Taking His Life.

PRAISED FOR HER GOOD WORKS

President Smith Pays Glowing Tribute To the Cossack, Devoted Laborer of the Deceased.

Deeply impressive were the services held in the Assembly Hall yesterday over the remains of Mrs. M. Isabella Horne. The hall was well filled with friends and relatives of the deceased, and the stands and pulpits were beautifully decorated in white, with here and there flowers, ferns and potted plants. The services were presided over by President John R. Winder, while music was furnished by the Temple choir under the leadership of Frank J. Thompson. An unusual offering the choir sang the hymn "When the Cross arrayed in white." Prayer was offered by Elder Levi Johnson. The choir sang "Gloria in the Cross."

SPEAKERS PRAISE HIGH.

President Antion Le Poer was the first speaker. He referred to his acquaintance with Mrs. Horne, whom he praised for her heroic and good works. She had been a good wife and had earned the glory of a celestial world.

Mrs. Barbara W. Smith, general president of the Red Cross, spoke in high praise. Her comments were to the effect that the active life of the deceased had the noble example one has not all with whom she had been associated. The speaker referred to the family of Sister Horne and said sincerely that the deceased would have wished that we could have been with them through life.

President Bryan E. Taylor of Grants Stake paid glowing tribute to the deceased for her strength of character and the influence she had exerted among her associates. Her life had been pure and spotless and her record was unimpeachable.

PREST. SMITH'S TRIBUTE.

The other speakers in high order were Mrs. Emily C. Walker, widow associate of the deceased; Elder Joseph E. Taylor, who spoke for Elder Angus M. Cannon and Bishop H. T. Burton, who were unavoidably absent; and President Joseph F. Smith, who made a brief speech, in which he referred to a vision he had while laboring as a missionary on the Sandwich Islands. The same affording him a glimpse of eternity, where he saw many noble characters with whom he had been associated, including the deceased, President Joseph Smith and Sister Horne. President Smith paid high tribute to the unequalled devoted labor of the deceased and expressed the conviction that there awaited her a crown of glory in the world beyond. He dwelt at length on the importance, referring particularly to the rare erection of infants. President John R. Winder was the last speaker, endorsing all that had been said of the goodness of Sister Horne.

BOY BADLY WOUNDED.

Young Italian Baby Hurt in a Restaurant Fight Today.

A young Italian lad named Demetrios Karakas walked into the police station this morning, his face covered with blood. He was suffering from an ugly and dangerous wound in the left side of his head.

The lad tried to explain that he had been working at a restaurant at 57 West Second south, and that this morning he became involved in a row with some United States, and that the latter started to beat him up. The fight was so great that it was impossible to place the man on the sidewalk, and he expired while on the shoulders of those who finally rendered some assistance.

TAKEN TO MORROW.

The body was removed to Evans' undertaking parlor, where it now remains. Coroner Dan T. Smith was notified and viewed the body. It is not likely that an inquest will be held, as there is no doubt whatever as to the cause of death.

Friends of the deceased followed the remains to the cemetery, where a quiet service was held. The grave was dedicated to "Jesus, My God, To Thee," and the grave was dedicated by President Joseph F. Smith.

HIS ARTESIAN WELLS.

Will Hardly Seal to Say Nothing of Blowing Shingles Off Roof.

A local publication in urging the utilizing of the underground artesian flow of water at Liberty Park as an auxiliary to the city's regular supply, gravely states that the artesian pressure on the premises of R. F. Brown, at 1004 Fifth East street, is so great that it is capable of blowing the shingles off the roof of Mr. Brown's residence.

"A 'news' reporter went down there yesterday afternoon to look into this 'wonderful pressure,' expecting to find it registering to 125 pounds per square inch. The reporter was surprised to find that the pressure was covered with such a thick deposit of sand on its face, as he stood on his lawn holding in his hand the bushes and a hose, that he could not get a drop of water from the largest and strongest of the four artesian wells owned by that gentleman. In response to questions, he stated that the water was about six feet above the ground, and had two such well sunk 50 feet which is about down to hard pan, he said, and that the water was about three and three wells down to bed. From these four wells Mr. Brown is just about getting enough water to irrigate his property, and keeps each full at the rear of the house for culinary purposes."

The authorities of Salt Lake, when questioned with reference to the above statement, said that they knew nothing whatever of the alleged murder. They stated that they did not know Section, and did not know him.

WOULDN'T WAIT FOR BROWN

Judge Diehl Declines to Let Boy Stay in Jail Until Return of Juvexil: Judge

Diehl, 36, of the 10th Street, arrested last night on the charge of burglary, was released by Justice Frank Diehl, who is now acting after terminating a hold of him.

As the boy is under 16 years of age, the court will have to go to the juvenile court. When an offer of bail was made by the boy's father, it was rejected that Judge Willis Brown would release him. It was stated the boy was 14 years old, and that the Juvenile Court would not accept him.

What is to be done then if a minor who has committed a crime is taken into custody? The question was asked of Brown's attorney.

The prisoner will have to stay in jail until the 10th was the answer that gave back of the boy's release.

Judge Diehl then stated that he would accept a suitable bond, and release the boy. It would be charged, said Justice Diehl, that the boy would be released until the 10th of September. If the boy is all right, he will accept it and release him. The boy was released and went back to work.

LUKE IS SIMPLY AN INTERMEDDLER.

So Designated in Suit Brought by M. L. Cummings Against Judge J. J. Whitaker.

HAD VISITED THE "RED ONION"

Lost Money, and Soon After Leaving Notorious Resort Swallowed a Big Dose of Carbolic Acid.

"I am going to kill myself. I took morphine once but the —— tools pumped me out. This time I am going to take carbolic acid and you can't stop me."

Spoke John W. Thomas, aged about 45 years, agent for the Union Savings & Trust company, shortly after 10 o'clock last night.

Today his body lies in the morgue, and the authorities are trying to locate his relatives, some of whom are believed to reside in Des Moines, Ia., and Colorado.

LOST MONEY GAMBLING.

Thomas had been to the Red Onion gambling house. He lost what little money he had. He had been drinking and was almost in a frenzy when he got home. He had a glass of beer and then invited several persons to take a drink. He then left, saying he was going to commit suicide.

He walked to Simeon drug store on East Temple and Second Street, and asked the clerk for a bottle of carbolic acid. There were several persons in the store at the time, and a large crowd outside.

SWALLOWED DEADLY DRUG.

The clerk gave him a glass of water. Thomas then took the bottle to his mouth and wrapped it around his lips. Thomas quickly put the bottle to his mouth and tried to take all of it.

Clock W. H. Lear of Judge Diehl's court was in the store at the time and saw the man taking the bottle to his mouth. He immediately ran up, took the bottle away, and told the clerk to give him an antidote. The clerk was apparently so frightened that he did not know, for he gazed at Mr. Lear in open-mouthed wonder and horror but did not say anything.

EFFORT TO SAVE.

Mr. Lear asked for some sweet oil. The clerk handed him a gallon bottle. Mr. Lear tried to force some of the oil down the suicide's throat and succeeded in doing so. Thomas then began to vomit. The clerk then took the bottle and called upon the clerk and several other persons to help him throw Thomas down, but for some strange cause they simply stared at the scene being enacted and did not offer to assist. Lear then tried to throw Thomas down, but the man had already assumed a demented and crushed around the dying man, while women screamed and ran to and fro.

PHYSICIANS CALLED.

Physicians were sent for and the patient again was summoned. Thomas was finally taken outside on the shoulders of several men. By this time his case was hopeless. It was a long time before the patrol wagon arrived. Dr. Varian responded to the call for a physician, but there was no chance of saving the man's life.

The man was a profusion of beautiful floral emblems and a long cortage of friends followed the remains to the cemetery, where a quiet service was held.

WEDDED AT WHITE HOUSE.

Then Bride Gave Vocal and Piano Selections for the Marriage Guests.

There was a very pleasant wedding in one of the White House parlors, where Miss Mayme Brown, niece of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Barker, of Park City, was married to Elmer L. Johnson, superintendent of the Viperite mine in Utah, just south of the state line. Miss Brown has a number of musical and instrumental music in Park City, and has made herself particularly beloved in Methodist church circles. Rev. Mr. C. C. Barker, pastor of the Methodist church in Park City, performed the ceremony, and about 150 guests attended.

SLOW SETTLEMENT.

Nearly $2,000 of Schmitt Dividend is Yet Unclaimed.

Trustee in bankruptcy, Gould R. Hindey is having a hard time paying creditors of the Schmitt bank the money due them on their dividends received to date. On account of the fact that the trust fund is still remaining, he is reluctantly, to my knowledge, interfere with the promptness of your attorney to whom, in my opinion, it would qualify. Mr. Hindey, who represents the Denver Theater company, Mr. Hammer has made himself popular with the playgoers section of our public, all of whom will wish that he may find his new lines cast in pleasant rhymes.

The company, under its new name and with its increased capitalization, will extend its waterworks to Bingham Junction as rapidly as practicable. The company recently obtained from Mr. H. H. Miller, of H. H. Miller company, which is composed of stockholders residing in various parts of the country.

NUISANCE TO THE TOWN.

Flock of Sheep Cannot be Legally Kept Within Seven Mile Limit.

Attorney-General Beseden gives the following opinion on the subject of sheep in the city: "It is the opinion of the attorney-general that the inhabitants of the city, in view of the fact that the sheep are not domestic animals, and are not under the control of their owners, have the right to keep them within the city limits."

William Farn, Esq., Health Officer, Bingham, has been writing to you, referring to your inquiry of the 25th last relative to the nuisance committed by sheep in the village of the 25th last.

You say that your settlement is composed of 16 families and that certain persons who own and control the sheep are not members of the sheepherding association, and keep sheep in the city.

One more piece of settlement real estate has been sold, but it brings only $250.

It consists of a five-acre farm in Bingham, which is fenced, but otherwise unimproved.

The sale will be reported to the Board of Education at the next meeting of the trustees, scheduled for Monday.

COOLER WEATHER.

Local Meteorological Office Predicts It Will be Fine Tonight.

The warm spell still hangs on as though intent to leave, set the mercury soaring, then clings to it, retires with every prospect of a respite of the performance today. But the local weatherman foresees cooler weather tonight. Unless the weather improves very much, the temperature will be about 70 degrees after the first of the month, which is the close of the regular season.
