

A FAMILY FEUD RESULTS FATALLY

Shocking Crime Committed by Albert Keethler While in a Burst of Passion.

IN CITY JAIL FOR MURDER.

Wives of the Assassin and His Victim, And a Young Girl Tell Stories of The Awful Tragedy.

As a result of a family quarrel about 6 o'clock last night, Albert Keethler, an employee of Beets and Seller's livery stable, is held at the city jail with the charge of murder hanging over him.

At Joseph E. Taylor's undertaking parlors lies the dead body of Frank Davall, who had worked at the Wilson as a dishwasher. His young wife, whom he married but six months ago, lies at her home 252 State street in a state of prostration over the terrible deed.

The principals to the tragedy all resided in the same house. Davall and his wife occupied the front portion, while Keethler and his wife, who was formerly Mrs. Lizzie Preston, and her daughter Violet, 15 years of age, resided in the rear portion.

Mrs. Davall is the daughter of Mrs.
Keethler. Keethler was born in New York last evening, and frame of mind, according to statement of the family, he always carried a gun. Shortly after he arrived home he began a row with his wife, and according to her statement, struck her. She screamed and Davall ran into the room from the front of the house. The two men were engaged in an altercation, and Keethler drew a gun, firing two shots at Davall, both of which took effect.
The struggle continued until the doorway between the kitchen and the bedroom, one of the butlers entered Davall's bedroom, and the other entered the kitchen, taking an upward course, and lodging in the piano room. After being shot, Davall ran out of the house and around to the north side and near the porch he fell in death agony. His wife ran out and called to him, but he was unable to answer, and died before the officers could reach him.

OFFICERS SUMMONED.

Officer Burton was summoned, and officer Keethler, who walked toward the block up the street, Burton rushed to Officer Hilton, who was walking toward Keethler. The latter still held the revolver, a cheap .38-caliber of the dull dog type. The officers closed in on him and took him to the station.
Keethler declared that he was on his way to surrender.

The dead man was but 22 years of age. About nine months ago he married Edna Preston, the 17-year-old daughter of Mrs. Lizzie Preston Keeth-ler.

Keethler has worked for the livery stable for a long time. It is stated that he had an impulsive temper and always carried a gun.

THE WIFE'S STORY.

Mrs. Keethler, wife of the prisoner, made the following statement to the police:

"My husband has a very bad temper and when he flies into a rage he seems able to control himself. He simply goes crazy. When he came home last night he was in a bad frame of mind.
He ordered my daughter Violet, who is 15 years of age, to go to bed. She laughed recovering from an attack of typhoid fever. When Mr. Keethler began quarreling with Violet I interceded.
My husband then attacked me and I exclaimed, 'Frank was in the front part of the house.' He ran out of the room when he heard me say this. Keethler drew a gun and Frank made a grab for it. My husband changed the gun to the other hand and fired twice.
Frank then ran out of the house and did not return again."

THE IRON WORKS CASE.

Silver Brothers Admit Foundry Makes
Some Noise, but That is All.

The demurral to the complaint in the junction suit brought by Amy J. K.
Smith et al against the Silver Bros.
Iron Works company has been overruled by Judge Morse and the defendant has filed its answer to the complaint. The company admits that the operation of its plant causes some noise but no more than is incident to all such plants. It claims that the homes of plaintiff's cause more smoke and soot than do the iron works and that the plant has been in operation for 20 years and no objection has been made to it until now.

THE IRON WORKS CASE.

The Best Doctor.

Rev. H. C. Horton, Southern Springs, Colo., says: "I have used my family Ballard's Show Liniment and Household Balsam, and they have proved certainly satisfactory. The liniment is the best we ever used."
Liniment and Household Balsam have been popular for the last eight years.
See Dr. Hill's Drug Co., Z. C. M. I. Drug
Dept.

Fifty Years the Standard

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER

*A Cream of Tartar Powder Made From Grapes
No Alum*

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

(DO YOU REMEMBER?)

John Bassendorf and an unknown woman committed suicide by shooting at Central Park, New York. The woman shot herself first. A bundle of love letters, with notes explaining why they intended to die, lay between them.

Mrs. George Hadley of West Weber, Utah, was instantly killed in a runaway accident.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY.

Corbett and Fitzsimmons were positively refused permission to fight in Tenes, by Gov. Culverson of that state.

The first session of the great Elstodden opened in the Tabernacle.

Lient. S. S. Pogue shot three times at his commander, Col. R. E. Croftton, at Fort Sheridan. One bullet passed through the colonel's clothing. The Lieutenant was court-martialed.

FIVE YEARS AGO TODAY.

Frank Dayton, who held up and shot John H. Kimball, and who was caught and held by Samuel Russell, was sentenced by Judge Cherry to twelve years imprisonment.

Benjamin C. Campbell, who sank the first oil well ever put down in the United States, died at Santa Barbara, Cal., aged 73 years.

His victim was dead, he turned whiter; a man has served his country. The following is the price list:

First enlistment, $120; after one and one-half year's service, $100; after two years service, $80.

Second Enlistment—After three years service, $100; after four years' service, $80; after five years' service, $60.

Third Enlistment—After six years' service, $80; after seven years' service, $65; after eight years' service, $50.

Fourth Enlistment—After nine years' service, $60; after 10 years' service, $50; after 11 years' service, $40.

Any Subsequent Enlistment—After 12 years' service, $40.

STROUBLE OVER A TRUNK.

The first trouble occurred over a trunk that I had bought for $5 and which my wife wanted to send back, because she said she needed the money.

We quarreled over the matter and I said I would go over to the stable to sleep. My wife said she would not let me go. I pushed her over on the bed and she screamed.

Then Davall came into the room and asked what the trouble was. His wife then came in and tried to avert him. I ordered her from the room and Davall jumped on me and began striking me. I reached for the gun and bit him in the mouth. I fired but thought the bullet went between his legs. I fled and he ran out of the house. I did not see him again."

INQUEST TO BE HELD.

Undoubtedly an inquest will be held over the remains of young Davall. The county physician will also probably hold an autopsy in order to determine the cause of death. The bullet was lodged in Keethler's head.

The latter is still in the city jail. He is extremely nervous and does not care to discuss the subject of his trouble.

Then Davall came into the room
and asked what the trouble was. His wife then came in and tried to avert
him. I ordered her from the room and Davall jumped on me and began
striking me. I reached for the gun and
bit him in the mouth. I fired but
thought the bullet went between his
legs. I fled and he ran out of the house. I did not see him again."

THE IRON WORKS CASE.

Silver Brothers Admit Foundry Makes
Some Noise, but That is All.

The demurral to the complaint in the
junction suit brought by Amy J. K.
Smith et al against the Silver Bros.
Iron Works company has been overruled by Judge Morse and the defendant has filed its answer to the complaint. The company admits that the operation of its plant causes some
noise but no more than is incident to
all such plants. It claims that the
homes of plaintiff's cause more smoke
and soot than do the iron works and
that the plant has been in operation for 20 years and no objection has been made to it until now.

THE IRON WORKS CASE.

The Best Doctor.

Rev. H. C. Horton, Southern Springs,
Colo., says: "I have used
my family Ballard's Show Liniment
and Household Balsam, and they have proved certainly satisfactory. The liniment
is the best we ever used."
Liniment and Household Balsam
have been popular for the last eight years.
See Dr. Hill's Drug Co., Z. C. M. I. Drug
Dept.

MORPHINE SUICIDE.

"Diamond Kid," a Crap Dealer, Ends His Life With Sleep Drug.

Al Hardin, better known as the "Diamond Kid," a crap dealer, committed suicide about 1:30 o'clock this morning by taking a large dose of morphine.

The young man met his death in his room above Sherwood drug store on Fifth Street and State streets. The dead man was about 40 years of age and was married but had no children.

His wife is at her home separated from her husband over the shocking occurrence.

When he was taken to his home, a physician was summoned and although he worked over him for some time it was without success.

Judge Davis T. Smith was notified and sent the remains to Hall's undertaking parlor. It is not likely that an inquest will be held.

It is known that the young man had been drinking heavily of late and became dependent. No arrangements had been made for the funeral as yet.

The morning Justice Davis T. Smith notified the police department that two unlawful men took Hardin home shortly after last midnight. At that time the young man was under the influence of the deadly drug.

They left him at his door and then instantly away. No one seems to know who the two men were, and the city detectives are doing their best to locate them in the hope that they will be able to throw some light on the matter.

BEHIND THE BARS.

At the police-station immediately after the fatal shooting Keethler was pale and trembling. He was in a cell clinging to the bars. When informed that

100 TIMES

He Read the Pamphlet to Keep Up His Courage.

This letter was unsolicited:

Salt Lake City, Utah.
March 31, 1905.

Joe J. Fulton Co., San Francisco, Dear Sirs: I send you with the greatest pleasure that I write to tell you that your Compound for Bright's Disease has saved my life.

It was weak and droopy. Was tired all the time, just as I started on the Comp. I read your pamphlet about 100 times. When I thought I would read it again to give me more time it was slow, but I am now on my 3rd day and consider myself well. I am just today back to business. Every one will tell you my recovery was a miracle. Without this Comp. I'd have been dead.

Yours,

ANDREW C. LAESSEN,
Or Sorenson & Laesen, 145 West Second Street.

P.S.—My partner Sorenson wants to add this line: "I telephoned to doctor daily. He said you had no chance to recover and for me to arrange your business. When you showed improvement under the Comp. I telephoned to Dr. He replied: 'It makes no difference, it is as impossible for pain to recover as to empty the ocean.'

M. SORENSEN.

Bright's Disease and Diabetes are now curable in about 87 per cent of all cases by Fulton's Compounds. Send for details.

F. J. Hill Drug Co., Agts., Salt Lake When to consult Bright's Disease—weakness or loss of weight; puffy eyes, hands or eyelids droopy. Kidney trouble after the third month—Urine—may show sediment; falling vision; drowsiness; one or more of these.

PURCHASED FREEDOM.

How Two of Uncle Sam's Soldiers Have Bought Their Liberties.

Private A. D. Rogers of the Twelfth battery at Fort Douglas, and Private Walter E. Schumacher of F troop, Fifth cavalry, at Fort Duchesne, have purchased release from army service in accordance with the act of Congress, March, 1904.

The scale of prices for a discharge varies in inverse ratio with the time

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Ellis Meredith, whose novel, entitled "Heart of My Heart," published last year, created so favorable an impression among literary coterie and circles of society here in Salt Lake, the guest of Judge and Mrs. Marionexous. Miss Meredith is on her way to the coast. Mrs. Cynthia Westover Alden of the Ladies' Home Journal was also a visitor here this week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Salisbury, Mrs.
Cash and James Salisbury leave shortly for the east and will probably spend the winter in Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bitter and Miss Mabel Ritter leave tomorrow for New York, where Mr. Bitter will attend the Bankers' convention which meets there during the month. They will return at the end of that time.

Mrs. H. W. Lawrence will entertain at a tea on Friday for her daughter Mrs. Joseph Young of Denver, who is visiting her.

Miss Lucy Parsons, who entertained an anonymous affair in home of Miss Mabel Ritter, her decorations being in red and green, and a laughable conundrum contest being the feature of the afternoon, in which Miss Jean Spencer was prize winner.

Mrs. G. W. Snow entertained at cards yesterday in honor of Mrs. C. S. Williamson of Denver. Her rooms, despite prestigious decorations, were prettily decorated, and the prize was won by Mrs. W. J. Lynch.

Mrs. Lucy Parsons, who entertained
an anonymous affair in home of Miss Mabel Ritter, her decorations being in
red and green, and a laughable conundrum
contest being the feature of the
afternoon, in which Miss Jean Spencer
was prize winner.

Mrs. G. W. Snow entertained at cards
yesterday in honor of Mrs. C. S. Williamson of Denver. Her rooms, despite
prestigious decorations, were prettily
decorated, and the prize was
won by Mrs. W. J. Lynch.

Mrs. Walter Jennings has returned from an extended stay on the coast.

Miss Letitia Hafen of Springville and J. David Larson were married Thursday in the Salt Lake Temple, and the same evening a reception was given at the home of the groom's parents.
Friday evening another reception was given them at the bride's home in Springville. The bride is the daughter of Miss Letitia Hafen, one of Utah's art leaders, and the groom a prominent newspaper man and real estate man doing business in Sugar City, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. Larson will make their home in Sugar City.

Mr. and Mrs. Eber Case announce the engagement of their daughter, Luella, to Chester Caine Pratt, the marriage to take place in the near future.

Miss Bertha Wetmore and Laurence S. Hill, both of Colorado, were married last night at St. Mark's cathedral, and left later for the groom's home in Florenc, Colo.

Mrs. Lucy Gates will be guest of honor at a farewell gathering at the Bees Hive House tonight, given prior to her departure for New York. The event will be largely in the nature of a municipal and a musical program will be among the features. The guests will include a number of the prominent local musicians.

Thursday night the general board of officers of the Relief Society will give a large reception at the Bee Hive House in honor of the visiting officers of the M. A. A.

A Prominent Trainman.

The many friends of G. H. Hansen, E. L. E. & W. R. B. R., at present living in Lima, O., will be pleased to know of his recovery from threatened kidney disease. He says he will return to the United States next