

The assembly hall, and a number of delightful home affairs have made a pleasant week's record, and some notable events are planned for both the coming and holiday weeks. Christmas is in the air, and the social atmosphere for the next two weeks at least will be tinged with the Yuletide cheer.

On Thursday at noon in the Salt Lake Temple Miss Mary Ellen Clark and Mr. Walter Romney were united in marriage, and in the evening at the home of Mr. George Romney, Jr., on D street, the young couple were tendered an elaborate reception.

Mr. Romney's beautiful home was bright with decorations of cut flowers and potted plants, roses and chrysanthemums being used in profusion. The Lambeau string quartet, stationed on the stairs, rendered appropriate musical selections during the evening. The bride couple received the congratulations of the guests, standing under a floral bower in the parlor, and cut flowers and palms completed the artistic decorations. Miss Siddoway presided at the punch bowl during the evening. A large number of guests were present and the newly wedded pair were recipients of many valuable presents. Miss Clark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Clark of Sugar, and was the valedictorian of the college class of 1900 of the U. of U. Mr. Romney is the son of Bishop George Romney of the Twentieth ward. He recently returned from Germany, and is now employed at the Z. C. M. L. They will make their home on Eleventh East street. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Webster, Mr. and Mrs. Will Romney, Bishop and Mrs. Romney, Mrs. Margaret Romney, Miss Wallace, Miss Adams, Miss Mrs. Geo. M. Marshall, Prof. and Mrs. Callister, Prof. and Mrs. Byron Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Benson, Mr. and Mrs. Shas. St. John, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Smith, Claude Richards, Miss Alice Richards, Eugene B. Lewis, Miss Raleigh, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Carlson, Sperry Lawson, Lewis Cannon, Benjamin Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Larkin, Archer Hill, Charles Crismon, Miss Mina Taylor, Clarence Neslen, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Kingsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. J. Ross, Mr. Royal Romney, Miss Della Romney, Mr. Ray Romney, Miss Nettie Stewart, Mr. Booth, Mr. Folsom.

The assembly hall given on Wednesday night was pronounced by all those present to be the pleasantest yet given. The hall was tastefully arranged with red, orange, and the music and all other details were all that could be desired. Present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Holman, Burns Macdonald, J. W. Neill, J. T. White, J. N. Sharp, Wochington, J. E. Ramberger, W. H. King, Westervelt, Peter, J. C. Fisher, J. E. Charles Read, William Reid, R. H. Olfner, R. C. Naylor, J. N. Sharp, Sol Siegel, W. H. Dale, S. V. Shale, D. S. Murray, D. M. Lindsay, C. L. Road, Bogue, E. H. Smith, J. J. Glenning, Bowen, F. E. McGurkin, G. K. Fisher, J. E. Caine, Jack Keith, M. A. Breeden, L. E. Riter, R. J. Coleman, R. P. Hayward, H. Griswold, J. O. Cross, R. C. Gendall, C. D. Kooklinke, Knight, J. E. Jennings, Mesdames, Buel, and Mesdames Downey, William A. Akers, Emelley Smith, Knickerbocker, Duke Baxter, Misses Burke, Welier, Howat, Odell, Schoppe, Ivers, Breeden, Edna, Laura Shearman, Sherman, Alma Sherman, Dickson, Dora, Elizabeth Dorn, Miller, Marge Miller, Sallybury, Neff, Saunders, McMillan, Young, Jasmine Young, Kanter, Reid, Hilde, Leonard, Sharp, Dandelax, Culmer, Messrs. Thompson, Sadler, W. L. Pence, Odell, Schoppe, R. Z. Smith, C. Diehl, K. C. Park, Anderson, Overfield, Nolan, Boyd, Thomas, Breeden, Brigham Cannon, Max Smith, A. B. Sawyer, C. A. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Blood, Coffin, Knickerbocker, Schuler, Bracken, Browne, Peter, Skinner, Odell, Wells, Hampton, Will Thompson, Sam Porter, W. H. Cunningham, Campbell, Dick Sprague, Lieut. Farrer, Lieut. Platt, Lieut. Barry, Lieut. Payton.

A charming event of the week was the wedding of Miss Katharine R. King and Benjamin J. Hamill, on Wednesday night. The event took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Carpenter, the house being handsomely decorated for the occasion. Pink and white prevailed in the color scheme, the parlors being especially pretty. The bridal party stood under a huge hall of flowers and smilax, from which ribbons were suspended, and at the end of the ceremony the ribbons were pulled and the hall opened into a shower of pink rose-petal on the heads of the bride and groom. The bride's attendants, Janie Carpenter and Edna Shultz held the ribbons attached to the hall. Rev. Clarence T. Brown performed the ceremony, and the bride was given away by her uncle, Mr. E. L. Carpenter. During the service the Lohengrin "Bridal Chorus" was played by Miss McDowell, and the Mendelssohn Wedding March followed. The bride wore a beautiful gown in dainty crepon over white tulle, with trimmings of applique and velvet, and carried bride's roses. After the ceremony delicious refreshments were served in the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with pink and white roses, chrysanthemums and candelabra shaded in pink. Assistants in receiving were: Mrs. James Forsgren, Mrs. E. H. Rogers, Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. W. H. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Hamill will be at home at 318 south, Sixth East street, after Jan. 6.

The marriage of Miss Ellen Hill and Julius A. Rockwood took place in the Temple on Wednesday. In the evening a reception was given at the home of the bride's parents on Fifth East street, the rooms being beautifully decorated with flowers. A delicious supper was served from 5 until 8. Miss Hazel Hill presided at the punch bowl. Many beautiful presents were received by the newly married couple. The bride is a popular young lady in Sugar House ward, and is the manager of the Utah Ice company. There were about 140 guests present to enjoy the evening.

Monday was the birthday anniversary of Mrs. W. H. Douglass, and the date was made the occasion for a delightful surprise party, planned by the board of the Y. L. M. L. association, of which Mrs. Douglass is counselor, about fifty people gathering unexpectedly at her home on West Center street, and spending a delightful evening. Among the pleasant features was a literary guessing contest in which Mrs. Augusta Grant and Mr. Benjamin Goodard were prize winners, and the rest of the evening was spent with music and recitations. Mrs. A. W. McCune and Mrs. May Talmage recited, Mrs. Bassett and Mr. Le Roi Snow giving vocal solos. Mr. Le Roi Snow whistling piece, and Mrs. W. E. Douglass piano selection. The guests were: President and Mrs. Joseph F. Smith, Dr. and Mrs. Talmage, Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Eardley, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Woodruff, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Fox, Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beattie, Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Badger, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Goodard, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph H. Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Douglass, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. James McMurray, Mrs. Minnie J. Snow, Mrs. Augusta Grant, Mrs. A. W. McCune, Mrs. Mary Freeke, Mrs. Bassett, Mrs. Elias Morris, Mrs. Brison, Mrs. Minnie A. Freese, Mrs. Ward, Miss Annie Cannon, Miss Aggie Campbell, Miss Annie Campbell, Miss Stella Neff, Miss Eddington, Miss Addis, Mr. Neophi Morris.

Mrs. Burns McDonald entertained at dinner on Wednesday, her guests being Mrs. Duke Baxter, Miss Dorn, Miss Elizabeth Dorn, Miss Miller, Miss Margaret Miller, Mr. Max Smith, Mr. John Cleghorn, Mr. W. H. Lawrence. The decorations were in pink.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Sowles gave an informal housewarming on Tuesday night, about 40 guests being present. The rooms were decorated with violets, and refreshments were served.

On Thursday night the C. W. B. M. of the Central Christian church gave a delightful reception on Thursday night in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Bagley, the occasion being to celebrate their wedding anniversary, and also as a farewell gathering, the event being held at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Bagley on east Fourth South street. They were assisted in receiving by Judge and Mrs. Brown, Mrs. Bruckman and Mrs. Milliron and Misses Blanche Cassidy and Mamie Sappington served fruit punch in the library. In the dining room Mrs. Schenert and Mrs. Jesse Taylor, assisted by Misses Ma Langley, Margie Simon, Flora Smith and Jennie Pierce served refreshments, and the guests were met at the door by Misses Hazel Sappington and Flora McCane. The rooms were beautifully decorated, and over a hundred people called between the hours of 8 and 11.

On Wednesday afternoon Miss June McIntyre was hostess at a delightful rag bee, about 60 guests being present. The rooms were prettily decorated with white chrysanthemums, violets, and smilax, and the violet and white color scheme was beautifully carried out in the candelabra and chandelier shades, refreshments, and floral adornments throughout the house. The hostess sat in a white chair with a bunch of violets at her feet, and the silk rugs to be seen for a certain were wrapped in white tissue paper, tied with violet ribbons. The prize winners were: Miss Teasdale and Mrs. A. H. Ensign. Present were: Mesdames A. E. Walker, Chauncey Benedict, G. M. Marshall, Vivian McCune, John Sears, A. H. Ensign, Henry Lund, Dana Smith, S. H. Pinkerton, T. Donahoe, Rie Dix and L. Chase, Misses Pearl Weller, Pearl, Pearl, Pearl, van Cott, Goldie and Stella Dix, Hall, Bessie Hall, Jennie Santa, Lucie Jennings, Jennie Mackintosh, Miller, Margaret Miller, Raybould, Daisy Raybould, Gertrude Riley, Bessie Riley, Douglas, Hyde, Beatrice Hyde, O'Connor, Hattie Jennings, May Biddle, Evelyn Thomas, Welk, Teasdale, Stella Sharp, Porter, Needham, Rawlins, Rilla McIntyre, Carter, Patterson, Pelt, Green-Jack, Florence Green-Jack, L. E. Taylor, Williams, Mamie Edridge, Alice Seckel and Genevieve Clark.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Edward Richards, Mrs. Charles E. Richards and Miss Richards gave a card party, the event taking place at the home of Mrs. Edward Richards on Eighth East street. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers and smilax, and a charming picture was effected by throwing open the conservatory at the east end of the house. The card scheme was one of the prettiest, and most original of the year. There were twelve tables, each representing a month in the year, and the score cards were decorated with water color flowers of the month represented by the table, and each card had a calendar, while a couplet on the back referred to the month and its flower. The tables were also in water-color flowers. The prizes, a picture, gift clock and cut glass vase were won respectively by

Out door Exercise gives greatest good, when it is supplemented by using in the bath

Woodbury's Facial Soap

It draws the sting of sunburn, heals chafes and bruises, freshens and invigorates the skin leaving it smooth, firm and white.

Vanity's Facial Cream cures chapped face and hands. Sold by dealers, 25 cents each. Trial size package of soap and cream 5 cents. Postpaid. Andrew Jergens & Co., Sole Agents, Dept. 11, Cincinnati, O.

Mrs. Ira Lyons, Mrs. John Reese and Mrs. George T. Odell. Misses Florence Grant, June Rie, Morley Berkley and Jeannette Richards assisted in the dining room.

Mrs. Pitts and Miss Paralee Pitts entertained informally at dinner on Thursday, covers being laid for ten. The decorations were entirely in green, smilax and ferns being used with pretty effect. The guests were: Mrs. Samuel Sprague, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Sadler, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Walker, Miss Mamie Porter, Mr. A. B. Wither, Mr. Lindsay Sprague.

Mrs. James E. Jennings entertained the Sewing club yesterday at luncheon in honor of Mrs. Will Dinwoodey. Mrs. Jennings also entertained informally at dinner on Tuesday.

On Thursday night Miss Barr and Miss Lulu Barr entertained the members of St. Mark's choir at their home, which was prettily decorated for the occasion. A delightful time was spent, a feature of the evening being a guessing contest. About thirty guests were present.

Miss Lena Preston entertained at a charming luncheon party on Wednesday in honor of Miss Macmillan, her guests being Mrs. B. B. Hanak, Mrs. J. T. Harris, Mrs. R. H. Officer, Mrs. Charles Wilkins, and Misses Lulu Macmillan, Leta Macmillan, Gertrude McGrath, Dora and Elizabeth Dorn. The table was beautifully decorated in white and green, with a large ice plant as centerpiece and candelabra with green shades at each end, flanked by bowls of white begonia and marguerites placed on mirrors. Small vases filled with flowers stood at the four corners, and the place cards were hand-painted figures on heart-shaped cards, that of the guest of honor being a bride.

Miss Lucile Jennings will come down from Logan next week to spend the holidays.

Mrs. A. L. Hoppaugh entertained the euchre club on Tuesday.

Mrs. William McGrath and brother, Mr. William Paine, have returned from California.

Mrs. Kate B. Anderson will give a musical next Wednesday in honor of her mother, Mrs. Bridewell.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gibbons have gone to California.

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Park have returned from their eastern trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray Putnam entertained informally at dinner on Thursday.

Col. and Mrs. E. F. Holmes have issued invitations for a reception to be held at the home on Thursday, December 26, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. J. V. White of Detroit.

Among the interesting events of next week will be the wedding of Miss Emma Lunt and Dr. W. S. Ellerbeck.

Miss Dooley has returned from Colorado where she has been visiting with friends.

Mrs. Theresa Bechtel of Grand Rapids, Mich., is the guest of Mrs. J. T. White.

Mrs. Mary Judge and Miss Judge are in California.

Mr. W. H. Gibson of Nevada is in Salt Lake for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey S. Hull will return from California next week.

Miss Ann Thacher was the guest during this week of Miss Mary Snyder.

Mrs. Wilson of Denver who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Sheple, left on Thursday for Honolulu.

Mrs. A. E. Walker will entertain the card club next Tuesday.

Mr. W. F. Calloway has returned from California.

Mrs. B. B. Hanak leaves next week for Chicago, where she will spend the holidays.

The following is taken from a San Francisco paper: J. W. Clawson, having recovered from his long and dangerous illness, is now busily engaged on delayed portrait orders, being hard at work this week on a large three-quarters portrait of William Colburn.

PROVO SOCIAL NEWS.

Miss Julia Tyler, of Denver, is visiting Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry and daughters. Owen Dusenberry is over from Mammoth, visiting relatives.

Mrs. C. A. Peterson and Mr. S. A. Hendrichsen of Scotland, visited relatives in Provo this week.

The D. B. P. O. club will give a ball in the Mozart pavilion on the night of the 20th.

The ball given by the ladies of the Democratic club Thursday evening was largely attended, and a very enjoyable social event, reflecting great credit on the ladies of the committee, who had the management of the affair.

Nelson E. Margetts came down from Salt Lake Tuesday to attend the Gates concert and visit friends.

The Second ward M. L. A. gave a novel party in the Mozart pavilion Friday evening. The gentlemen drew a number representing one of the ladies present, who became his partner for the evening. The cost of the gentlemen's ticket was based on the avoidance of his partner—40 cents per cent of lovelessness. The party proved a very enjoyable event to the large number of people who were present.

The Nineteenth Century club met Friday with Mrs. Havercamp. The following interesting program was presented: "The Decline of the Dutch Republic," Mrs. Nena A. Thurman; "Annexation of Holland to France," Mrs. Emily M. Havercamp; Review, "The Boy of Orange Ribbon," Mrs. Rosetta N. Schwab.

Miss Teasdale lectured Wednesday evening before the Parents' class on "Art in the Home and School," illustrated by stereopticon views, portraying characteristics of some of the great painters. Miss Teasdale spoke of art as an individual expression, by which the history of people who lived in the past centuries have been preserved, and their thoughts in their works of art. The rude beginnings of art were explained and its development in different periods and under various conditions were illustrated. Art is inherent and if developed instead of repressed will become a never ending pleasure. The practical benefits of art such as architecture, designing, etc., were elucidated. The next lecture will be given by Mrs. Susa Y. Gates on "Social Inconsistencies."

Mrs. Stella Hyde and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jensen went to Alpine today to participate in a reunion in the family of W. J. Strong, the occasion being the seventy-first anniversary of Mr. Strong's birth and the fifth anniversary of the wedding of his son, Sam, O. Strong.

The Sorosis met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Cordelia Beck. The program for the afternoon was historical. The first paper given was a review of the English navy by Mrs. Elizabeth Partridge. After recess, members responded to roll call with appropriate quotations.

Edmund T. Olson was down from the capital this week, visiting friends.

Mrs. Eleanor Warner read a very interesting paper on "The Battle of Trafalgar." Owing to the absence of Mrs. Ida I. Dusenberry, Mrs. Warner also gave "The Life of Lord Nelson." Mrs. Mattie Osborn gave the critics report; the club adjourned for one week to meet at the same place. A full attendance is desired.

The students of the Eighth grade in the public schools gave a pleasant social Thursday evening in the Parker school, attended by the teachers and members of the board of education. A fine program was rendered, and delicious refreshments were served.

Sat Social

Mrs. David Keith entertained at cards on Monday night, her guests being Dr. and Mrs. Lindsay, Dr. and Mrs. Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilkins, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Rookliffe, Captain and Mrs. Caine, Mrs. Reid, Mrs. Nell, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. Boyd, Miss Hanauer, Miss Sherman, Miss Edith Shearman, Miss Sadler, Miss Elsie Sherman, Miss Woodward, Miss Porter, Miss Alton Young, Miss Jasmine Young, Miss Nell, Maj. Hill, Mr. Porter, Mr. Sherman, Mr. Hanauer, Mr. Coffin, Dr. McElroy.

CLUB CHAT.

The fashion of club hymns seems to be spreading. The Massachusetts state federation set the pace last year for the big organizations, as the Chicago West End Woman's club started the style in local club circles. New York State society, D. A. R., has fallen into line with an anthem. This is called "Victory," and it has been unanimously adopted as the state hymn of the New York Teachers. Mrs. Herbert Taylor of New York is the author of the words, and Mrs. Walter A. Henry, an artist daughter, composed the music. By a happy coincidence both ladies were present to receive a rising vote of thanks. The ladies have now announced every chapter in the state will be sent a copy as a gift of the authors. Besides this thoughtful act they also presented Mrs. Charles W. Fairbanks with a copy, hoping the president general would bring it to the wild and untamed to poetry, an example in harmony to the fighting Daughters. As none of the Chicago Daughters have yet viewed the anthem or heard it chanted there is a bare possibility that it has been sent near a cotton-candy bakery of the land. Some hope it has. Others hope it hasn't.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy accepted, at their annual convention, just closed at Wilmington, N. C., an invitation to meet in 1913 in St. Louis during the exposition in that city at that time. The regular annual meeting of the society takes place in November of next year, the place of meeting to be New Orleans. The election of officers resulted in making Mrs. J. A. Rounsville of Rome, Ga., president; Mrs. McMill-Rosenberg of Texas, first vice president; Mrs. T. J. Latham, Tennessee, second vice president; Mrs. John P. Glickman, Nashville, recording secretary; Mrs. V. P. McSherry of West Virginia, corresponding secretary; Mrs. James Leigh of Norfolk, Va., treasurer, and Mrs. Gabbitt of Georgia, custodian of the Crosses of Honor. It was voted by the society to appropriate $500 out of its funds towards the erection of the Jefferson Davis monument at Richmond, Mrs. C. Goodlett Jackson and Mrs. M. C. Goodlett were elected honorary presidents.

An important committee of the National Society of New England Women is that of Investigation and Relief, of which Mrs. F. J. James Swinburne is chairman. This committee endeavours to aid any needy or destitute person of New England ancestry, securing funds in various ways, one of which is to have a table at each meeting of the society, at which fancy articles are to be offered for sale, the receipts to be devoted to this work alone. The committee accomplishes a great deal of good in a quiet, tactful way.

The Vermont State Federation invited a discussion of the color question at its recent annual meeting, in which, says the Clubwoman, the leader, Mrs. Theodore A. Davis, urged the club women of Vermont to take time to settle this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts, saying that "in the North we have the educated negro, while in the South the club women would have to stand side by side with the lowest class of colored people, and they have a very different problem to deal with." Mrs. Sallie Joy White said the Southern women are doing splendid work for the colored women of the South, and one of two others urged that the federation should not allow this question. Miss Helen M. Winslow stated some important facts