

Our third June white carnival

Walker's

Begins Monday morning-June 3rd

Every white article in the house marked down, with the exception of E and W collars and spool cotton.

We announce our third annual June white carnival with great pleasure as we know how the people of this city appreciate this special event—combining as it does great bargain opportunities with pleasant features unusually attendant upon mid-summer shopping.

No telephone orders allowed on June white sale goods.

June white carnival on the under-muslin aisle.

An unusually splendid sale of undermuslins is this—Thousands of dollars worth of finest muslin underwear purchased for Mid May sale, was shipped wrong—has been over two months on the road, but fortunately has reached us just in time for the June white carnival.

There are hundreds and hundreds of handsomest gowns, long skirts, corset covers, drawers, chemise, and short skirts—made of finest cambric, long cloth and nainsook and trimmed with dainty embroidery, laces and fine tucks.

We divide the entire shipment into three lots and price as follows:

- Lot No. 1—worth up to $1.25 the garment... 69c
- Lot No. 2—worth up to $1.75 the garment... 98c
- Lot No. 3—worth up to $2.25 the garment... $1.39

In addition to this great sale our entire regular stock of undermuslins, including all French hand made pieces and finest domestic creations will go at 20 per cent off.
